Mrs. Mitchell Entertains
On Sunday July 1, at 4:00, Mrs. Mitchell was hostess to the Sylvia Williams Mission Circle at her home on 2508 Otis Street. The devotions was conducted by the president, Mrs. Nora Leathers after which Master Bennie sturdwick sang "He", which was beautifully rendered. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bullock, the daughter of Mrs. Mitchell.

The Business session was presided over by Mrs. Leathers. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Old business and other committees were given. Mrs. Lula Green of 412 Pine Street and her grand daughter were reported ill. Prayers were given by Mrs. Mary Goins Mrs. Prati Wright, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Mary Mangum for their speedy recovery.

Mrs. Nora Leathers presented Mrs. Mitchell Mrs. Mary Goins and Mrs. Ella Pratt Wright with birthday gifts. The ladies expressed their appreciations to the members of the circle for being remembered.

With the collection, Bible quotations were given by all present. The report of activities which were many and varied showed the work of real active Home Missionaries. The Lessons for the month of July as stated in the Missionary "Helper" subjects as follows: "Influence of Early Faith in Christ."

Fields of Responsibility in Christian and Missionary Education of Young People with Lifted Eyes—Redeeming the time. Theme for the quarter "Lift Up Your Eyes and Look Upon the Fields." John—4—35. These were beautifully discussed by Mrs. H. F. Boykin and enjoyed by all. The group was served a delightful repast. Assisting Mrs. Mitchell was her daughter, Mrs. Bullock. Expressions of gratitude to the hostesses were given by Mrs. Mary Mangum for the lovely afternoon in their beautiful home. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Mary Mangum on Alston Avenue, the first Sunday in July.

School Problems To Require Best Efforts, College Alumni Told

The Durham Alumni Chapter of Barber Scotia College has held its closing meeting of the current school year.

W. J. Kennedy, Sr., president of the North Carolina Mutual was the guest speaker and his message to the group was followed with rapt attention. Mr. Kennedy expressed his appreciation of fellowship with this particular group and chose to discuss a subject of vital importance and concern to all of us, namely Higher Education.

As a member of the Committee on Higher Education appointed by the governor of the state, his address was challenging revealing and inspiring.

Haven, Conn. While there she visited St. Matthew Free Will Baptist Church, 100 Webster St., Reverend Lloyd Taylor pastor, East Rock, West Rock and the Savory Rock. The trip was very enjoyable and was given by Miss Margaret Dunston and a friend Robert Short.

Miss Janie Bell Crutchfield, niece of Mrs. Dunston's accompanied her to Washington, D. C., to spend some time with Mrs. Louise C. Norris, who is an expectant mother.

Among other things Mr. Kennedy said there have been so many changes of such far reaching importance that our thinking individually and collectively must be accelerated to keep progress with the changing times. We must extend ourselves further and faster than ever before. High tribute was given to such schools as Barber Scotia and her graduates were urged to greater consecration of service.

Kennedy said further that the problem of economics is basically involved. By 1970 it is predicted the school population will be doubled yet there will probably be an inadequacy of buildings and teachers so that no one school can completely absorb its school community, yet the schools must be capable of giving scholars what they need in quality of service.

Our physical health must also be improved as the greatest difference in the life span of the Negro and the Caucasian occurs before the age of forty, the age of an individuals highest peak of productivity.

The churches in many instances have moved ahead in the present challenge and the educational program of several of the local churches was cited.

Mrs. C. E. Boulware had visited Barber Scotia recently and she gave the group many interesting observations and comments.

As usual, a yearly donation was given to the school by the chapter and Mr. Kennedy and Mrs. Elizabeth Bampfield who are regarded as honorary members were again generous in their contribution to our effort.

Mesdames I. H. Russell and Sara Amey Johnson, Dr. C. E. Boulware and David Parham were chapter guests and contributed to the discussion which followed the address by Mr. Kennedy. Members of the Durham Chapter are Mesdames W. J. Kennedy, B.A.J. Whitted, E. R. Merrick, R. N. Harris, M. S. Shaerin, T. D. Parham, C. E. Boulware, R. P. Amey, L. Hunter Cotton, E. R. Hill, secretary, Misses Felicia Miller, Mamie Bedell, Cleo Russell, treasurer, Diana Dent and Helen Clement, president.

Garden Club In Final Meeting Of Year With Mrs. Clara Stroud

The Dahlia Garden Club held its last meeting of the season Tuesday night June twenty-six at the home of Mrs. Clara Stroud, 1508 Club Boulevard.

The Garden Gate was opened by singing "In The Garden". The Twenty-Third Psalms and the Lords Prayer were repeated in union. Miss Lillie M. Rogers, president, was in charge of the business session. Highlights of the meeting were the reports of the Delegates from the Federation of State Garden Clubs held in Charlotte at Johnson C. Smith University. Mrs. Mary Moore and Miss Victoria Moore gave the informative reports with comments added by Miss Rogers and Mrs. Lythia Brewer. An arrangement made by Mrs. Mary Moore won the second award which was a red ribbon at the convention. Officers for the new year selected by a committee with Mrs. Leslie B. Brown, chairman, was accepted by the club.

Also the date, and plans for the annual outing of the club were suggested. This concluded the business session. The hostess served delicious refreshments to the following gardeners: Misses Lillie Rogers and Victoria Moore, Mesdames Mary

Moore, Elizabeth Edwards, Geneva Love, Louise Thompson, Lythia Brewer, Ann Mangum, Hannah Hinson, and Lesale Brown.

MRS. AUSTIN FETES CLUB

Mrs. Stella Austin of 509 Dunbar Street, entertained the Year Round Garden Club at her home on Monday July 3rd.

The meeting was opened with a song and prayer. Mrs. Lill Farrington read a lovely poem "Flowers" and she also presided over the business session. Mrs. Carrie Burch presented some helpful notes on the Care of Summer Flowers.

Delightful refreshments were served by the smiling hostess. Other members present were Mesdames Alice Farrison, Mary Henderson, Katie Love, Annie Mayo, Hattie Meadows, Wilmer Milum, Roxie Rowland, Eugenia Simmons, Annie Strickland, Maggie Kennedy, Madge Hargrave.
