

HOTEL ASSOCIATION PUBLISHES GUIDE TO BEST TRAVEL ACCOMMODATIONS FOR NEGRO TOURIST

EAST ORANGE, N. J. The Nationwide Hotel Association, Inc., is highlighting its National program with the publishing of a Guide to Travel. This important book will enable the Negro traveler who takes to the roads this year to find the best available accommodations throughout the United States, Burma and the Virgin Islands.

Dykes A. Brookins, President of N.H.A., in making the announcement, pointed out that for the first time, a medium which is designed not for profit, but to render a much needed public service will be available to the public.

The Guide will not only consist of a state by state directory of all N.H.A. members, listing the best available hotels, motels, tourist homes and resorts but will also include approved restaurants compiled from the recommendations of leading citizens throughout the country.

In addition to these listings and many features to enhance the comfort and pleasure of the traveler, the Guide will point out places of interest and give facts and statistics that will be of value to tourists. Included also, will be human interest stories which will make for interesting reading. Information on foreign travel, insurance needs for hotel and motel operators and a public relations consultant's viewpoint on better relations in management will be among our featured articles.

Civil Rights in Alaska

A recent letter from Editor George C. Anderson (Alaska Spotlight) brings this word: "We have been told that a Negro would be appointed Assistant District Attorney, here (if we had one here, meaning a lawyer.) Nearly every prominent lawyer in town has repeatedly asked me, 'When are you going to get a Negro attorney, here?' "at the Territorial Rep.
