

WATCH THAT BOY

By HENRY W. GILLIS
District Scout Executive

FOURTH NATIONAL JAMBOREE. Camp Where Washington Camped! Valley Forge, Pa., July 12-18, 1957.

You can go to the Fourth National Jamboree at Valley Forge if you meet these requirements: 1. You are a registered Explorer or a Boy Scout at least 12 years of age as of January 1, 1957. 2. You are an Explorer or a Second Class Scout or higher when the Jamboree opens. 3. You are certified by your local council jamboree committee. 4. You present an official medical examination certificate.

The national council fee, including food and expenses during the period of the jamboree camp will be $50.00. In addition, local council fees for the pre-jamboree camp, transportation, sight-seeing, and other expenses will be an additional $75.00, making a total of $125.00. This will be the fee from our local council, Icoconeechee.

We have had boys from Durham to attend all the National Jamborees. One boy from Durham attended the Inter-National Jamboree in France. Scouts from Durham attended in Washington, D. C. in 1937. In Valley Forge 1950, California 1953, and at Valley Forge 1957, we hope.

On our trip to Valley Forge next year, we will spend a day and night in Washington, D. C. and other stops along the way. $10.00 register fees should be in our office as soon as possible for your boy to be sure of a space. You know what happens when you wait. We have only so many spaces for the whole Council. First come, first served.

The jamboree at Valley Forge is a city of 50,000 under canvas with almost everything a regular city has except schools! The jamboree has its own police and fire departments, water works, hospitals, railroad stations, bus and truck lines, radio and television studios, newspaper, bank, postoffice, telephone exchange, super markets, theaters and places of worship.

National, state, and local health and protective agencies cooperate in giving the jamboree a health and safety record better than that of the average city of 50,000. Doctors from home areas travel and live with each section. Each camper's physical condition is checked at home upon arrival at the jamboree.

Come on leaders, we need you too. Sign up for jamboree leadership. This will be great. Next week. Henry.

NINE CARD BOXING EVENT SET FOR WINSTON-SALEM YMCA

It will be Winston-Salem versus the East Saturday night when a nine bout boxing event between the city's Golden Glove champions and a stable of fighters battling under the banner of Jimmie Bell's Boxing Caravan tangle at the Patterson Avenue YMCA.

The first bout is scheduled to begin at eight o'clock. Proceeds from the matches will go to the YMCA's fund raising efforts to pay for its new swimming pool.

Joe McFadden, well known pugilist and trainer, will referee the fights. Bynum Crews will be ring announcer.

In perhaps the feature bout of the evening, Bell, one-time sparring partner for Joe Louis, will box Lee Mitchell of Washington, D. C.

Bell's fighters hail largely from New Jersey and Washington, D. C. Their opponents, the Golden Glove champions, have been trained here by Bobby Sockwell, secretary of the sponsoring YMCA athletic club.

The schedule of matches is as follows: Leon Sutton, 160 pounds, versus Flash Wilson, Newark, N. J.; Joe Harvey, 185 pounds, vs. Kid Boston, Washington, D. C.; Bruce Gather, 145 pounds, vs. Trader Horn, Trenton, N. J.;

Bobbie Giles, 145 pounds, vs. Dan Ganor, Newark, N. J.; Frank McMillan, 135 pounds, vs. Gus Everett, Newark, N. J.; Al Porter, 125 pounds, vs. Cal Holmes, East Orange, N. J.; Sammie Jackson, 140 pounds, vs. Tom Little, Washington, D. C.; "Go Go" Lowery, vs. Red Chavis, Newark, N. J.; and Bell vs. Mitchell.

Saturday night's fights are just another fund raising project sponsored by the YMCA athletic club in helping to pay for the Y's swimming pool.

Howard Parker, president of the athletic club, has issued an appeal for support of the group's various activities in helping to pay for the new facility.

U. S. Navy Band Reunion Set For August 25th

The US Navy Pre-Flight Band, composed of North Carolinians, and stationed at the University of North Carolina during 1942 and 1943, will stage a grand reunion all day Saturday August 25th in Chapel Hill at the Community Center.

The band later did duty at Pearl Harbor in Hawaii. Durham members in this outfit were: Bennie Lakin, Robert Tate, Robert Sellars, Julian Jordan, Willie C. Judkins, and W. H. Cole, Jr.

Mid-Year NAACP Membership Up Over 50 Per Cent

NEW YORK Challenged by increasingly repressive measures in certain southern states, local branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People redoubled their efforts and enrolled 216,448 members in the first six months of the year, an increase of 50 per cent over the 144,277 enrolled from January through June of 1955, Miss Lucille Black, NAACP membership secretary, reported today.

With such large cities as Chicago, Cleveland, Baltimore, Houston, Camden (N.J.), and Milwaukee as well as many smaller cities scheduled to conduct their annual membership drives in the fall, the prospect of exceeding the goal of 400,000 members for 1956 is "very bright," Miss Black said.

E. N. Palmer Sociologist, Dies

HAMPTON, Va. Dr. Edward N. Palmer, professor of sociology at Hampton Institute, died last Thursday night, August 9, at Freedman's Hospital in Washington, D. C. He was 39 years old.

Dr. Palmer, an authority on race problems, was born in Wilberforce, Ohio, and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology from Talladega College in 1936. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1937 with a Master of Arts degree and was awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1945 from the same university.
