MR. AND MRS. FRED ADAMS

Miss Bessie Mae Moore And Fred D. Adams United In Holy Wedlock

By DOROTHY L. ROBINSON

WINSTON-SALEM
Miss Bessie Mae Moore, local beautician, and Fred Douglas Adams of New York City were married at 6:15 P. M., Sunday, August 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bruton, 416 North Woodland Avenue.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore, of Route 6, Cole Road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams, 56th St. HightreeRw, Daniel Brooks Apartments, High Point.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sky blue lace over taffeta, after-five dress of street length, with a white head-piece and white accessories. She carried a prayer book, topped with a white orchid, and showered with baby's breath and white streamers.

The Maid of Honor, Miss Naomi Caldwell, who was the bride's only attendant, wore a dress of pale pink, nylon over taffeta, also of street length, with a pink head band, and black accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

Walter Logan, cousin of the groom, was best man. Shortly after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bruton, where the bride was set with cake, ice cream, Mrs. Moore. The bride's table party nuts, after dinner mints, and fruit punch. Miss Felicia Martin, of Detroit, Michigan, and Mrs. Alma Frost, assisted in the serving.

Mrs. Adams was graduated from LaMae Beauty College in 1948 and has practiced her profession here for the past eight years. Her husband is employed as a shoe repairman, at Bowley's Shoe Shop in New York City.

Mr. Adams returned to New York August 19, where his bride will join him. They both will return here to make this their home at a later date.

Mary E. Terry Weds Dr. Henry M. Eldridge

The marriage of Mary E. Terry of Pittsburgh, Pa. and Dr. Henry M. Eldridge of Montgomery, Ala. took place Wednesday, August 8, at 12:00 noon at the home of the bride with the pastor of Buleah Baptist Church, Rev. William R. Harris, performing the ceremony.

The bride wore a Nettie Rosenstein creation of gray imported brocade Irish linen, white tool hat pink trimmed, white chalk beaded bag with green orchids as a corsage.

MISS M. ELAINE MITCHELL AND FIRST LIEUTENANT JESSE R. NEWSOME WED FAYETTEVILLE AUGUST 9

FAYETTEVILLE

Miss M. Elaine Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Mitchell of Fayetteville, N. C., and First Lieutenant Jesse R. Newsome of Brooklyn, N. Y. were married in a lovely double ring ceremony at St. Ann's Catholic Church on Thursday, August 9, at 4:30 in the afternoon, with Rev. Edward A. Moan officiating. The wedding was solemnized amid a profusion of palms, gladiolas, and candelabra. The calm and beauty of the setting added a touch of loveliness to the occasion.

Serving also to heighten the affair were wedding numbers given by Miss Margaret Walker and Mrs. Sylvia Allen, both of Fayetteville. Rosa B. Smith of Fayetteville was the Best Man and Mrs. Alice McAllister the matron of honor. She wore blue silk lace and tulle. The bride's mother was beautiful in a pink taffeta trimmed in lace with navy blue accessories.

In the absence of her father, the bride given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Samuel Drake, was radiantly happy. She wore a ballerina length white chantilly lace gown over taffeta, with matching jacket.

Her fingertip veil of silk tulle was attached to a contour queen's crown of seeded pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayer book with a purple-throated white orchid tied with satin ribbon.

She is a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. holds the Master of Arts Degree in English from Howard University, Washington, D. C. and is currently a member of the teaching staff at the Fayetteville State Teachers College at Fayetteville, N. C. She holds membership in a number of religious and educational organizations and in the local Epsilon Alpha Sigma Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

The groom who hails from Brooklyn, N. Y. holds the rank of First Lieutenant in the Air Force and is currently stationed at Bartow Air Force Base in Bartow, Florida where he is in training to qualify for a pilot.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's residence at 535 E. Russell Street. Heading the receiving line which consisted of bridal party, the bride and groom received congratulations from relatives and friends. Those who participated in the reception included Mesdames Earlyne C. Mitchell, Sylvia Allen, Beatrice Watkins, Edwina Trent, Inez Easley, Cynthia Board, M. L. Shropshire, Eunice Sherman, Mattie Andrews, and Misses Mary H. LeGrand, and Mamie Wilkerson.
