

TALK OF THE TEENS

By JUANITA SHELL

JUANITA

School days are fast approaching and with just a little more than two weeks of summer vacation left, everyone is getting in his last vacation trips and fun. Last Wednesday night, a dance was held at the Columbia Heights Recreation Center, given by the Teen-agers.

Enjoying the dancing were: Syvera Blakney, Doris Heith, Patricia Wilkes, June Simmons, Monticello Hunter, Marion Patton, William Dixon, Patricia Tillman, G. L. E. d. a Walls, Donald Bruce, Oplanda Peters, Bernard Pickens, James Pickens, Ernestine Tanager, Barbara Carter, Louise Douthit and many, many others.

Everybody's been rushing around and going places this past week and enjoying the freedom of the good ole summer time while they may! Seems as if this time of year, all the teen-agers start the best part of their summer vacation... Leaving home and meeting new friends. Since this is the case, I had better get started in telling you all the news. Here's a list of everybody that's been coming and going: Deloris Bishop recommended Baltimore for everyone. She returned last Wednesday, after spending two weeks there. Also Patterson is still visiting in Washington, D. C. She'll be home soon. Tyrone Bryre is visiting relatives in New York. He'll be home soon, also. You'd better hurry back, kids. It's much more later than you think.

Now that Mr. Sunshine is getting hotter and hotter, practically everyone is still turning to the sport of swimming. Seen beatin' the heat were: Carrie Pickens, Patricia Douthit, C. Cook, Lafayette Cook, George Hill, Barbara Harrison and gobs of more teen queens and kings.

"What on earth is making such a noise?" This was the question in many minds around the home of Jacqueline Peters Saturday night. But, it was only the members of the Charmettes Social Club, dancing, yelling, and singing. The members are: Nellie Davis, Daldine Thomas, Gloria Williams, Brenda Parham, and Sandra Kirby.

Well, that about wraps it up for this week, kids, but don't forget to send all gossip ever my fence. Believe me, I could use more.
