Boy Scouts Mark 47th Birthday

ONWARD ★ ★ ★
For God and My Country

OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER

More than 4,500,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12, marking the 47th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Since 1910, Scouting has served over 26,000,000 boys and adult leaders.

Through its Four-Year Program, "Onward for God and My Country," the organization seeks to train more boys in patriotism and character so that they will become intelligent citizens with an appreciation of the free way of life and a dedication to high spiritual ideals.

Boy Scout Week observances will feature preparation for the Fourth National Jamboree, which will find 50,000 Scouts and leaders camping where Washington camped at historic Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, next July 12 to 18. The nation's 111,000 Scout units will feature rededication ceremonies on February 8, the actual birthday of Scouting in America.

WATCH THAT BOY

BY HENRY W. GILLIS

America observes the birthday of several of its illustrious sons—Washington, Lincoln, and Thomas Edison. Another birthday celebration of national proportions in which all America join is that of the Boy Scouts of America.

Scouting in the United States reaches its 47th anniversary during Boy Scout Week Feb. 6-12. It is difficult to recall when the nation did not have this character-building, leisure time program for its boys. Many young men have been influenced by the Scout Oath and Law. They have had the benefits of Scouting training.

America is all the richer for it. Many men in high places in American affairs today proudly credit Scouting's influence in their lives.

American adults of good character give generously of their time in giving leadership. Others help by raising funds, or in serving as members of local Boy Scouts committees which in turn provide training for leaders, activities, personal advancement, community service and etc.

Look at the displays next week around the city and get a birds-eye view of what the Scouting program is doing in your community. Then let us know what you think about the youth today, who are making plans now for the future.

You are invited to attend the Roundtable Meeting Tuesday, February 5th at 7:30 at the S. L. Warren Library on Fayetteville Street. All leaders, assistant leaders, Den-Mothers and committeemen are asked to be present.

There are 10 more units that are due to Register in January, are you one of those units? Feb. 1st, your unit will be lapsed. Let's start the year off right.

There are 272,000 women serving as Den Mothers in the Cub Scout Program.

Scouting attracts for its volunteer leadership positions, men of education, as well as men of character with an educational background well above the national average. Only men of good character are accepted for these leadership positions. Here in Durham we have the best you can find anywhere.

RATTLERS WIN

DAYTONA BEACH
The Florida A and M University cagers had to come from behind to turn back Bethune-Cookman College 82-79 in a hair tickler here last Tuesday night.

A cheering squad and the Bethune-Cookman cagers kept the fans aroused and shouting with delight as the local quintet led the visitors until the last five minutes of play.

Calhoun Breaks Record; CIAA Harriers Show

North Carolina College Olympic 110 Meter High Hurdles Champion, Lee Calhoun, smashed the world's indoor record in the 70 yard high hurdles event at the 10th annual Evening Star Track and Field Meet held in Washington, D. C. last weekend. Calhoun's time was one tenth of a second below his own world tying record of 8.3 that he set last year in the same event.

In the Philadelphia Inquirer Games on the night before, the NCC hurdling ace was nipped by Olympic Decathlon Champion, Milt Campbell of the U.S. Marine Corps. Campbell finished just a whisker ahead of Calhoun with a time of 0:08.1.

The CIAA's high jumping jacks from Morgan State, Bob Barksdale and George Dennis, finished up in a five way tie for first place in the high stick event with leaps of 6'7" in the Inquirer Games on Friday. Barksdale and Dennis shared first place honors with Villanova's Phil Reavis and Charles Stead and Chicago Track Club's Floyd Smith. In the Star games on Saturday, Barksdale and Smith tied for first place with leaps of 6'6 and one half inches.

Morgan State's mile relay team finished second behind Villanova in the Inquirer meet, but racked up a first place win in section III of the Variety Club Mile relay in the Star Games. The Bear's team of Wardell Stansburg, Herb Holton, Gerald Harrison and Bob McMurray edged Winston-Salem Teachers College and Syracuse University with a time of 3:27.2.

Elias Gilbert of Winston-Salem turned in a sterling performance in the hurdles races at Philadelphia and Washington but the fleet Teachers' College star was no match for NCC's Calhoun. Gilbert finished fourth in the 50 yard high hurdles in the Inquirer games and was a close second to Calhoun in the Star meet.

In the AAU 1-Mile Handicap Relays in the Star games, the Ram's entry, running in section III, defeated the Morgan State Freshmen and the Georgetown freshmen with a time of 3:26.3. Charles Lewis, Joe Middleton, Joe Lewis and Ed Robinson ran the quarter-mile legs for the Rams.

NCC's Mile relay quartet of Jim Lane, Vance Robinson, George Pressley and Robert Dobbs clocked in a time of 3:32 seconds for first place honors in the Star Games' intercollegiate one-mile relay.

District Nine Setto-Set For March 7 And 8

WINSTON-SALEM
The basketball tournament for district 29 of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics will be held this year at Winston-Salem Teachers College new gymnasium.

This was the official word following a meeting of the district's basketball tournament committee here Sunday.

Dates for the two day tournament are Thursday and Friday, March 7 and 8.

District 29 embraces the two predominantly Negro basketball conferences of the CIAA (Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association) and the MWAA (Mid West Athletic Association). The two top teams from each of these conferences will compete in the tournament.

Winner of the tournament will be the district's representative to the national finals at a 32 team tournament in Kansas City.

This will mark the first year since formation of district 29 that its tournament will be held outside of Nashville, Tenn.

Speculation this week held that the reason for the move from Nashville was a financial one. It is believed that the tournament officials feel that more money can be made on the (continued on page 8)

Delaware Cuts Poor Students!

DOVER, Del.
The Delaware State Hornets will put a rejuvenated quintet on the floor for the remainder of the season because of the loss of several key players who received low marks during the first semester.

Possessing an overall record of eight wins and four losses, and a CIAA record of four wins and three losses, Delaware State has been out of action due to final examinations. The loss of varsity men is a hard blow to the Hornets who still have seven games to be played. All seven games are away from home, and six are conference affairs.

Considering the loss of the men, Coach Bennie George, Athletic Director Dr. E. Preston Mitchell and Ulysses S. Washington, chairman of the athletic committee, regretted the situation, but stated that the entire athletic program at Delaware State College under their jurisdiction is an extra-curricular activity, and emphasis is put first upon academic achievement.

Aggies Beat Rams, Broncos For CIAA Lead; N. C. College Second

GREENSBORO
The red hot A and T College basketball team, threatening to make a shambles of the CIAA conference championship race, swept to their 11th straight victory here Tuesday night by defeating Winston-Salem Teachers College, 72-65, in a close contest.

The victory further entrenched the Aggies in first place and put them in excellent shape for their road trip this week-end when they face Virginia State, Morgan and Hampton on foreign territory.

Playing before a background of some 2,700 partisan fans in Greensboro Tuesday, both the Rams and the Aggies sensed the crucial importance of the contest, but the Cal Irvin-coached quintet took an early lead and held on tenaciously almost throughout the contest.

Less than six points separated the teams until the Aggies' final spurt at the end. The Winston-Salem Rams, a powerhouse of only two years ago, led briefly twice, once at 29-28 in the first half and again at 47-46 midway the final period.

The loss gave the Rams a 6-3 conference record and further shook up their hold on fifth place in CIAA standings.

The Aggies had run their victory total to ten before Tuesday's game with Winston-Salem when they took a surprisingly easy 80-60 victory over well-balanced Fayetteville in the Broncos own ballwick.

Joe Howell, A and T guard who has been burning the nets from the outside all season, was the big gun in both victories, scoring 21 points in the Fayetteville game and bagging 18 against Winston-Salem.

A and T meets Virginia State in Petersburg, Feb. 1, Hampton there on the second and Morgan in Baltimore on Feb. 5.

Elsewhere along the conference basketball front, things were somewhat quiet, largely because of semester examinations.

As of January 25, according to the CIAA News Service in Durham, first division teams, ranked by the Dickinson rating system behind the front running Aggies, were North Carolina College, second; Virginia Union, third; Virginia State, fourth; Winston-Salem, fifth; St. Augustine's, sixth; Fayetteville State, seventh; and Morgan, eighth; Howard, ninth; Bluefield, tenth; and Delaware, eleventh.
