Miss Eva Merritt Speaks Before Durham Ushers

Miss Eva Merritt, Durham school teacher and civic worker, challenged an audience at the Congregation Christian church last Sunday to "do something worthwhile" in racial and civic affairs.

She was the principal speaker for the Durham Ushers Union monthly meeting held at the church at 3:15 in the afternoon.

Miss Merritt was introduced by Mrs. Alice Jones.

Cautioning against what she termed the "seeming indifference of the work of ushers," Miss Merritt urged her listeners to be aware of the ushers' larger job of joining other fellow Christians in carrying out the total program of the church.

'Swing School' Show Set For Hillside Tuesday

"Mr. G's Swing School" will be presented at Hillside high school auditorium on Tuesday night, March 26.

Swing School has become a regular production at Hillside, featuring high school students in a variety, musical show.

Big items in this year's show are an operetta, a waltz number supported by a 27 voice choir and a dancing chorus of 30 co-eds.

In addition, the show will contain the traditional class room number and various vocal trios, duets, quartets and solos.

Patricia Spaulding will play the lead in the operetta Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. She will be cast as Snow White and Kenneth Johnson will be seen as Prince Charming. Others in the operetta cast are Virdeil Tedder, the Wicked Queen, and Deryl Hinton and Zelma Amey.

In the class room number will

Mrs. Shanks, State president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Old North State Medical Society, reviewed highlights of the association's five point program, which includes health, education, legislation, human relations and community needs. Members of the Academy also took part in the discussion later during the meeting. Mrs. Shanks was presented an orchid from the group by Mrs. Watts.

Mrs. Donnell and Mrs. Garrett acted as hostesses to the meeting, and carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme with decorations and refreshments.

Joint High School Senior Day Two N. C. College Units Stage

The North Carolina College Departments of Commerce and Home Economics staged "career doubleheaders" here last Friday.

Miss Mable E. Evans, regional economist for the Wheat Flour Institute of Chicago, and Miss Hettie M. Smith, personnel manager for women of the Scott Paper Co., Chester, Pa., were among the consultants for the two events.

Some 1,500 high school students from the Carolinas and Virginia attended the day-long programs in each field.

The Home Economics department offered again this year some $255.50 in first, second, and third prizes ranging from ported by a chorus of 22 voices, also Hillside graduates.
