

CROSS BURNED AT CHURCH Indications Point To Senate Yielding To South On Jury Issue WASHINGTON, D. C.

Hayes To Receive Explorer Award

Explorer Scout James J. Hayes of Post 187 will receive the God and Country Award Sunday at Zion Christian Despite vastly superior nu-nerical odds, the Southern bloc Church in the Havestown sec tion of Durham. Rev. Joseph Burwell will make the presentation during the morning serv > Explorer Haves has been in scouting since 1952 and has been active in troop and post activities. He is a Life Scout. and has earned the Gold Award in exploring.

> The God and Country Award is a church centered program scodia who have fulfilled standards involving their partipation in the total program of their respective church

Deacon Charged With Larceny

SALISBURY Robert Cruse, deacon of Holiness church and husband of the church's woman pastor, has been charged with larceny following the removal of pews, pulpit and other equipment from St. John's Church at Goldhill.

Cruse was charged specifically with larceny of 32 church benches, two iron stoves, a pul-The fruit of Ervin's persistent attack appeared on the secpit and three chairs. The equipment was apparently to be us to furnish his wife's church.

of Senators pledged to fight the civil rights bill to its death ap-peared to be making some readway as the battle over the legislation opened this week in the Senate. The Senate moved to take up the bill at the opening of the week, and almost immediately Senator Richard Russell of Georgia attempted to delay or scuttle the measure on the strength of a parliamentary chnicality The bill, as placed on the Senate calendar, contained an error. Russell contended that the error made it a different il rights legislation before it. However, Russell was over-ruled by Vice President Nixon,

Although Russell's opening MISS MARY MILLS, (center) International Cooperative als in contempt cases. Ervin claims that this would violate a basic constitutional right of MISS MARY MILLS, (center) International Cooperative Administration Medical Officer in Lebanon, is shown stand-ing in front of Mills Hall, a student nurses dormitory at Makassid Hospital named for her in recognition of her com-tributions to the progress of medical service in that Middle Eastern country. Shown flanking Miss Mills are two student nurses of the hospital. Miss Mills, a native of North Carolina and one time member of the nursing staff at Lincoh Hospital in Durham, organized and set up the nurse training school at Makassid Hospital. ond day of arguments on the bill when Senator Joseph O'bill when Senator Joseph O'-Mahoney (D-Wyo.) sponsored an amendment which would an amendment which would provide for jury trials Supporters of the bill origin-ally feared that such an amend-in civil rights case virtually im-possible and thus the effect of (Please turn to page Eight) to further the sum of the sum of the sum of the Martin Support of the sum of the sum of the sum of the sum of the charlie Robinson, who saturit-ted heading the equiption to first rights case virtually im-possible and thus the effect of (Please turn to page Eight) Six Sending Kids 45 Miles Ask

all citizens

RALEIGH August 6 has been scheduled gro member of the bound, mov-as decision day for North Caro-ed that the issue be scheduled lina's capital city in the matter as the first point of business Sutton, school board chairman, lina's capital city in the matter revealed this week that an ef-fort is being made to work out. The situation so that integration of the white high school this fall will be averted. Four of the six Negroes who are applying for reassignment of their children were turned Set Masser of a Negro pupil from a Negro pupil for the six the state and the Board should say, are applying for reassignment of their children were turned Set Masser of a Negro pupil from a Negro pupil for the decision of the six the first point of business during the next regular meet-auring the next regular meet-ing. "I think this thing should be set this date as the time when cation from a Negro pupil from of their children were turned Scheduling of the decision Carnase size moved that the

"this is the action of the Board and make it final."

of their children were turned Reednam broughton min. Scheduling of the decision a similar request of the board. Whatever action the County school board takes on the issue ter. by the board it was up for is thought to have far reaching implications for the future of Monday night but was put off again unit August far and make it inal. Carnage also moved that the matter be settled at the August for August was in reality and make it inal. Carnage also moved that the metter be settled at the August for august was put off again unit August far again unit August far again unit August far the settled at the August boards meeting the august far the settled at the August the settled at the August the matter be settled at the August the metter be settled at the August the settled august the settle Implications for the future of Monday night but was put off the Pearsall plan. Devised by the state to meet the court ruling on sogregation from Ligon to the white school, in public schooss, the Pearsall Needham Broughton, came Plan is under attack in federal (from the parent of Joseph Hir-his parents to the next meeting leigh.

Atty, F. J. Carnage, only Ne-| Fisher both stressed their desire to meet the boy's parents and interview him before they made their decision.

The postponement of action on the request has been due to the agreement the board reachsettled regardless of the out-come of it," he said. He said the Board should say, Board was present. en on such matters unless a full Board was present.

Including Raleigh, some 41 Negro pupils have applied for reassignment to white schools throughout the state under the provisions of the Pearsell plan. As of today, none had been accepted and few of the requestts had been acted upon.

Cities in which requests have been filed by Negroes to at-tend all white schools are

White Minister, Guest Speaker, Is Arrested LOUISBURG

A crude Ku Klux Klan type cross was burned early this week in front of a church which a white minister was prevented from helping to dedi-

The remains of a cross made of sawmill slabs nailed togeth-Wilhelmenia Coleman said er and wrapped in oil rags the strikers took some of the stood before the new Mt. Zion bocks from bags and others Holiness Church near Center-

Evidence at the scene indicated that the cross had been wrapped with rags soaked in oil before being set afire. The cross burning, which ap-

Plant officials proceeded to white minister was supposed to have taken part. Rev. Harry E. King, 46-year-

He was one of the leaders of a parade of 100 or more Ne-groes which blocked traffic for three miles to the church. Constable Lloyd Gupton arrested Rev. King in the yard of the Rev. King in the yard of the new church building. King was supposed to have been one of the participents on the dedication program. But his arrest prevented him from taking part. None of the others who took part in the parade were arrested. King pleaded guilty before a magistrate and was fined $21-magistrate and was fined $21.

burning

Negro Excluded From Kaspar Jury

criminal contempt of federal court, will be tried by an all

STATESVILLE

Stanford L Warren Public Library Fayetteville St

here Mon-| forcing her to receive medical WINSTON-SALEM The first reported incident of the month old strike against Holly Farms Poultry plant near The incident grew out of an mencounter Monday, July 3, be tween strikers and non-striking workers during which rocks workers during which rocks were burged Seven percons were burged Seven percons the total strikers follow the near here the strikers follow the near here the strikers follow the near here the strikers has a grievance with the strikers has a grievance were burged Seven percons the total strikers follow the near here the strikers follow the near here the strikers follow the near here the strikers has a grievance the strikers and non-striking the court that he saw 35 or 40 the strikers follow the near here when workers had a the strikers and percent for here the strikers has a grievance the strikers and strikers follow the near here when workers had a the strikers has a grievance the strikers hastrikers has has has the strikers the strike WINSTON-SALEM I testimony in court were hurled. Seven persons, on strike against the firm, were hauled into court last Monday plant. At first, the strikers and non-strikers walked on opposite management. Among the grievto face a charge of assault with sides of the street but then be-a deadly weapon. After hearing testimony of followed them as soon as he overtime.

five witnesses, judge DeRoy W. Sams dismissed the case. The judge accepted defense attorwas relieved at his post at the plant gate. When the group reached Var-to return to new Robert S. Cahoon's motion way, some two blocks from the thinks in the prosecution had made plant, the Sgt. said several per- rounding the strike, a worker day shortly after dedication services got underway by a finance were changed were Annie Jordan, ever, could identify any indi- bile tires and a plant foreman day shortly after dedication for the witnesse, how the winnesse, how the strike, a worker day shortly after dedication services got underway by a finance were could identify any indi- bile tires and a plant foreman day shortly after dedication for the witnesse, how the winnesse, how the strike services got underway by a finance were could identify any indi- bile tires and a plant foreman day shortly after dedication foreman were could identify any indi- bile tires and a plant foreman the way one of the leaders of victual as a rock-thrower. Deforts Finney, who testified spattered with red paint and ahe had been hit in the stomach and on the shoulder by rocks 127 S. Jackson Ave.; Almeda Coleman, 3726 Carver Road;

Coleman, 3726 Carver Road; Barbara Saunders, 378 Dixie Broadway; Lillie Mae Johnson, 905 Maple St.; Lillian Richard, 1445 E. 17th St.; Dorothy Jor-dan (alias Steele), 127 S. Jack-son Ave.; and Viola Bailey, 120 The Jun St.

VOLUME 33 - NUMBER 28

Torced to shut down since the mass walk-out on June 6 of its employees over working conditions, the Holly Farms WINSTON-SALEM [ensued during which plant reopened Monday with 72 of its full complement of 107 workers. The management hired several new workers and 32 who had been on strike re-

Approximately 35 strikers be g an picketing the plant shortly after it reopened Mon-day. According to reports, when workers left the plant Monday at the end of the work lowed them. About two blocks from the plant, rocks were hurled by the plant picketing group, according to

Tar Heel Real Estate Body In Twin City Meet WINSTON-SALEM

The fifth annual convention of the Carolina Real Estate and Builders Association will be held at Winston-Salem Teach-ers College this Saturday, July 13th.

The city's "chow, chow man", so-called because he peddled mixed vegetables, was fatally shot last Thursday, July 4 at the conclusion of a dice game Arthur Rousgiven the name of "chow, chow man." His weakness for gam-bling, it is reported, was widely argument over a dice toss Skeleton Found

Rousseau was rushed to a lo cal hospital where he was pro nounced dead on arrival. According to reports, the murdered man and several oth-Of Missing Man murdered man and several our-er persons were engaged in a gambling game at a service sta-tion on N. Cherry Street. Flet-cher told police that he bet Rousseau $20 he could make a "four" in the dice game. Rous-seau lost, according to Fletcher, but picked up the money any-way. The skeleton of a 32 year-old man was uncovered near here early Tuesday by police acting on a tip from the wife of the alleged murderer. Sheriff Charlie Rumple's men uncovered the remains of Al-bert Columbus Mills of Moores-ville from a sawdust pile on a form five miles east of Mooresway. At this point, an argument P 1 rm five miles east o ville ensued during which kousseau is alleged to have reached into this pocket and warned, "Til kill you." Fletcher said he then pulled his pistol (a .25 calibre weapon) and fired once. Fletcher was jailed without bon d following the shooting pending a hearing which was Franklin County Sheriff C. Willis Perry said his office would investigate the cross pending a hearing which was scheduled for Wednesday. Rousseau, alias Russell, was well known to the Cherry St. neighborhood. He raised and sold mixed vegetables, and was

WINSTON-SALEM

NASHVILLE, Tenn. Segregationist John Kasper and 15 others charged with vhite jury. This fact was established Tuesday after selection of a 12-man jury, including two wom-en, was completed. During the selection of the

During the selection of the jury, four Negroes were dis-missed from service by a 19-man battery of defense attor-neys. First Negro to be exclud-ed was Albert Cloud, 29-year-old bank porter. "Could you put Kasper in the same sack with the 15 cli-mit I represent shake them up shake them up

Entry Into White High School BRYSON CITY School officials of Swain

in the school system. Six Negro parents have re-quested the County board to enroll their children in the all white Swain county high school rather than send them 45 miles outside the county to an unacredited school.

County school superintend-ent T. L. Woodward and J. A. Sutton, school board chairman bill from the one approved out by the House and claimed that the Senate properly had no eivwho held that a correction made in the bill was proper.

tactic failed, a drive by Senator Sam Ervin of North Caro-lina to weaken the bill appeared to be gaining headway. Sen ator Ervin has hammered away consistently at the bill for its failure to provide for jury tri-13th. Business sessions will begin at 1:00 p. m. in the Adminis-tration Building on the campus. The general session will begin at 2:30 p. m.

in four feet of sawdust, may be the key to the mystery sur-rounding the disappearance of Mills some 17 months ago.

ensued during which Rou

The general session will being a 20 p. m. The general session will being a 20 p. m. The general session will being a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The general session will be a 20 p. m. The daugheer of the student four daugees a reducte of Durham's Hillide source and the obdy in earby wood. The b b dody to nearby wood. The the body to nearb

T. D. Wright, Jr., vice-presid-and the was secretary of the Stu-dent of Wright Homes, Inc., in Durham, will discuss "Pre-fal-ricated Houses in Today's Mar-the Senior Theatre Guild. She the house and muscle to name, the body to namby woods. Two days later, New Year's Day, Senior Theatre Guild. She the house and muscle to name, the body to namby woods. Two days later, New Year's Day, the Senior Theatre Guild. She the house and cated Houses in Today's Mar-the Senior Theatre Guild She the house and was gone an was also winner of the David hour. On his return, she was attributed as saying, he told her

The Planning Committee is composed of the following Real Estate men of Winston-Salem: E. B. Johnson, H. H. Smith, Let a standing qualities of leadership ander Hill, and C. E. Graves. Other officials of the associa-tion to take a part in the pro-ceedings are H. M. Michael Durham, president; and Clar-ence M. Winchester, Greens-boro, secretary.

Discovery of the body, buried

(Please turn to page Eight) (Please turn to page Eight) | man Holt.

of the board. York and V. E.

speaker.

"I am overwhelmed with joy. I can say only thanks," the 40 year old pastor told the crowd at Normandie Ave-nue Methodist church. First indications were that the appointment of the for-mer teacher and athletic coach as pastor of the church had set off a crisis as two thirds of the church memberturn or events, evidence or support appeared to be mounting for the church and its new pastor. Nearly 75 persons appeared at sorvices last Sunday, a week before Rev. Higgins was scheduled to make be first encastence to make his first appearance in the pulpit. Dr. Ray Rags-dale said he feit the church membership would increase with the appointment of Rev. Higgins.

Higgins. Sunday's huge turnout seemed to vindicate Dr. Rags-dale and his new minister. Half an hour before the service, the sanctuary was full. Then the crowd packed the Twelve rersons were accepted into the membership at the close of the service. Rev. Higgins told the congregation:

"I am more than convinced that the church must serve all people wherever they live. We are all just people. Our destiny is to follow this phi-losophy."

Rev. Higgins, whose career has wavered between teach-ing and the ministry, was a Ing and the ministry, was a former teacher and athletic coach at Hillside High School in Durham, N.C. While teach-ing in Durham, he took time to pursue his ministerial in-terests and at one time be-came a favorite as "The came a favorite as "I Friendly Philosopher" on "The radio program.

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy of the Southern California-Ari-zona Methodist conference announced the appointment of Rev. Higgins to the pastor-ate. It marked the first time a Nasto has have named mark a Negro has been named pas-tor of an all-white church in the conference. Dr. Ragsdale said Rev. Higgins' appointment was ex-pected to rebuild the church which was suffering a slow death because of its refusal to accept Negros. The

