Tau Gamma Boule To Meet In Chicago

The 12th national Boule of Tau Gamma Delta Sorority, a business and professional women's organization, will convene in Chicago, Illinois, at the Wedgewood Hotel, August 15-18. Delta Chapter of Chicago will be host for the meeting.

The national Boule is held annually during the month of August, with delegates representing chapters all over the country attending. Several hundred delegates and national officers are expected to represent in this year's meeting.

"Progress—Women's Objective in the Business World" has been selected as the Boule theme, and will be emphasized throughout the convention by the various guest speakers and through activities of the sorors.

During the Boule, delegates will be kept busy with many activities now being planned by the sponsoring chapter. One of the outstanding events will be the public meeting at which time, the Supreme Basileus, Mrs. Corine Dean of Detroit, will present a scholarship award to a worthy student. Also at this time, a donation will be made to a charitable organization.

Sorors from Durham who will attend the meeting are: Sorors Virginia Alston, Lucinda M. Harris, Lizzie M. Crews, Viola P. Nichols, and Ruth G. Reeves.

Dr. M. M. Fisher, Pastor of White Rock Baptist Church, extends an invitation to the entire public to join in this observance.

Shiloh Church Club Celebrates 25th Year With Special Program

The Galaxy Club of Shiloh Baptist Church, of which the Rev. R. M. Pitts is pastor, celebrated its 25th anniversary at 7:30 p.m. last Sunday, July 28, at the church.

Bishop W. M. Johnson, pastor of Macedonia Holiness Church, delivered the anniversary sermon. He was introduced by Mrs. Hattie Moore.

Music was furnished by visiting choirs. Mrs. Jennie Bruton brought the welcome address with response from Mrs. Mary Smith. The history of the Galaxy Club was read by Mrs. Zora L. Murrell.

Mrs. Velma B. Hopkins, advertising manager of the Carolina Times Winston-Salem edition, and originator of the first graveside Easter Sunrise Service here, is president of the club. Miss Isabell McKay is secretary.

The Galaxy Club was organized in 1928 by the Rev. Pitts, who also served as its first president for one year. It was first, a Sunday School class of adult women and later turned into the "Milky White Way", the meaning of galaxy. Mrs. Lillian Raindrop was second president. She served eight years. In 1937, Mrs. Hopkins was elected and has been re-elected each year since. She has now been in that position 20 years.

On the third Sunday of each month, members of the Galaxy Club perform some type of worthy deed to their church or community. The club uses its motto, the fourth verse of John, ninth chapter: "I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work."

Plans Drafted For Centennial At Bennett By Conference Body

GREENSBORO
 Members of the committee on conference statistics and history of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, met at Bennett College last week to draft preliminary plans for the Centennial Celebration of the conference to be held here in 1958.

Bennett representatives meeting with the ministers included President Willa B. Player, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities and W. I. Gibson, director of public relations.

The Rev. Robert McRae, chairman, of Fayetteville, in calling attention to the fact that the 100th anniversary will be held on the Bennett campus, said that highlights of the observance will be a banquet and an historical pageant portraying the origin and development of the conference. In addition, there will be suitable exhibits of photographs, costumes and mementos and an illustrated brochure.

A committee on history, headed by the Rev. William R. Crawford, Winston-Salem councilman, was appointed, with the following members: Miss Isabell R. Jones, Asheville; the Rev. G. Haven Caldwell, Greensboro; the Rev. C. E. Strickland, Charlotte, and Dr. Jarrett.

The Rev. J. J. Patterson of High Point, was named chairman of the committee on brochure, and named to serve with him were E. L. Raiford, Raleigh; Clarence Gaines, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Mary Morrison, Statesville, and Mr. Gibson.

These committees will make their first reports at a meeting scheduled to be held on September 27 at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Suttis are shown following their marriage, June 30th. Mrs. Suttis is the former Miss Ruth To-rain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jule Torain of Durham. She is a Senior at North Carolina College of Durham. Mr. Suttis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Suttis of Durham. He is a Sophomore at the University of Michigan. They are now living in Detroit, Michigan.
