Gala Alumni Reunions At NCC Homecoming

Reunions of N. C. College's war-interrupted classes of 1942 and 1947 will be among highlights of this year's November 2 Homecoming which features the NCC-Shaw football game on the Eagles' O'Kelly Field at 2 p.m. (Nov. 2).

B. T. McMillan, national alumni reunion chairman, and his committee are establishing headquarters for alumni in the Men's Gymnasium.

Open house and registration will be held in the gym starting at 8 p.m. Friday (Nov. 1). Class meetings are planned for 10 a.m. Saturday, the 1942 group in 110 and the 1947'ers in 108, Gymnasium.

Class reunion banquets are planned for the Tubman YWCA at 7 Saturday night followed by annual dance at W. D. Hill Recreation Center.

Hilda Harris Crowned "Miss NCC of 1957"

Miss Hilda Genevieve Harris, 21 year old senior music major from Warrenton, has become "Miss North Carolina College of 1957."

NCC President Alfonso Elder crowned the new queen at impressive ceremonies in Duke Auditorium Friday night.

The queen and her party, as well as members of the visiting Virginia State College football team, were entertained at a special coronation reception in the Science Hall Dining facility after the program.

The college's choir, band, trumpeters, four fraternity "queens" and dancer Barbara Simmons were among the participants.

Representing the fraternities as "queens" were the Misses Rhoda Plummer, Alpha Phi Alpha, Margaret Anderson, Kappa Alpha Psi, Barbara Lyons, Omega Psi Phi, and Roberta Hodges, Phi Beta Sigma.

Attendants were Jean Stone and Verdell Tedder, Durham; and Doris Brown and Gloria Humphries.

Two of the college's "small fry", Charles A. Ray, Jr., and Lu Ann Edmonda, were crown bearer and scepter bearer, respectively.

J. Le Vonne Chambers, student government president, spoke briefly at the coronation, which was sponsored by the SGA.

Garden Club Anniversary

Celebration of its third anniversary marked the Oct. 14 meeting of the Better Homes and Garden club. The club met at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Faison on Cecil Street.

A big birthday cake, topped with white roses and three candles, was the feature of refreshments served following the club's special program. Each club member wore a white rose in observance of the anniversary.

Participants on the anniversary celebration program were Mrs. Magnolia Einge, Mrs. Alene Brown and Mrs. Lurlyne Hubbard, who gave a history of the organization.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Gladys McNeill, who showed slides from activities of the state garden club meeting and scenes from various gardens.

The club's birthday cake was served from the hostesses dining room, where the table was decorated with a center peice floral arrangement comprised of flowers grown by each club member.

Attending were Mesdames Esther French, Esther Doris, Mildred Smith, Juanita Tapp, Frances Watson, Beulah Hill, and Nettie Green, Club members, and guests Mesdames Marie Kearney, Roxie Rowland, Julia Perry, Lucy Norwood, Lucial Markham, Charlotte Brown, Gwyn Falt, and William Watson.

Flower Arrangement Displayed Before Lyon Park Garden Club

A center peice floral arrangement of Pampoms and Crysanthemums was demonstrated by Mrs. Veave Faulk at last Monday night's meeting of the Lyon Park Rose Garden club.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Victoria Joyner at 2411 Morse Street. She served members of the club during the social hour which followed the meeting.

Mrs. Notie Curry conducted the meeting in the absence of the organization's president, Mrs. Elnora Smith who was ill. Present were Mesdames Louise Thorp, Lottie Fouché, Margaret Milligan, Sadie Mebane, Ruth Mears, Josephine Hoskin, Fannie Tapp, Bessie Thompson, Helen McClain, Catherine Shaw, Elizabeth Means, M. W. Webb, Pearl Brown, Mattie Canty, and Miss Arlene Mebane.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Mears on Oct. 28.

Use Of Indoor Gardens Talked By Mrs. Peele

A discussion of indoor gardens and adoption of a program for the year were two of the highlights of the Monday, Oct. 14 meeting of the Azalea Garden club. The club met at the home of Miss Geneva Richardson on Mebane Street.

Club president Mrs. Roxie Davis conducted the meeting which saw the adoption of the program for the year and completion of plans to order Pansy plants.

Mrs. Banetta Peele led a discussion on indoor gardens, during which she described the types of gardens appropriate for each room in the house, including hallways and the patio.

Other members present were Mesdames Callie Ashford, Effie Cotton, Minnie Cromartie, Virgie

Noted Atty. To Talk To Youth

Attorney M. Hugh Thompson of Durham will discuss Crime among Teen agers and Juvenile Delinquency at the monthly forum of Youth Wants to Know Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the W. D. Hill Recreation Center.

Mrs. B.A.J. Whitted, adult director of the forum, said that parents are especially urged to attend the forum and listen to questions put to the Durham attorney by member of the forum.

Youth Wants to Know Forum is a program which allows teenage members of the forum to question visiting adult authorities on various subjects of interest to them.

Struggle Part Of World Fight

GREENSBORO

That the incidents which have accompanied the movement for social change in the United States are a part of a world-wide movement toward freedom was the view expressed by Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, of New York City, in his vesper message at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Patterson, who in addition to being chairman of the Bennett board of trustees, is also president of the United Negro College Fund and director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, referred to the resistance to school desegregation in Little Rock, Nashville, Charlotte and Greensboro as symbols of prejudiced behavior.
