TURKEY FOR YOUR THANKSGIVING

ROAST STUFFED TURKEY. Admire him first, golden brown and crusty, magnificent on the holiday platter. And how pretty the fruit garnish! Now dad carves tender slices, spoons out the fragrant stuffing. Mother serves the mash potatoes, all butter drenchel. Giblet Gravy makes its rounds.

FRIENDSHIP CUP. A heart-warming appetizer, quick and delicious. Combine one can each condensed tomato soup, beef broth, and water; add 1/4 teaspoon each marjoram and thyme. Simmer two minutes; dot with butter and parsley so cracker floats, hold by opposite sides, close to soup; let go.

To go hand in hand with family home comings and the blessings of the harvest, we bring you ideas and recipes for The Big Dinner—from hot soup to start the meal to the holiday pie. Included are directions for roasting turkey and making perfect gravy you'll be proud to serve. Note the special article on stuffings, but don't overlook turkey in his newest form—frozen and stuffed, all ready to put in the oven.
