

Noted consultants advising rick Rodefer, professor of edu-North Carolina College's third cation, Morgan State College, coordinator of the conference. annual conference on the Im-Baltimore; Dr. Kenneth Brown, annual conference on the Im-provement of Instruction are U. S. Office of Education, Wash-shown here. Left to right are Dr. ingion; Dr. S. E. Duncan, State Phelps Stokes Foundation of the of Herman Branson, professor of Department of Public Instruc-hysics, Howard University, Washington, D. C.; Dr. Frede-Brown, director of the Bureau of

Warning Against "Canned Music" Sounded To Kids By Jack And Jill Officer At Mid-Atlantic Convention

GREENSBORO three-day Mid-Atlantic Indigional Conference of Jack andJull of Amperica, Inc. closed Sun-day, November 17, with the wor-ship service held at Bethel AMEChurch. Rev. John L. Bryangional president from Hampton,Urac, Take Mill, Miss Grace Matthews, Direc-to of Distributive Education inthe Public Schools at Richmon,Va. captivated the 200 delegates,va. presided. Mrs. Lee told theyouths that tomorrow's world,a Blueprint for Effective AdultLiving", recommended to theyouthful audience in drafting aBlueprint, one solution: "AskGod to help us to run our lives."Approximately 200 delegates,members, and parents fromMorth and South Carolina, andNorth and South Carolina, and suble spin to fi living: e

North and South Carolina, and health, spiritual understanding ball, gan Friday, November 15.

of the Division of Humanities, Bennett College delivered the Sennetr con-responde address at the session, Friday evening. The sum-mind, body and soul are the pretation or raw materials with which the builder must construct his life in the kind of society that he whoght of Dr. Jarrett's message. He was introduced by Thomasine Corbett, Preddent of host group, who presided. Taylor, Dr. A. F. Jackson, Rev. Julius T. Douglas, Mr. Sampson prized of the following mem-berg Mrs. Sue Taylor/ Program Chairman; Mrs. Juanita Spaul-ding, Chairman of Housing; Mrs. Latistantic Chairman in the following mem-berg Mrs. Sue Taylor/ Program Chairman; Mrs. Juanita Spaul-ding, Chairman of Housing; Mrs. Mrs. Sue Taylor, Program Chairman; Mrs. Sal-Mrs. Sue Taylor, Mrs. Sal-Mrs. Sue Taylor, Mrs. Sal-Mrs. Sue Taylor, Mrs. Sal-Mrs. Sue Mrs. Sal-Mrs. Sal-Mrs. Sue Mrs. Sal-Mrs. Sal-Mrs.

Mid-Atlantic Regional Direc- Buie, Mr. G. Julian Foster and tor, Mrs. Mollie Lee was the Mrs. Henrietta Jeffries. Regional Conference of Jack and main speaker at the Saturday Miss Grace Matthews, Direc-

which followed the ban-North and South Carolina, and nearth, spiritual understanding of human Virginia attended the three-day and an understanding of human conference held at Hayes-Taylor behavior. "Too much "canned YMCA in Greensboro, which be-music" like too much canned 100 additional teen-age guests

 Carchin Greensboro, which be an Friday, November 15.
 music" like too much canned 100 additional teen-age guests creative thinking that you will food will not be conducive to the need for tomorrow's world," from Greensboro attending.

 Dr. Hobart Jarrett, Chairman f the Division of Humanities, lennett College delivered the final business session included Alice Gloster, Hampton, Va.,

Bennett College delivered the keynote address at the opening session, Friday evening. The Saturday afternoon ses-mind, body and soul are the raw materials with which the theme by the youths themselves builder must construct his life in discussion groups under the in the kind of society that he guidance of consultants. The fol-

Betty Lou Giddings, South-eastern Business School student Marietta Carrington, Chairman of Banquet and Dance; Mrs. Sal-lie Corbett and Mrs. Ivey Wil-ma Gamma Rho-sponsored Deliamson. Chairmen of Registra- butante Ball which will be held tion, Mrs. Margaret Falkener, in Durham sometime in January. Souvenir Program Packets; Mrs. She is the daughter of Mr. and Walta Williams, Chairman of Mrs. Hawley Newsome of Ahos Hospitality; Mrs. Pauline Foster, kie.

ing institution in order that pro-spective teachers might see the correlation between the pre-service program and the in-service activities." A principals' roundtable will include these school heads: H. W. Brown, Ligon High School, Raleigh; W. D. Moore, Berry O'Kelly School, Method; G. C.

Chairman of Teen-age Enter-tainment; Mrs. Dora Lee Fairley, Chairman of Parents' Enter tainment, and Mrs. Pearl G. Bradley, Chairman of Publicity.

The three-year old Greensboro chapter consists of 29 and 48 youngsters.

Home Economics

Teachers To Meet

At N. C. College

Forty five home economics teachers from 10 North Carolina

Counties are scheduled to attend the District IV Homemaking

Teachers' meeting at North Carolina College Tuesday (Nov 26) at 2:30 p.m.

Sessions will be held in the college's Home Economics Bldg.

According to Mrs. L. F. James area supervisor, "the meeting will be held in the teacher train-Ing School Siler City. Oran Miss Diana S. Dent, chairman of the NCC department and hostess to meet, will talk about re-cent trends in home economics student teaching education reports from Mrs. Elizabeth Whitted, district curriculum and Mrs. Duren Toole, Raleigh, steering committee mark and the steeri steering committee member. Officers of the district are

Mrs. Maggie Holley, chairman, Mary Potter School, Oxford; Mrs. Inez W. Foster, secretary, Joe Toler High School, Virgilina, 000 Jackson State College Library got underway this week with appropriate ground-break Var; and Mrs. James, area supering ceremonies. Of the mone counties to be represented are $400,000 was appropriated for its construction, Counties to be represented are $400,000 was appropriated by Durham, Chatham, Franklin, the Mississippi State Building

Johnston.

GOOD FOOD SPECIALS

Locally Owned ON SECURITY AND PERSONAL SIGNATUBE 226 North Main Street Phone PA.-3-2456 Winston-Salem, North Carolina

The PROTECTION YOU Need!

SATURDAY, NOV. 30, 1957 THE CAROLINA TIMES

ditioned with rubber tile floors in all reading rooms. The build ing will include several reading coom, a erference room, a staff lounge, a student conference room, a small kitchenette, a student typing room, two seminar rooms and offices.

Bidding on the library was considered by the Building Commission as the best in recent months. The Commission accept ed the low bid of G. E. Bass Construction Company of Jackson whose bid was $253,051 for general construction. Electrical and mechanical contracts called for an additional $93,499 in bids described as "way below"

the

rooms, four listening rooms, room, a reference room, a staff

PAGE THREE

to a college before its liquida- Commission while $150,000 tion a few years ago. The new came as a gift from the General facility, which will be modern Education Board in what might and functional in every detail, have been the last grant it made will be a three-story structure money available for the project. and will be completely air-con

> NEW! NEW! PERSULAN • Water Repeilant • Use Cooler Iren • Contains Silicone, I.anel Hormones Lasts Longer
> Money Back Guarantee AVAILABLE AT YOUR BEAUTY SHOP

ack in Plymouth Colony, over 350 years ago, the Pilgrims felt they had sufficient cause to set aside a special day for Thanksgiving.

So, in the spirit of the Pilgrims, let's all pause and gratefully count our many blessings - on Thanksgiving Day.

> (No business will be transacted by this bank on Thanksgiving Day)

tor

Giving

Thanks!

Mechanics And Farmers Bank

DUREAM AND BALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

112 W. PARRISH ST.

PHONE 3-1151

LOW COST HOSPITALIZATION POLICY

Hospital Expense Benefits Up To $15.00 Per Day ... Surgical

Benefits Up To $150.00.

SEE YOUR AGENT TODAY

NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

W. L. COOK, District Manager Phone 2-1541 6061/2 Fayetteville Street Durham, North Carolina