

Colonial Stores '57 Sales To Set New Standard

ATLANTA, GEORGIA
Colonial Stores Incorporated, one of the nation's 10 top super-market chains, will set new sales and earnings records in 1957, according to Joseph Seltz, Colonial president.

In a year-end statement, Seltz said that sales for the year will total about $444 million, an increase of 4 per cent over 1956, and earnings will amount to more than $8 million, up 7 per cent over last year.

Seltz also reported that Colonial plans in 1958 to open approximately 40 new super-markets and enlarge and modernize 13 existing units in its 11-state operating territory in the South and Midwest. Of the new stores, about 10 will exceed 20,000 sq. feet in size.

high, unemployment is over 3,000,000, and the peace is uneasy.

The failure is not that of a part-time President, but of a sudden national realization that the campaign slogans of 1952 and 1956 were impossible from the very beginning.
