St. Joseph's Church Nursery Set For Eighth Season

When the St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church First Grade and Nursery School opens its doors on Sept. 3, it will begin its eighth year as one of Durham's leading pre-Public Schools.

The brain-child of Mrs. Clyde Scarborough, the Nursery was organized October 8, 1952, under the supervision of Miss Hattie M. Jenkins, the first grade and Nursery School has successfully operated with a faculty and staff of certified teachers including Miss Hattie Jenkins; Mesdames Mildred Amey, Olga Barksdale, Beulah Hill, Bernice Davenport, Dorothy Swann, Annabelle Brown; Dr. W. A. Cleland, Physician, Mrs. E. A. Cordice, Registered Nurse; and Dr. E. P. Norris, D.D.S.

A day's program in the Nursery begins at 7:30 A.M. with the reception of children and consists of health inspection, fruit juice, supervised play, stories, conversation, coloring, clay molding, toys, fingerpainting, music, nourishing meals, rest, mid-afternoon milk, supervised play and dismissal at 5:00 P.M.

The first grade schedule is similar to that of the public schools. It is supervised by the State Board of Public Instruction.

According to Dr. Melvin C. Swann, minister-supervisor, a large enrollment is expected for this year's session.

REV. BILLIE FERRELL, who was called to preach fifteen months ago, is the brother-in-law of Mr. Ellen W. Little of Durham. Rev. and Mrs. Ferrell will attend a convention in Chicago this month, after which they will spend their vacation in Washington, D. C., with relatives.
