"Save Your Money," Wilkins Advises Florida Solon Who Proposed Million Dollar Segregation Campaign

MIAMI, Fla.

A Florida legislator who proposed the raising of a million-dollar fund to spread pro-segregation propaganda in the North has been advised "to save the money."

The advice was given to State Representative W. H. Reedy of Leesburgh by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, during the course of an address delivered at a mass meeting of the Miami NAACP branch here on Nov. 23.

Representative Reedy, the NAACP leader noted, had "proposed that $1,000,000.00 be raised in the South to engage a public relations firm to 'sell' the North on why the South needs segregation. I advise Representative Reedy to save the money. The North is pretty well informed as to what segregation means in the South...

"What would Representative Reed 'sell' to the North?" Wilkins asked. "Would he sell the savage segregated justice represented by Sheriff Willis McCall, who shot a handcuffed Negro prisoner as he was transferring him from Raiford for a new trial ordered by the Supreme Court? Would he sell the bomb-murder of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Moore at Mims, Fla., on Christmas day, 1951, just because Harry Moore worked for the NAACP? Would he sell the slaughter of a Negro prisoner, already blinded by tear gas, at Homestead, Fla., last Tuesday?"

The Florida legislator, he asserted, "will have to come up with something else. He could find a public relations firm—you can find anything when you have a million dollars to spend. But the firm could not deliver the goods. Making garbage smell like Chanel No. 5 is a task bordering on the impossible. Besides, too many people are in on the truth."

Wilkins further urged Governor Leroy Collins, who has been advocating a national conference on the desegregation issue, "to take steps within his own state to assemble counsellors and to devise a plan" on how to proceed with desegregation of Florida's public schools.

"Here is a proper place to exercise state sovereignty," he said. "Why wait for a federal commission or a southern commission, or an act of Congress? We sincerely suggest to Governor Collins (because we assume he is sincere) that he call together the wisdom of the responsible white and colored citizens of Florida and proceed to a plan that will place this great state on the side of sanity and observance of law."

Play On Theme Of Delinquency At HHS Thurs.

"The Persecuted Boy," an original play on the theme of juvenile delinquency by a Hillside high school teacher, will be presented at the high school on Thursday evening Dec. 11 at eight p.m.

The drama was written and directed by J. W. Barnes, advisor to the Juvenile Delinquency Research Club of Hillside which is sponsoring the presentation.

According to Barnes, the play attempts to show how the home, school and community condemn the behavior of youths while at the same time contributing to the delinquency.

"The Defendant," a teenage boy who is the play's protagonist, is a typically chronic delinquent whose youthful hostility terrorizes the community.

The conflict arises when the community takes steps to remove what it considers the menace posed by the young delinquent.

Barnes said he hoped to show in the drama how the lack of understanding, love and affection on the part of the home, community have contributed to the aggressive behavior of the "Defendant."

Anderson Council will be seen in the feature role as the "Defendant." James White and Wesley Brown will be seen as prosecuting and defense attorneys, respectively.

Virginia State One Site For National Teacher Examinations

PETERSBURG, Va.

Virginia State College has been designated as a testing center for the 1959 nationwide administration of the National Teacher Examination next February, P. C. Johnson, Director of Testing, announced last week.

College seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for positions in school systems which encourage or require applicants to submit their scores on the National Teacher Examinations along with their other credentials are eligible to take the tests. The examinations are prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey.

The designation of Virginia State College as a testing center for these examinations will give prospective teachers in this area an opportunity to compare their performance on the examinations with approximately 10,000 candidates throughout the country who will be participating in the nationwide administration on February 7, 1959, Dr. Johnson said.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Information, General Culture, English Expression, and Non-Verbal Reasoning. In addition, each candidate may take one or two of the eleven Optional Examinations which are designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter in the fields in which he may be assigned to teach.

Applications for the examinations and a Bulletin of Information describing registration procedures and containing sample test questions may be obtained from Dr. P. C. Johnson, Virginia State College, Petersburg, Va., or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey.

Prospective teachers planning to take the test should secure an Application Blank and a Bulletin of Information promptly, the Director of Testing advised.

Changes Make Parents' Job Of Advising Harder

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.

"Changing employment and educational opportunities makes it absolutely necessary for Negro parents to take a more active part in encouraging and motivating our youth to raise their vocational sights and increase their academic achievements," Herbert L. Wright, NAACP youth secretary, stated in an address to a youth mass meeting held here on November 23.

The meeting which attracted 450 persons was sponsored by the Oklahoma City Youth Council as a victory rally in celebration of the Oklahoma City Youth Council's distinction as now the largest NAACP youth group in the nation.

The council recruited 2,000 members and 19 junior life members. In addition, the council reported that 37 restaurants, lunch counters and drug stores in the city have now been opened to Negro customers as a result of the council's sit-down protest."
