

Two Leaving City for Baltimore Are Guests at Wisteria Affair

Mrs. Eva L. Goins and sister, Miss Sallie E. Whitted, who will be leaving Durham very shortly for Baltimore, Md. where they plan to make their home, were entertained last Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock by the Wisteria Bridge Club, of which they both are members.

The affair took place at the home of Mrs. J. W. V. Cordice, 1508 Fayetteville Street. The home was beautifully decorated with very pretty flower arrangements done by Mrs. Cordice from her own garden.

The ladies assembled in the spacious living room around the honored guests, where many kind words were spoken by each member with the president, Mrs. Chat E. Rivera, leading. Mrs. Lil Buchanan rendered an original poem, entitled "Baltimore Bound."

Gifts were then presented to the honored guests by Mrs. Julia Harris. Mrs. Goins responded with thanks and appreciation.

Mrs. Cordice invited the ladies into the dining room where all sat around the dining table in an old fashioned family style and enjoyed a menu of salad plate with punch and accompaniment.

Present were Mesdames Ruth Edwards, Maud Logan, Parepa Watkins, Chat Rivera, Julia Harris, Mamie Elam, Clyde Scarborough, Esell Dunlap, Lovey McCoy, Pearl Cordice and Lil Buchanan.
