

MRS. CHARLES BOWLING

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Miss Sara Daniel, Charles Bowling

On Saturday, June 20, at 5 o'clock, Miss Sarah L. Daniel became the bride of Charles Bowling in a ceremony performed at St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church. The Rev. R. L. Speaks officiated in the double ring ritual.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Celia Davison and Mrs. Lillie Kelly.

The church was decorated with a background of woodwardia fern and palms, wrought iron candelabra holding lighted white candles, and baskets of white flowers. The kneeling bench was covered with satin and centered the wedding scene.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah Daniel of Durham. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Bowling, Sr., also of Durham.

The bride wore an elegant floor length wedding gown of nylon tulle and Chantilly lace with long sleeves pointed at the wrist. The back of the gown was finished with matching bow at the waist of the Chantilly lace and ruffled underskirt. Her veil was attached to a tiara crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a white satin Prayer Book to which was attached a lavender orchid and white ribbon streamers showered with stephanotis.

Miss Edna Daniel was her sister's maid of honor. She was attired in a waltz-length dress of blue silk organza with cummerbund and full skirt. Her headdress of matching color was a crown of pearls with a short veil. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations tied with blue ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Omega

Parker, Miss Clara Cole, Miss Annetta Benton, and Mrs. Helena Patterson. Their dresses were pink and designed like that of the honor attendant. They carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Little Miss Ann Dixon was flower girl and ring bearer was Master Robert Willis.

The bride's mother wore blue lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a power-blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Wiley Bowling, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Oliver Hodge, Quinton Parker, John Gibson, Jr., and Palmer Perkins, Jr.

The bride is a graduate of North Carolina College and taught this year at Yadkin High School, Boonville, N. C.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Alabama State College and is working toward a Masters of Arts degree at North Carolina College, where he also has served as assistant director of bands for the past two years.

Out of town guests included Mr. John Foster and Mr. James Carter of Alabama; Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McCallum of Greensboro, Mrs. R. Roberts of Winston-Salem; Mrs. B. Scales, Miss Delores Dobson, Miss Shelby Dobson, and Mr. Norvell Cundiff of Boonville; Mrs. Lattie Hopkins, Mrs. Cora Brewer Miss Mary McCullough, and Mr. Lewis McCullough of Concord.

For the summer, the couple will be at the home at 406 Formosa Avenue.

Shower Given For Bride

Miss Sara L. Daniels was entertained Monday night, June 15, a miscellaneous shower given by Miss R. B. Grissom of 605 Gray Street.

Upon her arrival, Miss Daniels was presented a corsage of spring flowers. A pink and white motif was carried out in the shower decorations. The table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with a bowl of spring flowers and was flanked by pink tapers.

Lovely flowers were placed at intervals throughout the home. Bridal games were played and prizes were given to the winners. Punch with cake squares and accompaniments were served with Mrs. Ora Sneed Lee presiding at the punch bowl.

Some 25 guests showered Sara with lovely miscellaneous gifts for her future home.

Special guests were Mrs. Sara Daniels, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Clara Bowling, mother of the bridegroom.

Miss Daniels and Charles Bowling were married in a formal ceremony at St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Church Saturday.

CAPTAIN AND MRS. HERBERT G. PARKER

Miss Florida Fisher, Capt. Parker Exchange Nuptial Vows In Durham

Miss Florida Lucyle Fisher daughter of the Reverend Doctor and Mrs. Miles Mark Fisher, III of Durham was married Saturday afternoon at five o'clock to Captain Herbert Gerald Parker, United States Army. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis James Parker of Fayetteville, Arkansas.

The Reverend Doctor Fisher, father of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony uniting the couple in White Rock Baptist Church. He was assisted by the Reverend E. T. Browne, pastor of the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church.

The vows were spoken before the altar which was banked with palms, white gladioli and candelabra. The toppers were lighted by Ada Markita Fisher, sister of the bride and Janet Geraldine Foster, the bride's cousin both attired in yellow. They were assisted by Christopher Tennant Fisher, youngest brother of the bride.

The nuptial music was provided by John H. Gattis, organist, Mrs. Lewis M. Goodwin, soloist, and the Young People's Choir of the White Rock Baptist Church. Miss Fisher was directress of this choir before her marriage.

A reception was held in the Lower Chapel of White Rock Baptist Church immediately following the ceremony.

Miles Mark Fisher, IV escorted his sister. She was attired in a formal length gown of white lace and tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves ending in calla points over the wrists, and a sabrina neckline formed by an illusion yoke appliqued with lace motifs. The bouffant tulle skirt was accented by a drop lace peplum and matching band of lace above the hemline. Her tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to a tiara of seed, pearls and sequins. She carried a prayer book topped with white orchids and streamers of stephanotis.

Miss Annie Ruth Charleston was maid of honor. Her waltz length dress was of yellow organza over taffeta, fashion with a circle neckline and brief sleeves. The bouffant skirt accented at the waist by crushed taffeta cummerbund in shades of yellow and gold and featured at the center back by a butterfly bow. She wore a Doir bow with a circle veil and yellow slippers. Her bouquet was of green tipped carnations. The other attendants were Mesdames Frank Enty, Horace Dawson, John Smith, Eugene Slaughter, sister of the groom and Miss Anita Parker, niece of the groom. They were attired in mint green dressed identical in style with that of the maid of honor and they carried yellow tipped carnations.

Eugene Francis Slaughter of St. Louis, Mo. served as best man for his brother-in-law. The ushers were General R. Pearson of Durham, S. C. Prester Davis of Fort Benning and Durham, Vernon Scipio of Durham, Dr. Guthrie Turner of Fort Bragg and Snow

Hill, and Elijah John Fisher, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a pink lace gown over pink taffeta, with matching lace hat and corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. D. Eric Moore presented guests to the receiving line. Mrs. Edward Boyd and Mrs. F. Vincent Allison poured the punch. Miss Bobbie Mickles was at the cup table. Mrs. Nathaniel White received guests while Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Emmett Pratt, Mrs. William G. Pearson, II, Mrs. Paul McAllister and Mrs. General R. Pearson served as hostesses. Mrs. Henderson Lee and Mrs. George White, Jr., were in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Harvey A. Johnson was in charge of reception arrangements.

After the reception, the couple left on a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania. For her traveling attire, Mrs. Parker wore a blue linen sheath with floral-lined matching coat, a white flower hat and black patent accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid lifted from her prayer book.

The bride, an alumna of Denison University in Granville, Ohio is a teacher at Whitted Junior High School of this city.

The bridegroom entered the armed services of his country upon graduation from Hillside High School. A veteran of twelve year of service, he is presently connected with the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Lovless and sons Parker and James of East St. Louis, Illinois, Miss Carol Slaughter and Donald Slaughter, St. Louis, Mo., relatives of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Foster, Mrs. Madelyn Foster, Wendell G.
