

First Calvary Homecoming Speaker Warns Against Illusions

The First Calvary Baptist Church celebrated its 6th annual homecoming on Sunday, September 27.

The Homecoming sermon was delivered at 11:00 by the Reverend P. E. Green, who spoke from the subject "God's Call to the Sleepers."

"God is calling on those who slumber to awaken and arise from the dead. Too many church members sleep and slumber while the 'faithful few' carry the load," he said. Dreams are "illusions which keep us from doing our great things when in reality we are slumbering and sleeping. Awaken and come home to God and do something," Rev. Green concluded, "and God shall give thee light."

Following the morning service, dinner was served to guests, members and friends in the spacious dining room of the church.

At 2:30 p.m., the church dedicatory message was very eloquently delivered by J. S. Stewart, member of the City Council. During his discourse, Stewart referred to the dynamic work of the late Dr. H. H. Hart, who led in the erection of the First Calvary church. He also paid tribute to the present minister Reverend A. L. Thompson, who has labored so earnestly and conscientiously and who within the short time of his administration, has led his congregation in paying off the church lien and "burning the mortgage."

Professor Frank G. Burnett brought remarks on behalf of the Lyon Park School Faculty and student body.

Music throughout the day was rendered by the Senior Choir directed by Miss M. L. Stephens. Mrs. Bessie Thompson rendered a special solo.

Mrs. N. J. Curry served as chairman of the Homecoming observance.

Baha'is Mark Proclamation Anniversary

Proclamation Day was observed by members of the Durham Baha'i group as well as by members of the faith in over 150 cities and towns in the western hemisphere, Mrs. Lucimilla Van Sombeek, leader of the Durham group said last week.

Proclamation Day marks the 66th anniversary of the introduction of the religious faith in this country. Mrs. Van Sombeek issued the following statement in connection with the observance:

"A Christian clergyman at the World Parliament of Religions, Chicago's Columbia Exposition in September 1893 called the attention of that body of high dignitaries, representing meet of the world's followers of the Baha' faith believe that by trust in God and love for mankind, peace can be established in the world, when man lives according to His teachings, given to the world by His messengers or prophets down through the ages.

"Now science has made of the world a neighborhood, but not a brotherhood. The intellect of man, conquering the earth through the power of science, seemed to assure and secure humanity an ever-advancing civilization, since World War II.

"How much all this now seems a dream. Today there is no security anywhere. Why is it man with his superb intellect, his amazing scientific abilities finds himself helpless to maintain a stable civilization? Because human power is limited in its influence. Only divine power unites nations and peoples and cements them together in the bond of brotherhood and real peace, not cessation of war.

"Therefore this Proclamation of the Baha' World Faith, its founder Baha'u'llah is not only the fulfillment of the prophecy of the Jewish Faith in 'the coming of the Lord of Hosts', but also the fulfillment for Christians who too are looking for the 'return of Christ' in the glory of the Father." Baha'u'llah means the "Glory of God." Christ's prayer 'Thy kingdom come', will be fulfilled, in His words, "When He the Spirit of Truth is come. He will guide you unto all Truth."

Mack's Quack (Teenage Happenings)

By JOYCELYN McKEISSICK

Hi Teens . . . now that the season is changing and the days are getting shorter, you will find the leaves turning. These are not the only changes taking place. The older teenage society is changing slowly from "Rock 'n Roll" to cooler sounds of the "Beat" Generation. In other words, they are becoming first class "BEATNIKS." One might classify a beatnik as that "something" that wears wild hair styles, and "tough" sport clothes, digs cool sounds and also down right simplicity. Beatniks may be found walking uptown, at school, or anywhere that his attire may be worn. There is one precaution; however, if you plan to become a beatnik, don't forget to wear dark glasses and NO make-up! If you do not take this precaution in consideration, you may never get to be a first class beatnik.

"BEATNIK" LANGUAGE

The second step in learning to be a beatnik is the vocabulary. So far, a beatnik seems simple enough to be; however, if you are not devoted enough to the rest of the Beat Generation, to learn the vocabulary of these weird characters, then you will never be a first class beatnik. When you hear such things as "Daddy-o", Dig that banana and cut a rug! "Shoot it cat, lets hit the flik and dig those cool sounds." What you really hear or what is really being said is, "John, why don't you and your girl dance." or "Run John, turn on the record player so I can listen to my favorites."

Such terms as "Stereo Noises", "You Bug Me Baby" and "Make with the haste", can sometimes be misinterpreted, as insults to the human race. So, when you see a beatnik headed your way, take out your ear-plugs or else "Make It!"

The beatniks at Hillside observed "Beatnik Day", Monday by wearing all black, including black stockings, no make-up, and white tennis shoes. Only one thing was missing from their native garb, that incredulous, extraordinary, mystifying, shocking language. I guess the choice was "All Stoppers" for their language or "Make It!" from their teachers, and school officials. Some of the Beatniks are: Marsha Goodwin, Betty Goodlee, Eleanore Hinton, Evelyn Kennedy, Helen Davis, Judith Burton, Catherine Pratt, Eileen Turner, and June Rosser.

"BEATNIK" DANCE

"A Beatnik Party" will be given Friday night at W. D. Hill recreation center, by the Modern Dance Club. This just goes to show that the modern trend is to be able to dance "BEATNIKISH".

Hillside is not the only place where members of the "Beat Generation" hide-out.

Some can also be found at Durham High. Proof of this was given Tuesday, when the Student Council presented a playlet which depicted life among the beatniks. The program was given to urge student financial support for the Student Council

"I'll dig you next week, as for now, I've got to 'make it.' "Hurrah", for Hillside High and Durham High for their victories last week. Hillside played Fayetteville and Durham played High Point. Good luck for continued success, to both of you.

This week school pictures were taken at Durham High. To the surprise of the faculty and students, none of the cameras were broken.
