First Album by Sam Cooke Is Ready For Release on RCA

Sam Cooke, the good-looking, twenty-three year old singing sensation from Chicago, makes his album debut on RCA Victor with "Cooke's Touch."

In his smooth, meaningful style, Sam takes a vocal trip around the world. He sings of the City of Light in "Under Paris Skies," of the South Pacific in "Bali Hai," of the Eternal City in "Archedesideria," and then gives Latin America a whirl with "The Coffee Song" and "South of the Border." Add a musical touch of London, the Bahamas, and Ireland and you have heard around the world in 33 and 1/3rd RPM.

The new RCA Victor recording, "Cooke's Touch," was recorded a few years ago at the Los Angeles auditorium singing with a gospel group known as the "Soul Stirrers." His first recording, "You send Me," made the record world sit up and take notice in 1958. His background singing of theme music in the Cary Grant/Sophia Loren success

Sophistication, Low-Down Blues Sung by Dakota on New Records

Dakota Station's handling of sophisticated ballads is contrasted with her feeling for low-down blues in her new Capital album, Dakota Station Sings Ballads and the Blues.

This is the seventh of Capitol's Dakota Station albums, which have appeared in a rapid-fire series to keep up with the steady demand that has existed since her debut package, The Late, Late Show. Among the others were the best-selling Dynamic and Time to Swing.

In Ballads and Blues, Dakota for the first time on record sings with a large orchestra. Sid Feller conducts the strings, harp and

Harry Belafonte to Make Tour of the Far East This Summer

Harry Belafonte, whose concert tours of the United States and Europe have become one of the most artistically and financially successful ventures of his type, will introduce his one-man evening to some of the leading nations in the Far East this summer.

Beginning with a five day appearance at the Hawaiian Centennial celebration in Honolulu July 2nd (after two "break in" dates in Denver June 7th and Los Angeles June 10th), Belafonte then swings out toward Japan, the Philippines, Australia, Israel, India and Greece.

Offering a two act program of essentially the same structure that he presented to New York Palace audiences for fourteen weeks last season, Belafonte will travel with a relatively light company.

Accompanying him on the trip, in addition to Mrs. Belafonte and their two and a half year old son, David, will be Phil Stein, Executive Producer, in complete charge of the program, four accompanists, three singers, a stage manager and a musical conductor. Mike Merrick, Belafonte's long-time publicist, will advance the tour.

The show will play both Tokyo and Osaka in Japan; Melbourne and Sydney in Australia; Tel Aviv in Israel and Athens in Greece. The contemplated stop in India will be for non-professional purposes.

At the end of this tour, in early September, Belafonte and his troupe will head for London, England, for their annual BBC-TV appearance. During his stay in many of these countries Belafonte hopes to add to his ever increasing repertoire of folk material by "tape capturing" some local folk tunes.
