MR. AND MRS. HOLMES

Marriage Vows are Exchanged Between Miss Lambert, Holmes

Miss Wilma Juanita Lambert, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lambert of Goldston and Leonard Lorenza Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Holmes of Winston, S. C., spoke nuptial vows here before Rev. Edgar Thompson in an impressive evening ceremony on the garden lawn at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mozella McLaughlin, Sunday, June 12th.

Selections of traditional wedding songs were presented by Mrs. Lillie Kelly, soloist and Miss Mary Louise Stephens, pianist.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William H. McLaughlin, the bride chose a waltz-length gown of white taffeta, fashioned along princess lines and featuring short sleeves and fluted insets of white illusion net. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a white crown with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and white carnations.

Mrs. L. E. Harley, of New York, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of blue organza over a taffeta floral print. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Mozella

A Daughter's Graduation

Mrs. Lattice Vickers attended the graduating exercises at Morgan State College in Baltimore, Md. of her daughter, Mrs. Gloria Vickers Warren.

McLaughlin and Mrs. Geneva Dillard, sisters of the bride, Mrs. McLaughlin wore a light blue chiffon dress decorated with rhinestones. Mrs. Dillard wore a pink rayon dress with pleated skirt. Both carried bouquets of pink and white reosbuds. Murice Glenn of Durham was best man.

The bride was graduated from Johnson C. Smith University. She also holds Masters' degrees from New York University and Columbia University respectively. She is presently employed with the New York Public Library.

The groom attended schools in Charleston, South Carolina and is presently employed with the Triangle Research Park in Durham, North Carolina.

Recreation Workers

Jimmy Little, a senior at Lincoln High School has been employed for the summer at the Community Center to work with the young boys Little League Baseball teams. Mrs. Polly Atwater McCauley is working with the girls' Softball teams.

Y-Teens Organized

On Sunday afternoon a group of mothers, friends and young girls met at the home of Mrs. Thomasine Register for the purpose of forming a Y-Teen group among our young girls. Mrs. Danny Young, who is the organizer of the white Y-Teen group, met with the group to explain how to get it started and other worthwhile purposes of this group.

It was decided that we would work with girls in the 12-14 age group since they seem to be more interested at this time.

Mrs. Register was elected as our supervisor and Mrs. Joyce Owens was elected as temporary director.

Those present were: Mesdames: Helen Himes, Barbara Oldham, Arvela Briggs, Allene Baldwin, Mannie Davis, H. K. Russell, W. A. Terrill, who is secretary of the other Y-Teen Group, Mrs. Danny Young, Thomasine Register, and Mrs. Joyce Owens.

Also Misses: Velma Perry, A. L. Thompson, Jacqueline Edwards, Sandra Gattis, Donna Joe Oldham, Cynthia Hines, Edith Briggs, Carolyn Briggs, Gwen Harris, Donna Joe Owens and a group of the white Y-Teens. They were: Lee Miner, Lue Ellen Terrill, Libby Russell, Virginia Baldwin, Jane B. Russell and Susan Grina.

After the meeting a delicious repast was served by the hostesses and Mrs. Estelle Gattis which consisted of punch, cookies and peanuts.

On Relations Group

The following persons were named to succeed themselves to new two-year terms on the Human Relations Commission: Mrs. Esther Atwater, Adolphus Clark, Miss Lucille Caldwell, and Mrs. Alice F. Jones.

Brook Christened

Little Miss Joan C. Brooke, 4 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brooks of Carr Courts was christened Sunday morning at the regular morning worship hour at St. Paul A. M. E. Church. The God mother, Miss E. D. Perry of Durham and the God father, Mr. George Harris of Chapel Hill were present for the ceremony. Also standing at the altar was the grandmother, Mrs. Augusta Edwards. Rev. T. P. Duhart performed the rites.

Appreciation

An appreciation service was given at St. Paul A. M. E. Church Thursday night for Mrs. A. D. Compton a retired nurse of Chapel Hill, and Miss Julia Caldwell.

Miss Barbara Pendergraph, fiancée of Robert D. Winston, worshipped at St. Paul A.M.E. Church Sunday with Mr. Winston.

IOTA FOUNDER'S BANQUET

Members of the Rho chapter of Iota Phi Lambda sorority are pictured here at a Founder's Day banquet held in Durham recently at the Biltmore hotel party room. The sorority was host to southern regional director Catherine Johnson, who delivered the banquet address. An impressive candlelight service, a review of the chapter's activities for the year by Mrs. L. Z. Williams and concluding of the affair with the sorority hymn were highlights of the evening. —photo by Bur:hey
