Delaney Defends Mrs. Campanella

NEW YORK—Mrs. Ruth Campanella retained former Justice of the Domestic Relations Court—Hubert T. Delaney—as her lawyer in defense against her husband's suit for separation and she's maintaining that Roy Campanella "is no angel."

"A lot of damaging things may come in court testimony," began Mr. Delaney. He believes that Campanella's physical condition has disturbed his thinking and he is misguided by so-called friends and hangers-on who want to feel sorry for him."

He described Camp's seeking full custody of his three younger children as "foolish" as explained:

"He would have to come to a court that Mrs. Campanella is an unfit mother and he just can't show any court that this has been true." The former Dodger star-catcher is alleging "extreme and inhuman cruelty" in the attention papers he has filed in Nassau County Supreme Court.

SEEN STARS

By DOLORES CALVIN

BELAFONTE IN JAPAN TELLS OFF

HARRY BELAFONTE is using the Belafonte name to fullest to sound off and this time the stage has been shifted to Japan in Tokyo for seven performances, Harry really let off some steam against those who want him to "play it safe."

"I think it's false to think one's concern with political life and one's country is necessarily at the risk of one's career. I don't see anything happening to me except millions are flocking to the theatre, to TV screens and to buy my records."

Harry was in Japan as the first part of an 11 week concert-vacation around the world tour. All of his performances in Japan are of course sold out. Thus he had the time to sound off on "parlor tibetals" and other pet peeves.

"A lot of artists I know will invite Sidney Poitier and myself to dinner and tell us of their love for their Negro maids and chauffeurs. They sound off. We go home and maybe in a year or six months we call on them saying that there are some courageous students who need money for bail or for scholarship in case they cannot return to their schools. We say that we only need $100 and that we read where they made a million and a half last year. They tell us they have to hear from their accountants."

"I see fear all around me and I have no respect for it," he continued. And he can really pour it out against the artist who does so much in raising funds for crippled children or heart disease victims but—"We have more professional humanitarians in show business than in medicine and science, but I can't think of anybody who has spoken out on civil rights for professional expediency."

"But as far as coming to Japan and speaking on the Congo crisis or on the Kishi Government. I don't feel I am equipped or have the right. I am embraced as an artist, not as a political figure. I'm not asking anybody to believe what I have to say. I just don't want to be stuck in a closet and only brought out and dusted off when it's show time."

BARBARA KITT is being considered in London, England as the star of "Talk of the Town" at the Hippodrome. . . . But it's all not definite yet.

SAMMY DAVIS, JR., may talk so goah darn much about his May Britt and when and how he will marry her—but it certainly doesn't seem to affect his performances. Sammy was never in better form as he radiated at the Elmwood which is just across the river from Detroit—in Windsor, Ontario. The little fellow was on for over an hour and he was uproarious which was just how the applause was, too.

JOSEPHINE BAKER in Paris may do "The Merry Widow" in a revised version of that stately Franz Lehár Operetta. Our eyes lit up for La Baker in that picturesque position. . . . But then she can do almost anything in show business.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—Comedian Sid Caesar sings "Happy Birthday" as he offers a gift to Duke Ellington at a party given the famed composer and band leader on the final night of his three-month engagement at the Las Vegas Riviera hotel. Besides Caesar, other entertainment celebrities who helped the Duke celebrate included Ray Anthony, Gordon Jenkins, Sophie Tucker, Les Paul, Mary Ford, Joe E. Lewis, Pearl Bailey, Ted Lewis, Victor Borge, Eartha Kitt, Betty Hutton, Louis Bellson, Vaughn Monroe, Lee Castle, Billy Eckstine and Della Reese.

Grateful Gary, Ind., Lee Calhoun's Hometown, Gives His Wife a Trip to Olympic Games in Rome

The former Miss Gwendolyn Bannister of Southern Pines, wife of Olympic hurdler Lee Calhoun, will join her husband in Rome for the summer Olympic games.

Mrs. Calhoun is being given a trip to Rome by the city of Gary, Indiana, Lee's hometown.

City officials voted a trip for the athlete's wife "in appreciation" for Calhoun's contributions to the city's program of recreation for youth.

Lee has worked in youth programs in Gary since his graduate from North Carolina College.

The couple was married on the NBC-TV show "bride and groom" after a campus romance at N. C. College.

Gwendolyn will make a trip to her home at Southern Pines to visit her family when she returns to the States after the games.

Meanwhile, information was received here recently that Dr. Leroy T. Walker, NCC track coach on leave to coach the Israeli Olympic team, is scheduled to read scientific papers at the Institute on Normal Human Anatomy, a symposium on the scientific study of health and fitness, to be held in Rome during the Olympics.

Walker is scheduled to read a paper on "Hurdling Techniques on an Olympic champion."

A source in this country also to the Ethiopian track contingent revealed this week that Walker at the Olympics has been engaged as a consultant.

Belafonte TV Special To Be Staged by CBS on November 13

NEW YORK—Belafonte Enterprises Inc. and Revlon announced today that actor-singer Harry Belafonte's first special for the 1960-61 season is set for Sunday, November 13th (CBS-TV), 10:00-11:00 P.M.

Belafonte was recently awarded an Emmy for his outstanding performance on the "Tonight with Belafonte" CBS-TV special for Revlon last December.

The entire production will be under the supervision of Phil Stein, executive producer of Belafonte Enterprises Inc., packager of the program, with Norman Jewison directing. Both Stein and Jewison, serving in similar capacities, were a part of the creative forces behind last year's award winning show.

At present, Belafonte is on the last lap of a three month concert tour of the Far East, during which time the singer has said he's seeking new international talent and folk material for his forthcoming television special.
