

Livingstone Beats Paine

AUGUSTA, Ga.—The Livingstone College Bears combined a smooth ground attack with a stubborn defense to romp over the Paine College Tigers 21-0 here Saturday afternoon. The win marks the second successive Saturday that the Bears' defensive play held the opponent to a minus rushing.

Livingstone scored in the first period when Morris Wiggins bowled over from the two following a long dash by freshman halfback Earl Thompson. Abram kick was good and the Bears led 7-0. Later in the same period Barber intercepted a Paine pass and Morris Wiggins scooted 27 yards into the end zone. Again conversion was by placement.

In the final period Earl Thompson carried the ball 27 yards for the third Livingstone score. Extra point was made by placement and the scoring ended at 21-0.

Livingstone completely dominated the game all the way gaining 15 first downs to 5 for Paine. The Bears' passing attack was clicking as they completed 5 out of eight tries, while Paine could manage only 5 completions out of 23 attempts.

VIRGINIA BLANKS SHAW BEARS, 20-0

RALEIGH—The Trojans of Virginia State blanked Shaw's hard luck Bears here Saturday 20-0, to give the victors the un-official position of first place in the conference.

Late in the second quarter the Trojan's speedy quarterback, Bob Jeter raced sixty-five yards on a punt return for the first score.

The Bears then thrilled the rain-soaked crowd with an eighty yard drive until the Trojan defense rose to stop the Bears in this effort to score.

The Trojans struck back with a sustained drive of sixty-four yards, and Ernest Turner carried it over from the one yard line.

The Trojans scored finally in the last quarter, after being blanked in the third frame. Half-back Herbert Tobias scored on a one yard plunge to climax the thirty-two yard drive, and Turner added the conversion by plodding over tackle.

The Bears were able to complete only three of ten attempted passes for only 26 yards.

The loss gave Shaw a 1-2 conference mark, while the Trojans of Virginia State has a record of 3-0.

The 6 ft. 3 in. 217 lb. tackle, Alonzo Short was outstanding for the Trojans in the defense department.

Cracken Leads Ligon To Upset Rocky Mount

RALEIGH — William Crockett jumped off on touchdown runs of 72 and 72 yards, passed for a third and set up a fourth one on a 60 yard run in leading the Ligon's Little Blues to a 25-12 victory over a previously undefeated Booker T Washington Team from Rocky Mt. before a homecoming crowd in Raleigh's Chavis Park Friday night.

Ligon, with only a so-so record was obviously unimpressed by the Booker T press reports and played the visitors on even ground until Crockett decided to go to work.

In putting on one of the most amazing exhibitions of running seen in high school competition, he intercepted a Booker T pass to taut it all the way for a 72 yard TD and on another play dropped back to pass but unable to find a receiver, eluded several would be tacklers, came down the middle then cut to the left sidelines to chalk up another tally as a waving crowd came to its feet.

To complete the Ligon scoring, James Howard picked off a Crockett pass for a TD and James Stewart cracked off the right side of the Rocky Mount line for the final Ligon TD. Stewart also ran over the PAT to make it 26 for Raleigh.

Rocky Mount finally pushed over two touchdowns in the last period to avoid being shut out. The vaunted running attack that the visitors was supposed to have never materialized and once was behind, the Dave Atkinson-tutored team could never get rolling.

The outstanding play of Louis Powell, Staley Keith, Wade McClain, Bennie Mims, Elbert Laws on the line and Roy Crowder and Leonard Wiggins in the line backer spots kept the Booker T team well in check until the game was sewed up.

THIS WEEK'S FOOTBALL GAMES

SATURDAY, OCT. 15
Maryland vs. N. C. A&T, at Princess Anne, Md.
J. C. Smith vs. Delaware, at Dover, Del.
Shaw vs. Elizabeth City, at Raleigh.
N. C. College vs. Virginia State, at Petersburg, Va.
Fayetteville vs. Hampton, at Hampton, Va.
S. C. State vs. Tennessee State, at Nashville, Tenn.
Albany vs. Paine, at Albany, Ga.
Benedict vs. Bethune-Cookman, at Columbia, S. C.
Howard vs. Morgan, at Baltimore, Md.
Bishop vs. Miss. Industrial, at Holly Springs, Mis.

Mitchell Engineers A & T Rally to Defeat S. C. State 36-22 In High Scoring Inter-Loop Tilt

GREENSBORO — Hard pressed for most of the first half, the A&T College Aggies rallied to whip the South Carolina State College Bulldogs, 36-22, in an inter-sectional football scrap here at Memorial Stadium.

After spotting the South Carolinians a 14-6, lead, the Greensboro club unleashed a passing attack which paved the way for the victory. Prim mover in the aerial attack was big Jim Mitchell, 6-2, 185, quarterback, whose earlier ground assault had sputtered. He tossed scoring passes to Joe Taylor for 4 yards and to Charles Stiggers for 29 yards, set up a third with a 23 yard heave to Robert Faulkner and scored a touchdown with a 1-yard sneak.

His replacement, Johnnie Thomas, kept the drive going with a blistering 62 yard touchdown on the end of a pass interception.

The largest crowd of the season, estimated at 12,000, was swelled by nearly 8,000 school boys and girls who saw this game as guests of the college on High School Senior Day.

The South Carolinians scored in the first three minutes of the game as Mel Galloway heaved to Owen Perkins for 23 yards. The score was set up by a previous pass play of 43 yards from Johnnie Edwards to Bill Houston. Galloway passed to Perkins for the extra point.

The Aggies capitalized on a break to score their first TD. Cal Lang covered a bobble by Galloway on the South Carolina State 38. A 22-yard pass from Mitchell to Gene Cambridge to the S. C. State 6 set the stage for an end zone toss from Mitchell to Joe Taylor. Mitchell's pass attempt to Taylor for the extra points was out of reach, leaving the score at 8-6, South Carolina.

The Bulldogs widened the gap moments later as Galloway sneaked over from the one yard line, climaxing a 54-yard drive. The key play leading to the TD was a 29-yard pass play from Edwards to Gus Meyers to the Aggie 15. The score came four plays later. Galloway's pass for the extra points was short.

The Aggies tied up the ball game with a 34-yard pass play from Mitchell to Charles Stiggers. The score came on the end of a 72-yard drive which featured a 34-yard pass from Mitchell to Cambridge which carried to the S. C. 34. Mitchell passed to Paul Brown for the extra points to tie the contest at 14-14.

With just seconds left in the half the Aggies went ahead for good as Mitchell sneaked over from the 1 yard line. Jim Black had covered a South Carolina fumble on the State 21-yard line following a five yard penalty against A&T. Mitchell passed to Bob Faulkner for 23 yards to the State 3. Two plays later the Aggies had gone ahead, 20-14. Cambridge split the uprights for the 21-14 bulge.

Before the fans had comfortably seated themselves for the second half, the Aggies had scored again. Johnnie Thomas, who had been inserted at the quarterback spot intercepted a South Carolina pass, on his own 68-yard line and scampered through the entire State defense for the remaining 62 yards. The kick by Cambridge was wide.

The Aggies scored the fifth TD as Bateman Jones blasted off tackle for 18 yards. The play climaxed a 54-yard drive engineered by freshman quarterback, Cornell Gordon, who picked up 23 yards in the series on a bootleg play. Cambridge kicked the extra point.

A safety was chalked for the Aggies in the fourth period as the snap from South Carolina center, Ike Arnold sailed over the head of Galloway into the end zone, to give the winners a 36-14 lead.

South Carolina concluded the scoring as Wendell Tucker intercepted a pass by Gordon on the Aggie 40-yard line and ran over for the TD. Ozzie Cunningham passed to Manuc Caldwell for the extra points.

Hillside Faces Raleigh In Supreme Test

Hillside High school's undefeated football team will meet its supreme test of the season Friday night when the Hornets journey over to Raleigh to do battle with ancient foe Ligon High.

The game has all of the ingredients of a real thriller. Hillside is on the crest of a five game winning wave, having topped a tough Wilmington squad 22-0 Friday in Durham.

The pressure will be on coach Russell Blunt's Hornets, for this is a "must" game for the Hillside if they want another shot at the state title.

The Hornets have to face Rocky Mount and New Bern in successive outings after the Raleigh game.

On the other hand, coach Pete Williams' Little Blues aren't going anywhere in particular this season. They were saddled with early season setbacks, and have only a so-so record so far.

But past records have had little bearing in the Hillside-Ligon series.

Besides, the Little Blues, who need no extra incentive to put out against Hillside, have one this year. Last season, Hillside embarrassed the Raleigh team twice, beating them once in a regular season game and again in a post-season match. The last loss kept the Blues from the Eastern District Championship.

The Raleigh team has proven itself capable of handling the role of "spoiler". Last Friday, for instance, it derailed a highly regarded Rocky Mount team, 25-12. The Little Blues shut out the easterners until the final moments of the game.

The game between the two arch-rivals shapes up to be a battle between explosive offenses. Raleigh has two of the finest running backs in the state in Manuel Crockett and David Stewart. Crockett's three long gallops set up the victory over Rocky Mount.

Hillside has relied largely on the running of several halfbacks, led by Charles Wall, James Black, "Doc" Holliday, Albert Daniels and Herman Graham.

Wauna (Butch) Dooms, Jr., and Levi Dawson have been alternating at running the team from the quarterback post. It was Dooms who engineered the victory over Wilmington in Durham last Friday.

He broke open a closely contested struggle with two long scoring passes, the first for 55 yards to end Leon Fowler in the second quarter and the second for 42 yards to Wall.

Nathaniel Thompson scored the last touchdown on a two yard drive. Wall ran for two points after second score, and Graham tallied two with a jaunt after the final TD.

Friday night's game in Raleigh is at Chavis Park at 8:00 o'clock.

Fayetteville Defeats St. Paul's By 14-0 Count

FAYETTEVILLE—Paced by the sterling play of "Big" James Herbert, Johnny Largent, and James Norman, the win-conscious Bronco outfit struck decisively in the 3rd frame for 14 markers and then inside them stick for a 14-0 win, their second victory in as many starts.

The first period rocked along on an even-temper basis to a scoreless stalemate, each team feeling the other out. When they could make no head-way through the Bronco line, the Virginia "Tigers" took to the air but to no avail. The first period was destined to end in a scoreless deadlock.

In the third frame, however, the fireworks exploded. Beginning a sustained drive on the 40 yard stripe, with Jas. Noorman, Thomas Rawley and James Herbert alternating put the leather on the 35. Then Watson picked up twenty-five yards around left end and a Holt to Johnny Largent pass resulted in the Broncos first TD. The extra point was wide.

Five plays later "Big" James Herbert smashed over from the two yard line for a score and Quarterback Roy Holt ran the extra point to end the scoring for the evening.

The visitors muffed their big chance to score when a fumble on the two-yard line brought their effort to nothing.

FAN REACTION — The above photo reflects the mood of the North Carolina College side of the sands last Saturday when the Eagles of NCC ran roughshod over the Falcons of St. Augustine's College 22-0 in Durham. As Bobby Gardner, a freshman from Raleigh, pounded on the pigskin in the end zone for N. C. C.'s final tally (the result of a blocked punt), merriment spread across the faces of Eagle rooters and pretty fresh co-ed Phyllis Hawkins of Maxton turned to the photographer as she rapped her approval. Foster Foto.

North Carolina College's Big Forwards Block Three St. Augustine's Punts To Give Eagles 22-0 Victory

By JOHN A. HOLLEY

North Carolina College's spinting defense was at its best on the rain soaked O'Kelly Field turf as the Eagles held St. Augustine's College in check and personally accounted for two of the Eagles' touchdowns and set up the third one, leading the NCC eleven to 22-0 win over the Falcons.

The win over the Raleigh crew was the third of the season for the Eagles and their first in CIAA circles.

The Eagles hard-hitting "sizable seven" set up the first touchdown for the NCC club after a scoreless first quarter when Bob Currington, a Durham soph, zoomed in from his flank position and blocked Bobby Headen's punt off his foot. Currington held onto the pigskin, giving the Eagles possession at the Falcons' seven yard line.

At this point the NCC fullback, Ray Nobles, the top ground gainer in the game with 39 yards in 10 carries, took charge and crashed the Falcons' middle for the TD after two carries. Nobles bowled over on the second attempt from the 4 yard line. Reggie Pryor's conversion kick was wide as the wet ball skidded from Rich Hicks' hands.

After exchanging possession of the ball, NCC struck again with the Falcons' buried deep in their own territory. This time, behemoth Nick Jeralds, a 250-pound tackle, blocked Headen's punt at the 2 yard stripe. The ball skidded around in the end zone as Bishop Harris, a defensive halfback, picked it up for the tally.

On this conversion, Pryor elected to play it safe and gave the ball to Rossie Barfield, his halfback, and Barfield rolled off his right tackle for the two-pointer, opening up a 14-0 lead for the Eagles at halftime.

In the third quarter, with the second unit in, and as begrudging at the Eagles, regular line, NCC pinned the Falcons deep once again, forcing them to punt from their own 1 yard line.

"Big Elmo" McMillian, a 295-pound tackle from Fayetteville, slipped by the Falcons' blockers to block Headen's punt which rolled in the end zone. Bobby Gardner, a freshman from Raleigh starting in his first game for the Eagles, pounced on the bouncing pigskin in the end zone for the Eagles' third tally.

Hicks at the helm, elected to keep on the conversion, and circled around his right side for the 2-point tally, putting the Eagles comfortably ahead by a 22-0 margin.

Played on a wet and muddy field, the game was all defense, and all North Carolina College in that respect. The Eagles held the Falcons to a minus 29 yards on the ground, blocking three punts and recovering two St. Augustine's fumbles.

The Eagles meet Virginia State College in their next encounter on October 15 at Petersburg, Va.

Morehouse Beats Hampton, 12-7

PORTSMOUTH, Va. — Penalty-laden Morehouse College of Atlanta, Ga., drove 73 yards in 16 plays for a third-quarter touchdown that consumed 24 yards to defeat Hampton Institute, 12-7, in the 13th annual Fish Bowl classic before some 5,000 umbrella-clad City Stadium fans in Portsmouth Saturday night, Oct. 8.

Trailing, 7-6, the Georgians advanced to the HI six with about three minutes to play in the third period, when they were thrown back three yards on a running try 15 yards on a holding infraction. Quarterback Isaac Coats then passed for a 24-yard scoring play to end Alvin King for the victory-making score.

The Pirates' last chance to salvage victory fizzed on the 23 with about five minutes to play.

Morehouse, which was cited by the officials 13 times for a total of 155 yards of penalties, scored first on a four-yard run by Taft McCoy. Hampton countered with another second-quarter score when halfback Willie Holland skirted left end from seven yards out. Alvin Walker's kick gave the Fighting Pirates a 7-6 lead.

Hampton, which has now lost two of three games, plays the initial game in its home stadium Saturday, Oct. 15 against Fayetteville (N. C.) State College.

Attles Making Good With Philadelphia

GREENSBORO—Al Attles, a basketball hero from A&T College, is reportedly making good with the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association.

Sandy Grade, sports writer for a Philadelphia daily (Bulletin) wrote in his column on September 30, "Best looking rookie in the Warrior camp is Al Attles, a fierce-driving backcourt lad who did his apprenticeship at North Carolina A&T."

THINKING OF... TRADING YOUR CAR?

SAMUEL SCOTT

Let Samuel Scott, your neighborhood Elkins Motor Co. salesman talk it over with you. He can show you how to get the most for your money in Chrysler automobile values. He'll also deliver to your home any of the new Valiant, Plymouth, Dodge, DeSoto, Chrysler or Imperial models for a free demonstration. Just call 2-8479 and make an appointment for any evening or Sunday.

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL GAME

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

SHAW UNIVERSITY BEARS

VS.

NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE

SAT. OCT. 29 Chavis Park
Raleigh, N. C.
Kick-off 2 p. m.

★ Gala Halftime Show & Pre-Game Parade ★ Alumni Activities ★ Queens

ADMISSION: $2.00 STUDENTS $1.00

FLEISCHMANN'S VODKA

$3.15 4/5 Quart $2.00 Pint

80 PROOF • DISTILLED FROM 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS
THE FLEISCHMANN DISTILLING CORP., NEW YORK CITY