Mrs. Selena Wheeler was hostess to the Merry Wives Bridge Club at the group's annual Christmas party. The house was beautifully decorated for the Christmas season. On each bridge table was a small, decorated tree. Before play began, Mrs. Wheeler served a delicious dinner. At the end of the game, guests were invited into the dining room for coffee and fruit cake. Members of the club are Mesdames Josephine Clement, Olivia Cole, Reba Davis, Alice Farrison, Plassie Harris, Sadie Hughley, Thelma Perry, Emma Randolph, Lola Riddick, Fannie Robinson, Jcselyn Stevenson, Frances Schooler and Selena Wheeler.

MRS. WRIGHT ENTERTAINS JUMS.
The JUMS held a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Anne Wright on Dupree street. Foods brought by various members made quite a festive spread with all the Christmas trimmings. Along with plenty of good food, bridge and dancing were the order of the day.

OMEGAS ENTERTAIN WIVES, SWEETHEARTS
The Beta Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi fraternity entertained their wives and sweethearts at the Algonquin club with a Christmas party. An abundance of good food, fellowship and dancing was everywhere in evidence.

Some of those enjoying the affair were the Bill Persons, Lankie Coles, D. B. Cookes, Ruebin Westens, Gerald Underwoods, Henry Gillises, George Coxes, Ben Smith, Gillises, Geo. Coxes, Ben Smiths, V. Allison, C. D. Grandys, W. A. Marshes, C. C. Spauldings, Jr., Howard Wrights, and the J. H. Taylors.

NCNW IN MONTHLY SESSION WITH MRS. R. N. HARRIS
National Council of Negro Women met at the home of Mrs. R. N. Harris, at 409 Formosa Avenue, for their December meeting, with Mesdames Plassie Harris, Ray Moore and Emma Randolph serving as hostesses.

The president, Mrs. Adeline Spaulding, presided. After the opening of the meeting the President made remarks complementary to members on the local council's accomplishments for 1960. Planning for 1961 was begun with the setting forth of immediate functional committees. Attention was called to the fact that Brotherhood Week is the next community effort for the local council to look forward to. Mrs. Lu Sybil Taylor, program chairman, was advised to begin work at once on Brotherhood Week and have plans ready for the next meeting of the council.

MARRIAGE REVEALED — Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Davis, of 1105 South Aiston avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter Miss Minnie C. Davis to Benjamin Dixon. The ceremony took place in October, and the newlyweds are making their home in Washington D. C.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HARRELL, JR.

Miss Juanita Gregory and John Harrell, Jr. are Married in Washington, D. C. Wedding Event

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Chapel of Shiloh Baptist Church provided a beautiful setting for a Saturday afternoon wedding at which Juanita Conesther Gregory, daughter of Mrs. Esther C. Haskins, recently became the bride of John Harrell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrell, Sr., Vincennes, Ind.

The impressive double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Earl L. Harrison, pastor of the church. Musical soloists were James Gregory, soloist, and Clay Houston, organist.

Witnessed in marriage by her guardian, John E. Stewart, the bride wore a full-length gown of white Algonquin lace and taffeta fashioned with extended waistline from which the bouffant skirt fell into a chapel-length train. The bodice featured a scoop neckline and long pointed sleeves. The wedding frock was highlighted with a shoulder-length white tulle veil. Miss Gregory carried a small white Bible topped with a single white orchid.

Mrs. Willa Lichtensteiger was her sister's only attendant. She was featured in a baby blue dress of nylon with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mothers of the couple chose blue lace dresses with matching accessories. To complete their outfit they were adorned with laven-der orchid corsages.

The bridegroom was dressed in gray striped trousers with matching a roller jacket. His father, similarly attired, served as best man. Ushers were Eugene Wilson and William Penn.

The bride, a native of Durham, North Carolina, is a graduate of North Carolina College and Ohio State University. She is a former business instructor of Southern University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Currently she is employed with a public relations firm in Washington, D. C.

A graduate of Florida A&M University, the bridegroom is an employee of Radio Corporation of America.

MR. AND MRS. L. C. PIERSAWL

Miss Curry and Piersawl Repeat Vows In Late November Wedding

St. Joseph's AME Church was the scene in late November of the wedding of Miss Billie Marie Curry and Lloyd Calvin Piersawl.

The Rev. Melvin C. Swann, pastor of St. Joseph's, performed the ceremony. Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Katie Smith, soloist, and Mrs. Minnie Gilmer at the organ.

The church was decorated with a floral arrangement of white gladioli and baby's breath flanking candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of imported silk peau de soie fashioned with a long fitted bodice. The Sabrina neckline was outlined in re-embroidered lace and sequins. The gown featured long fitted sleeves that come to catla points over the hands. The full skirt had charmingly lace above the hemline that extended into a court train.

Her head dress of pure silk illusion fell softly from a tiara of matching lace and pearls. She carried a prayer book of white satin showered with ribbons and valley lillies and topped with a white orchid.

Miss Carolyn Martin was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of emerald green taffeta and velveteen. It was designed on a princess lines with a scooped neckline, abbreviated sleeves, full skirt with a wide panel of matching velveteen down the center front.

Her head dress and shoes were in matching colors. She carried a bouquet of gold and green carnations. The bridesmaids dresses were identical to that of the honor attendant.

The bride was the recipient of many and varied social courtesies before and after the ceremony. Among these were a shower by Mrs. Theola Martin and her daughter Carolyn; a luncheon for the bridal party and out-of-town guests given by Mrs. Madge Turner and Mrs. Margaret Allen; a cocktail party for the bridal party given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edwards; wedding breakfast by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scarborough, Jr. and a rehearsal party given by the parents of the bride; and numerous dinner dates.

The couple left immediately following the reception for a honeymoon to Honeymoon Lodge in New York state.

For traveling, the bride wore a Dior original suit dress of black mood imported silk crepe with fox collar, and a white fur hat. She lifted the white orchid from her prayer book to complete the costume.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Curry, of 509 Simmons St. She is a graduate of Hillside high school and received a bachelor's degree from Howard University in June.

Piersawl is the son of U. S. Air Force Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harry T. Piersawl, of Cincinnati, Ohio. He is also a member of U. S. Air Force.

The couple is now at home in Caribou, Maine.
