Expert on Negro's Role in Labor To Speak to NAACP Youth Rally

PROPOSES ANOTHER FIRST—Danville businessman James W. Peters petitioned Carolina League owners recently to permit him to enter a team in the six team class B baseball league. Peters' proposal, which has not been acted upon by League officials, would provide for the first team with Negro ownership in the league. The players' color bar was broken several years ago when Major League parent clubs began signing Negro players to the league.

An expert on the Negro's historical role in the organized labor movement will address an NAACP rally in Durham Sunday afternoon.

He is Herbert Hill, NAACP Labor Secretary, and author of numerous pieces of research on the subject of Negroes and their part in the American labor movement. Hill will address a meeting sponsored by the youth branch of the Durham NAACP at St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church at 3:30 p.m.

The young NAACP officer started his career in the trade union movement as an organizer for United Steelworkers Union. From this experience became interested in the plight of minority group workers in the American labor movement.

His activities have led him to do considerable research in this area. He spent several years, for instance, on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts, where he conducted investigations of the migratory farm labor system.

As a result of his studies on the problem, the NAACP sponsored several pieces of remedial legislation. See HILL, page 2-A.

Sherrill, executive secretary of the State Baptist Convention, was elected a vice-president of the North Carolina Council of Churches at the organization's annual meeting in Raleigh this week. FRANK REEVES

Washington Attorney Frank Reeves is Appointed Special Assistant to President John F. Kennedy

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Frank D. Reeves, Democratic National Committeeman for the District of Columbia, has been appointed by President Kennedy to be a special Presidential assistant.

He has long been active in Democratic politics, serving in 1952 and 1956 on Governor Stevenson's Presidential campaign staffs. Reeves seconded Senator Kennedy's nomination and travelled with him throughout the campaign.

In May 1960 he was elected Democratic National Committeeman for the District of Columbia, becoming the first Negro to hold that position. Mr. Reeves is Washington representative for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and since 1948 has served as a member of the National Legal Committee of the NAACP. Earlier, from 1940 to 1942, he was assistant to Thurgood Marshall, special counsel for the NAACP.

Reeves, 44, was born in Montreal, Canada, and came to the District of Columbia in 1928. He graduated cum laude from Howard University in 1936 and received his law degree from there in 1939. He has served on the staff of the University's law school at various periods since 1943.

In 1954 he entered private practice, and is currently senior law partner in the firm of Reeves, Robinson and Duncan. During the past two years he has served as council for desegregation cases in Northern Virginia.

Reeves is married to Dr. Elizabeth W. Reeves, a member of the faculty at D. C. Teachers College. They have two children—Deborah, 7, and Daniel, 5.

Protest To Go On, Says Leader

Picketing of two Durham theaters continued this week despite the fact that one of the theaters closed its Negro balcony.

Charles Lewis, manager of the Center theater, announced early this week that the balcony seats, reserved for Negroes, were closed at that theater Sunday.

Lewis said the facilities were closed because of the "obvious fact that our separate facilities are no longer acceptable to many, and what we believe a majority."

He did not say that Negroes would be accommodated at the downstairs auditorium.

Picket lines were formed in front of the Center and Carolina theaters on Monday and Tuesday.

A spokesman for the students had said last week that the picket would continue in the event of the closing of the balconies for Negroes at the two theaters.

"We're not picketing to go to the balconies. We're picketing to use any entrance which serves the public," John Edwards, one of the student leaders said.

Picketing of theaters also started in Winston-Salem last week.

A. and T. College students had picketed Greensboro theaters several weeks ago.

BOY RECOVERING FROM PISTOL WOUND INFLICTED BY PAL

Jacob Dash, a 13 year old Merrick-Moore student, was reported in "fair" condition at Lincoln hospital this week where he is recovering from a pistol wound inflicted by a schoolmate.

Dash was injured on Sat., Jan. 21 when a .38 calibre revolver discharged, lodging a bullet in his right side.

A 15 year old school mate of the youngster admitted to authorities that the pistol was in his hands when it went off "accidentally."

Juvenile authorities reported that no disposition had been made in the incident this week.

WHITE BOYCOTT OF NEW ORLEANS SCHOOLS FALTERS, RECOVERS

NEW ORLEANS, La.—The weeks old white boycott of McDonough, 19, firm up again this week after a white family which tried to break it was forced to leave the city.

Alabama-born John N. Thompson, 33 year old Walgreen Drug Stores employee, broke the boycott briefly last week when his two sons, Gregory, 9, and Michael, 8, enrolled at the school.

But it was short-lived. Thompson was forced to yield to increasing pressure from white who supported the boycott and asked for transfer to a Walgreen's store in another town. It was granted.

His sons attended the school with three Negro children Friday, Monday and Tuesday. They were the first whites to attend the school since court ordered integration.

WERE TARHEEL CONGRESSMEN PUNISHED FOR RULES VIOLATIONS?

The failure of North Carolina's freshmen Congressmen to get the committee appointments they requested raised speculation here if they were being disciplined for their failure to go along with House Majority leader Sam Rayburn in the close vote over the Rule Committee this week.

All but one of North Carolina's Congressmen voted against Rayburn on the issue. The sole Tarheel to vote with the Democratic majority leader was William H. Bonner, of Washington.

Rayburn was the vote, but by a narrow 217-212 margin.

Rep. Horace Kornegay, was denied all of his three choices for a committee assignment. Rev. David Henderson had to settle for his second choice.

Kornegay asked for a seat on the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Foreign Affairs or Government Operations Committee. He got instead an assignment on Veterans Affairs.

There were no openings on Commerce or Government Operations. He failed to get enough votes for Foreign Affairs.

Henderson received his second choice, a spot on the Post Office and Civil Service Committee. He asked for Banking and Currency.

ROWAN'S APPOINTMENT MEETS WITH FAVOR

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Appointment of Carl T. Rowan, of the Minneapolis Tribune, as Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs, was warmly received by leading Negro organizations this week.

Body of Slain Woman Found; Suspect Hunted

Durham police were still searching at mid-week for the suspected slayer of a woman whose body was found by a curious neighbor here Monday.

Detective J. T. Lynn told the TIMES this week that Durham police had no leads on the whereabouts of Buster Orange, Jr., alias Elijah Bass, Jr., chief suspect in the slaying.

Detective Frank McCrae and Clyde Cox, who are handling the investigation, were in Baltimore to pick up a suspect in another homicide.

Lynn revealed that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been called in to assist in the hunt for Orange.

Police theorize that Orange left the city shortly after the slaying of Miss Mary Lee Jones.

Miss Jones' body was discovered Monday lying on the floor of a bedroom in a duplex apartment at 2201 1/2 Otis street.

Sheriff Jennis Mangum said the woman's body was lying face down on the floor of a bedroom in the apartment when it was found.

A bullet hole was found in the upper left side of her chest. The slug, which passed through her body and came out of her back, was found lying along side the body.

A butcher knife, which police said were free of fingerprints, was found in her right hand.

Authorities theorized that it had been place there to make the incident appear to look like a case of self defense.

Progress In Many Areas Noted By CONA

Progress on several fronts by Negroes of Durham was noted in the annual report of various subcommittees at the annual meeting of the Durham Committee on Negro Affairs, Sunday.

Among the most dramatic was announcement of progress in securing enlarging employment opportunities for Durham Negroes in "non traditional areas."

Attorney F. B. McKissick, who made the report of the Economics subcommittee, pointed out that at least four department stores, all of the major bottling firms and several factories had broken the barrier in employment of Negroes.

He said four downtown stores employed Negro women as sales clerks during the holiday season. See CONA, page 2-A

NO ONE REMEMBERED

There were no winners in the "Do You Remember" contest for the third straight time this week, although two entrants came close.

Mrs. Marie Anderson, of Greenville, S. C., and George Latham, of Charlotte, identified two of the three scenes correctly but failed on the third.

They were the only contestants to get more than one scene correct.

There were several who correctly identified at least one scene.

"Do You Remember" is a new feature testing the memories of TIMES readers. Each week, several pictures of incidents which have been published in the past in the TIMES are printed.

The first three readers who can identify correctly all of the scenes appearing will receive a $1 bill. Entries need not identify individuals appearing in the pictures, only the scenes themselves.

In case of ties, the three earliest postmarks of the winning entries will be chosen.

Three more scenes from yesterday appear on page 5-B of this week's paper.
