CAROLYN'S CHATTERBOX

(TEENAGE HAPPENINGS)

By CAROLYN MCGHEE

Wonder just how it will be. Will we do "The Hiss and Gossip Co." will we decide to be "Wanted" the "Shimmy" or will we just sit and "Think." But since we are each other only "Three Nights a Week," I am sure we can find something to do. But "Say Man," "Hold It" just "Wait A Minute." Let me tell you "Everytime" I opened through the door "At The Top" last night I saw "Patricia and John" standing in the corner. John was trying to tell Pat that he loved her, but she kept saying "Gee Whiz" man "Cut The Chatter" and I just looked at her and said "Ain't That A Shame" and then I saw Rebecca and Clyde. Clyde was trying to tell her that "Last Night I Dreamed" that we were married, and she looked up and laughed out "Ha," its "All In Your Mind," "Buddy."

Well kids we really miss you. See you later on a brand new show.

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY
Our deepest sympathy is extended to Nellie Harris and her family over the death of her father.

To Flora Faison and her family over the death of her father.

To Billie Young and her family over the death of his father.

And to Mr. Herbert Gray (Math teacher at Hillside) and his family.

REV. YARBOROUGH

New Pastor For Lincoln Memorial

The Rev. Walter Yarborough, Franklin County native, has accepted the pastorate of the Lincoln Memorial Baptist Church, it was revealed this week.

The Rev. Yarborough replaces the Rev. Eli B. Thompson, who was forced to give up the church's pulpit because of illness.

The new minister of Lincoln Memorial is a native of Franklin County, and the son of Mrs. Annie Bell Yarborough and the late General Yarborough.

He is a graduate of Albion Academy, of Franklinton, and received a B.S. degree from Allen University and Shaw University.

The Rev. Yarborough is a member of the Middle Baptist Association, of North Carolina, and Phi Beta Sigma fraternity.

His wife is Mrs. Mary Yarborough.

He will retain his pastorate of Nut Bush Baptist, of Henderson, while serving Lincoln Memorial.

Installation services for the new Lincoln Memorial pastor will be held Sunday night, March 19 at 7:00 p.m. Main speaker for the event will be the Rev. James Stewart, moderator of the New Hope Baptist Association.

Lincoln Memorial is located at the corner of Proctor and Mangum streets.

Why Are LOW PROFILE FISK PREMIERS SAFE SHAPE Tires?

ORDINARY TIRE

LOW PROFILE TIRES

P.C.P.— Pressure Cooled Process

... Supports Your Car on a Vertical Column of Air. ... Supports Your Car on a More Stable Horizontal Column of Air.

Low Profile Fisk Premiers are actually built lower and wider... shaped closer to the way they will run on your car... they don't have to bend as much as conventional tires to conform as they roll over the road. In other words, there is less flexing action.
