Revival Series To Be Held at First Calvary
First Calvary Baptist Church will have an old fashioned revival service beginning Monday evening.

The evening service, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. each evening, will be conducted by the Reverend Z. D. Harris, pastor of the Freewill Baptist Church of the city.

Reverend Harris, who succeeded the late Reverend Cox as pastor of the local church, has served as pastor of the church for three years, during which time he has made rapid progress.

In civic and religious circles, he has become well known. He is one of the contributing factors in the progress of our city.

In the Ministerial Alliance of the city and vicinity, he has served excellently as Vice president in the absence of the President, Dr. Speaks, who is in school.

Music during the week will be furnished by the various musical groups of the church. The public is invited to attend.
