unusual step of declaring that the university is at once enjoined from doing anything to prevent enforcement of the Circuit Court's judgement in favor of Meredith.
With the Supreme Court now in summer recess, Black noted he had consulted with other members of the high court on his decision.
"I am authorized to state," he said, "that each of them agrees that this case is properly before this court, that I have power to act, and that under the circumstances I should exercise that power as I have done here."

NAACP FAMILY — An entire family of NAACP supporters. The Philyaw Family recently returned from Atlanta, Ga., where they attended the NAACP Convention.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Mrs. Hattie B. Woodard King wishes to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindness, flowers, and sincere words of sympathy during our bereavement.
Rev. J. T. King
