MR. AND MRS. JAMES ISAAC, JR.

Miss Annie Mae Boone Becomes Bride of James Issac, Jr. Sept. 1

Rev. Edgar Thompson, pastor of Community Baptist Church, heard the vows spoken between Miss Annie Mae Boone and James Issac Jr. on Saturday evening, September 1, at the New Bethel Baptist Church in Durham.

Mrs. Inez Vickers presented organ music for the ceremony and Robert Patterson was soloist.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Dickerson Hall, the bride wore a former gown of pure silk organza. The fitted bodice was designed with a circular neckline outlined with lace. The dress was designed with long fitted sleeves and a voluminous skirt extending into a chapel train. Her headpiece was a veil of silk illusion attached to a coronet of seed pearls.

Miss Carolyn McCauley, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a champagne dress of sheer nylon over taffeta with matching shoes and gloves and carried a cascade of yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara McCauley, Mrs. Pecolla Boone,

Miss Faydear Johnson, and Miss Glancy Price. They were dressed like the maid of honor in dresses of pastel colors.

Richard Steele was best man. Ushers were Robert Woods, Alonzo Vickers, Johnny Seutlock, and Charles Carrington.

Wilbert Johnson was ring bearer and Gale Patterson and Lorreanne Glover were flower maidens.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Boone wore a dress of green lace with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Hostess were Mrs. Rachel Beatty, Miss Luvernia Moore, Mrs. Susie Walker, Mrs. Inez Vickers, Mrs. Osa Johnson and Mrs. Ora Baylock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boone of Corburn St. She is a graduate of Hillside High School and attended North Carolina College.

Mr. Issac is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Issac of Baltimore, Md.

Hampton's Hollands Launch Fall Social Season With Wedding

HAMPTON, Va. — Tidewater's fall social season was begun and highlighted Saturday by the bridal reception of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernard Holland at Hampton Institute's Katharine House. She is the former Miss Michael Lynne Moses, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Moses of Hampton Institute. He is the son of Mrs. William Lynk of Cheriton, Va. and the late Frank Bernard Holland Sr.

Wed earlier Saturday in a family ceremony at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. T. A. Reynolds of Newport News, Virginia, the couple received guests in a setting of palms, white gladioli, carnations and tiny chapel bells. Focal point of the decore was a trio of graduated miniature pools of water, set among palms.

Joining the couple in the receiving line were their parents and Miss Mignon Holland, sister of the groom. At the wedding ceremony Miss Grace Jones of Petersburg, Va., served as her former roommate's maid of honor. Rodney Williams of Philadelphia was best man.

Gifts were received and registered by Mrs. Hale Thompson of Hampton, and Mrs. James Alston of Hampton Institute. Assisting the bride were Mrs. Juanita Thom as and Mrs. W. S. Hart, both of Hampton; Mrs. James Griffin, Mrs. J. Saunders Redding, and Mrs. Martin Bolton, all of Hampton Institute. Other senior hostesses included Mrs. E. Wilson, Miss Frances Anthony, and Mrs. Clarence Smith, all of Hampton, Mrs. Mac Barboe Boone, and Mrs. Thomas E. Hawkins, both of the college.

Serving as junior hostesses were Miss Letitia Lewis of Hampton Institute and Washington, D. C., Miss Carmelita Alston of Hampton Institute, Misses Shirley Thomas, Mona Wilson, Carol Ann Whiting, of Hampton.

The bride has studied in Germany and attended Howard University. She was presented during the 1959-'60 debutante season by the Bachelor Benedict Club on the Peninsula and by the Girl Friends Inc. in Washington. She is currently with the J. Walter Thompson advertising agency of New York.

Mr. Holland attended Lincoln University and is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. He expects to enter City College of New York in the fall.

After a honeymoon stay at the Williamsburg, Inn, Williamsburg, Va., the couple will reside in New York.

Mrs. McKinnie is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Fashion Fair Takes Oriental Theme

The third annual showing of EBONY FASHION FAIR takes on an exotic air with bright hues and rich silks imported from Hong Kong and Tokyo. The director collected fashions and fabrics from houses in Japan, China and Hawaii. The show is highly colorful and exciting, even the jewelry and shoes have the color combination of the mysterious East.

There will be outstanding collections from famous designers such as Eleanora Garnett, Enzo of Milano, Schubert and Fabiani of Italy, Christian Dior, Nina Ricci and Jacques Heim of France. From the U. S. A., fabulous gowns, coats, suits, casual and lounging apparel will be seen. For the male, he will be able to see the latest in sportswear, formal attire and everyday outfits. A new feature of the show is the beach wear, of outstanding play clothes and swim.

EBONY is bringing ten beautiful models for the showing of the clothes in Durham, by Alpha Zeta Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority at Hillside High School auditorium on Wednesday, October 17, at 8 p. m. Proceeds will go to benefit the sorority's scholarship fund and Lincoln hospital. You may contact any member of the group for a ticket or call 682-1495.

Our ticket chairman, Mrs. Frank Burnett, indicated ticket sales are well past expectations and the affair is assured of capacity attendance.
