Nominations Entered For 23 In Holy Land Contest AMBUSHED MAN CRIPPLED

RENOVATE TO REMOVE JIM CROW-These scenes taken of the Royal Ice Cream Co. in Durm shew workmen busy on a renevation preject which will eliminate the firms segregated serving facilities. The exterior is from the interior showing scene at too shows work at the wall from which equipment was right which will close the old moved in the main dining area "Colored" entrance, and remove The equipment will be moved to "White Only" signs from center the former "Colored" section of and leit entrances. Bottom scene | the establishment.

Durham Firm Removing Jim Crow Serving Area

Progress Noted by Leaders of Boycott Against Durham Stores An organized boycoft of select five stores and been removed from serving room at its retail store.

ed downtown Durham stores en the original list and indicated that torred its second week with reports two others might possibly be closing up the forme. y all Negro of progress from leaders of the stricken soon Removed from the boycott list

Spokesman for the Durham and given approval by the CORE entrance signs from the building, assistance to aid school districts Youth NAACP and CORE announ and NAACP groups were the fol-cod late Wednesday that at least Sce BOYCOTT, 6-A Wednesday that at least

Voting to Begin for Ministers Next Week; Big Field Predicted

NAACP and CORE officials, A total of 23 ministers had been are a free airplane round trip admitted they had received re nominated at press time Thursday to Bermuda as the second prize ports of the renovations, said they for the Second Annual Ministers and a free airplane round trip to had not yet taken any official Vacation Popularity Contest of the Bormuda as the second prize and action on the move. They said Carolina Times. With one more a free airplane round trio to New they would wait until the renoweek to go before the actual vot-ing begins on March 16 all indi-percent commission will be raid nouncing their stand on the firm. cations are that by that time some 50 or more ministers will be in the race for the big grand prize won by the Rev. J. A. Brown of firm in the past several weeks which is a free airplane round Durham who reported a most in-and had been picketing the estab trip to the Holy Land with stop tcresting and informative trip. trip to the Holy Land with stop tcresting and overs in Rome, Jerusalem and The other two prizes acre won by renevations. other points of interest to star Rev. W. L. Williams of Weldon and Rev. Melvin Cnester Jwain, atlack since 1957 because of its addition to the Holy Land of Durham, respectively. round trip two other prizes will As the time nears for the vot- store, located at Powed and Rox-be at stake in the contest. They See CONTEST. 8-A segregated serving facilities. The of next week

ers.

novations to remove the "colored"

first civil rights message Congress, NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins noted serious omissions which weakened the message's overall impact. The message, sent to the Congress on Feb. 23, called for new legislation to facilities voting rights of southern Negroes whe under present laws, face long delays in securing this right pending court action, as well as discriminatory application of registration tests. It also asked

VOLUME 40 - No. 10

NAACP SAYS

JFK Message

On C-R Left

Serious Gaps

for acceptance of completion of the six grades as evidence of literacy. Adoption of these proposals Durham retail and wholesale a burnam retain and whoreshe teracy. dairy products firm which has Adoption of these proposals, been under soige by Near, action willeins pointed out, "would groups because of segregation in appreciably accelerate the voter its facilities, this week began r. registration drive now being nducted in the South by the NAACP and other organiza-Workmen were busy at micheck tic Prominent Businessman Enters recommended by Also dining room at the store and re President were "a program of moving the 'Colored' and 'White Federal technical and financial The store closed for repairs carly this week, and Joseph Coletta, See JFK MESSAGE, 2-A owner, said he hoped renovation would be complete by the middle Coletta said that after the renovations, there wo ld be only one serving room for all custom-

> BISHOP BUNTON New Bishop of CME Church to

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDCED"

RETURN REQUESTED

DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 1963

hanker, is shown here with Commerce Secretary, Luther Hodges as Wheeler was "briefed" for his assignment as United States delegate at "America Day" ceremonies on

The United States exhibition, entified "New Paths of Pro-gress." featured U. S. products readily adaptable to the Libyan economy. More than

Teacher Slain; Hubby's Kin Charged

70 U. S. firms from 20 states cooperated in the displays. The fair, which opened on Feb. 28. will run through March 28. Willialer pected to return to Durham on Friday, March 8.

PRICE: 15 Cents

PARHAM LAST RITES FOR

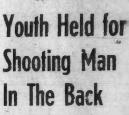

here Friday for his "outstand-WRECK VICTIM SET ing and unprecedented leadership" in guiding the Charlotte Funeral services for T. B. Paroffice of the Mechanics and Farmers Bank through its first ham, 38, a st vmill worker killed year of operation. collision between a small in a In a birthday celebration pickup truck and a school bus will Mangum is also owner of the featuring a huge cake cutting be held Saturday at Kyles Temple Evening Breeze Motel and Grill on March 1, Mayor Stanford A. M. E. Zion Church on 'unstan See LAST RITES, 2-A arch 1, Mayor S See SPEARS, 2-A

CHARLOTTE - Vice Presi dent A. E. Spears was lauded

CHAPEL HILL - An Grange County youth was arrested and charged in the ambush wounding of a 60 year old man here Satur lay night.

He is George Caldwell, 21, who was bound over in $5,000 bond on charges of assault with a deadly weapon and intent to kill.

The victum. Creamon Strown about 60, was reported at Memo rial Hospital Wednesday to be paralyzed, perhaps permanently, from the chest down. He was felled by a shot through the back late last Saturday night. Police aid Caldwell admitted shooting Stroud shorily after the incident But in Chapel Hill Recorder's Court Tuesday he would only say "he was holding his rifle when it "accidentally went off."

Trystitating Police Set. Charles Edmonds said he was called to Stroud's house at 311 Brooks St., where he found Stroud lying on his back, injured, in the kitchen, and Caldweil sitting on a table close by. He said Stroud told him that Caldwell had shot him. After Stroud was taken to the hospita! Caldwell took officers to a spot bout 100 feet in back of the house where he'd hidden his still loaded .22 automatic rifle. See AMBUSH, 6-A

Shot-gun Blast Kills Woman In Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE teran school teacher and mother of a college student was shot and killed here last week, reportedly by her husband's

The victim was Mrs. Leona S. Jackson, 48, who died at her home Thursday night of shot gun wounds.

Investigators of the tragedy reported that the wounds were inflicted by Bertram Evans, 40. a painter and cousin to the dead woman's husband.

Police reports quoted the sailant as stating that the shooting followed a drinking and an between him and argument Mrs. Jackson

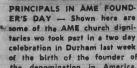

Evans was being held without privilege of bond at mid-week Jackson's husband Mrs. was See SHOT-GUN, page 6-A Race for Statesville Council STATESVILLE - T. V. Man gum, prominent iredell County businessman, is seeking a seat on the Statesville City Council in the Mangum announced his candi-dacy for the post this week. He is the only Negro so far in the race Mangum is seeking to mere the race Anniversary

Mangum is seeking to represent the Second Ward in the States ville City Council. Already his opposition includes three other men, M. J. Angell, Frank Futrell and Gaston. The new candidate is a prominent funeral home operator here and businessman. He is manager of Peterson and Mangum Funeral home here and Mangum and Fair uneral home in Salisbury.

See STATESVILLE, 6-A

Shown here are the denomination in America.

This scene was taken at St. Jofrom right. Next to him is Mrs. seph's AME Church in Durhem last week scane of the obser-vance for the Second Episcopal Greene. To the right of Mrs. Greene is Judge Mercer Mance, treasurer of the AME church and one of the key speakers dur-District. Bishop Sherman Greene presiding prelate of the ing the celebration. Second district, is shown fourth

Speak in Area

The Rt Rev. Henry C Bun on, presiding bishop of the 7th Episcopal District of the Christian Methodist Episcopal church will make his first appearance in this area since his elevation to the bishopric this week-end. The prelate will officiate at services at three churches the area on Sunday. He will be the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Lightsey, of 510 S. Alston Ave., during his stay in the area.

Bishon Bunton will deliver the main sermon at the regular 11 o'clock worship hour Sunday at the Hamlet Chapel CME Church near Pittsboro, Rev. C M. Savoy. Hamlet pastor, will be his host there.

He will travel over to Aper on Sunday afternoon to participate in ground-breaking cere-monies for the new St. Paul CME Church structure. He will assisted isted in the ccremontes See BISHOP, 2-A

FIRST BIRTHDAY - Principals in the cake-cutting marking the first anniversary of the Charlotte office of the

Mechanics and Farmers Bank

Oliver Rowe, Cherlotte Colweak's cake-cutting. Left to right: The Rev. H. Wilson, cut the cake; Charles Lowe,

Chair