

Masco Young's Notebook

FREDDIE GARNER new album called "A New Kind of Garner" is a full orchestra rendition of Erroll's score for the Paramount upcoming movie, "A New Kind of Love."

HOTTEST NEW SOUND is being given out by Freddie Scott, the Colpix Records' discovery who seems headed for fame and fortune with his scintillating waxing of "My Girl."

MARTHA AND THE VANDELAS "Heat Wave" is probably the most appropriately entitled tune now getting many spins by the deejays and plays on the juke boxes—especially when you consider the sizzling weather we've been having.

WHEN RAY CHARLES headlines the first "integrated rock 'n' soul show at Birmingham's Civic Auditorium, the estimated $20,000 in receipts went to civil rights organizations, and the package had the official blessings of Martin Luther King, the Rev. A. D. King and Birmingham's city officials.

DIONNE WARWICK, who first clicked with "Don't Make Me Over" started her career in her father's (The Rev. Elias Warwick) church in East Orange, N. J. when she was six. Dionne, 23, like Dee Dee Sharp, began by singing background music for other artists such as Tommy Hunt, Jerry Butler, the Drifters and Chuck Berry.

DOROTHY DONIZAN, busy warring with Joe Glaser's Association Booking Corporation, said "It is my understanding that when a performer doesn't work for four weeks and he or she wants to get out from under his or her booking agent, they can do so . . . just finished my time in New York City. Now I want out from ABC. Dot added that when she last saw Glaser he urged her to re-sign with his ABC. When she asked for $100,000 for the next five years Joe is said to have laughed and said he'd lend her $20,000 if she wanted it. But, said Dot, he "wanted me to mortgage my house to him. Naturally I turned it down."

EWART ARNER, who exited from Vee Jay Records in Chicago in a shake-up that also saw public relations chief Barbara Gardner and A. and R. head Bill Shepard go, was with the label eight years. Ew, one of the most successful and popular recording execs around, quit Chance Records in '60 to join Vee Jay as manager, and was named president in '61.

JUANITA HALL, whose "Chop Suey" number is one of the highlights of the T-Birds' "Flower Drum Song" in Las Vegas, will book her gospel singers in a Vegas lounge later this year.

WHEN MILITANT CECIL B. MOORE, head of the Philly NAACP, went to his West Virginia home state and spoke at the Huntington, W. Va. NAACP's Freedom Fund Rally at his Douglass High School alma mater, he was given the keys to the city by Mayor George Garner and a grand welcome by other officials—plus generous coverage in the daily press.

BOBBY FREEMAN, once a tower among rock and roll artists now makes his home in San Francisco and has a new entry in the wax works that looks like a char prospect.

JUANITA SIMS, the popular Philly publicist, is the new director of public relations for the National Baptist Convention, USA Inc., headed by Dr. J. H. Jackson, the internationally known Baptist leader.

BRYANT GEORGE, former missionary of the Presbyterian Church, was recently elected as associate chairman for Administration for the Division of Church Strategy and Development, of the Board of National Missions United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. The Division of Church Strategy and Development combines the Department of—Mobile Ministries, Urban Church, New Church Development, Town and Country, and Spanish Work.

George had served, until this time, as Associate Director of the Urban Department of the Board of National Missions, and prior to that as Assistant to the Director of the Church Extension Board of Chicago.

George has spent three years as Associate General Secretary of the Student Christian Movement of Pakistan, as a missionary of the Presbyterian Church.

MISSION MEMBERS OMITTED IN REPORT

The names of four members of the St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church's Missionary Circle who took part in the group's annual outdoor picnic recently were omitted from a report of the event in last week's issue.
