Durham Deltas Welcome 2 New Members at Year's 1st Meeting

The Durham chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority opened its new season last month in a social meeting which saw the organization welcome to recent arrivals to the organization.

The meeting, held at Grady Community Center, was the opening fall meeting for the organization.

Welcomed to the sorority were Mrs. Gloria Massey, wife of North Carolina College's new president, and Mrs. Hester Orr, wife of a newly appointed North Carolina College professor.

Mrs. Massie joined her husband in Durham at the beginning of September. They were formerly in Washington where he was on the staff of Howard University and an official of the National Science Foundation.

Mrs. Orr, also a newcomer, came to Durham with her husband from Normal, Alabama where he was a member of the faculty at Alabama A. M. and N. Sorority members were entertained by a series of games and group songs. Door prizes were also awarded.

Aside from newcomers, sorority members attending the meeting included the following: Mrs. Constance Watts, Mrs. Juanita McCaskill, Mrs. Jennie Taylor, Mrs. Olivia Cole, Mrs. Ruth Lowe, Mrs. Nellie Gilliard, Miss Lula Thorpe, Mrs. Myrtle Williams, Miss Clara Allen, Mrs. Vivian Patterson, Mrs. Rosemond Cox, Mrs. Virgie Davis.

Also, Mrs. Margaret Goodwin, Mrs. Evelyn Drake, Mrs. Jochebed Locust, Mrs. Geneva Stankback, Miss June Harris, Mrs. Janice Fisher, Miss Suggs, Mrs. Zenobia Jefferson, Mrs. Eunice Stewart, Mrs. Constance Patillo, Mrs. Geneva Cheek, Mrs. Rebecca Edmonds, Miss Edna Mason. And, Mrs. Josephine Strayhorn, Mrs. Josephine Clement, Mrs. Mayme Perry, Mrs. Alice Stewart, Miss Helen Jamison, Mrs. Marie Pittman, Mrs. Gertrude Taylor, Mrs. Blanche Hill, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Lovey McCoy, Mrs. Charlotte Sloan, Dr. Irene Jackson, Dr. Ruth Horry, Mrs. Mary Townes, Mrs. Alma Bennett.

Also, Miss Inez Coleman, Mrs. Anna Davis, Mrs. Frances Schooler, Mrs. Wanda Garrett, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Inez Jones, Mrs. Eliza Tolbert, Mrs. Delores Marvin, Mrs. Hortense Holeman, Mrs. Jeanne Lucas, Mrs. Jesse Pearson, Miss Snow Bailey, Mrs. Carolyn Thornton, Mrs. Thelma Battle, Mrs. Owen Cooke, Mrs. Constance Allen and Mrs. Martha Dooms.

The noted vocalist, who has toured the world under State Department auspices, and more recently sang at the Civil Rights March on Washington, will in a sense re-create a bit of history in "The Best Man," by singing at the presidential nominating convention. In a similar appearance at the '56 Democratic convention which nominated Adlai Stevenson, Miss Jackson's singing was one of the electrifying highlights of that event.

Gastonians Say Vows in Double Ring Ceremony

By MAUDE M. JEFFERS
GASTONIA — Miss Evelyn Erwin, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Gardin, of Bradford Heights, Gastonia, and Albert Lewis Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Jackson of Robinwood Lake Community, Gastonia, were married in an impressive double ring ceremony Saturday at 4:00 p. m. at Center Baptist Church. The Rev. H. B. Washington, pastor, heard the vows exchanged.

Principal Frank E. Parker, of Hoffman Road School, was organist for the nuptials. Vocal soloist was Mrs. Jymmie J. McClure.

Arrangements of white gladioli and fern, palms and candles set in seven branched candelabra were used for a background with an arch and kneeling bench.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a sabrina neckline, long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was floor length and swept into a chapel train. Her double tiered veil of bridal illusion was caught to a crown of pearls. She carried a white satin Bible topped with a cascade of white carnations, mums and Lillies of the Valley.

Miss Patsy Jackson, of Dallas School faculty, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sherry Adams and Mrs. Marie Tribble of Belmont. They wore pink and green dresses and matching hats. They carried pink carnation nosegays. Junior maid was Sherry Jackson.

The bridegroom had his brother, Allen Jackson, as best man. Ushers were Miles Jackson, Jr. and Jerry Erwin.

A reception was given honoring the bridal party in the church dining room by the bride's aunt. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with the bride and groom and flanked with flowers and ferns. Many out of town guests attended.

Assisting were Misses Joyce Tate, Jerlene Erwin, Marylene Wallace and Mrs. Mabel Walker.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Highland High School, Gastonia, and Carver College of Charlotte. Mr. Jackson is serving in the U. S. Air Force in Elsworth, S. Dakota and is on leave. His basic training was earned at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas.

The newlyweds are popular members of Gastonia's Younger set.

Del. Teacher Is Baha'i Speaker

Mrs. Elta A. Woodlen of Wilmington, Delaware will address a public meeting sponsored by the Baha'is of Durham to be held at 1903 Essex Road on November 3 at 3:00 p. m. on the subject "Oneness of Mankind." The public is cordially invited and no charge or collection will be taken.

Mrs. Woodlen, a graduate of Oberlin College and Columbia University, recently completed thirty years service as a teacher of music in the Wilmington public schools. She is a past president of the Wilmington Business and Professional Women's Club. She has also been chairman of the YWCA branch, secretary of the Wilmington Teachers Association, and a member of the Board of Directors of the Recreation, Promotion and Service organization.

Mrs. Woodlen has been an active Baha'i teacher and lecturer for many years. She served as chairman of the National Baha'i Interracial Teaching Committee, secretary of the Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Wilmington and a member of the Central Atlantic States Area Teaching Committee, and the Local Spiritual Assembly of Durham. She has travelled extensively in Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina on behalf of the Baha'i Faith as well as served as delegate from Delaware to the National Baha'i Convention held annually in Wilmette, Illinois.

Additional meetings will be held with Mrs. Woodlen on Nov. 4. For information on the times and places of these meetings, write Baha'i, Box 1821, Durham, or call 682-9789.

Mahalia To Have Role In TV Production

Mahalia Jackson, the world's leading gospel singer, has been set by producers Stuart Miller and Lawrence Turman to play herself in a guest appearance in "The Best Man," the film version of Gore Vidal's Broadway comedy hit, which Franklin Schaffner is now directing for United Artists release.

The noted vocalist, who has toured the world under State Department auspices, and more recently sang at the Civil Rights March on Washington, will in a sense re-create a bit of history in "The Best Man," by singing at the presidential nominating convention. In a similar appearance at the '56 Democratic convention which nominated Adlai Stevenson, Miss Jackson's singing was one of the electrifying highlights of that event.

The cast of "The Best Man" is headed by Henry Fonda, Cliff Robertson, Margaret Leighton, Eddie Adams, Shelley Berman, Lee Tracy, Ann Sothern, Gene Raymond and Kevin McCarthy.

D. C. to Host Women Nov. 13

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Negro women will take a look at themselves today during the 28th annual convention of the National Council of Negro Women, Inc., November 13-17 in Washington, D. C.

The convention will have headquarters at the Statler Hill Hotel in this city. A two-day Leadership Seminar will precede plenary sessions and provide the forum of inquiry into the convention theme: "The Negro Woman in the Emancipation Century." The call to convention was issued this week by the group's
