WASHINGTON, D. C. — Spaulding will be presiding during the 50th anniversary public sessions of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, which convenes at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Washington, D. C., December 26 through the 30th. The program is headed by William Moyers, Special Assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson; Randolph T. Myers, Minority Group Consultant; Small Business Administration and Nathaniel Dickerson of the Personnel Department of General Foods.

In announcing the invited speakers, James A. Squires, General Conclave Chairman, said, Moyers will address the Public Meeting of the Conclave Rankin, Memorial

A. T. Spaulding Gets Business Award in N. Y.

Asa T. Spaulding, president of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, was presented an award for business achievement from the Interracial Council for Business Opportunities at a banquet held at the Overseas Press Club in New York on December 3.

The award was made by Harvey C. Russell, Vice President of Pepsi Cola Company, and a Co-Chairman of the Interracial Council for Business Opportunity which maintains headquarters in this City.

Rodman C. Rockefeller, vice president of International Basic Economy Corporation is also a co-chairman.

The Interracial Council for Business Opportunity was formed in New York in October 1963, under the co-sponsorship of the American Jewish Congress and the Urban League for the purpose of furnishing free business consulting services to Negro business-

Moore of Chicago, Illinois.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity was founded on the campus of Howard University by Langston Taylor, L. F. Moore and C. I. Brown in 1914. The national body consists of some 200 chapters located in cities and campuses in the United States, the Virgin Islands and the continent of Africa. The organization membership is 44,000 Negro college men. Luminaries among the membership are the college Presidents: Their excellencies Wm.

of similar councils in other major cities.

The group has recently made plans to extend these services to Negro businessmen across the nation, through the establishment of similar councils in other major cities.

Spaulding received the first annual award given by this organization.
