

Shaw University Diamond Bears Split Two Late Inning Games

RALEIGH—Shaw University's defending CIAA champions moved closer to a second successive conference baseball crown during the past week by gaining a split in two games. Jimmy Lyle's charges had their win streak ended at four straight, dropping a 9th inning thriller, 4-3, to Delaware State College, but came back two days later to upend Fayetteville State College's Broncos, 9-8, in the 10th inning.

The win over Fayetteville State was their fifth of the season against one lone setback, giving them the most impressive slate of any team in the CIAA.

Against the Hornets, hard-throwing Ray Godwin, the Delaware State twirler, set the Bruins down after coming on with one out in the first inning. He limited the Bears to just five hits and two runs while striking out seven in his 8 2/3 inning relief appearance.

Donald Blakey's Hornet nine pushed across the winning run in the top of the 9th with the bases jammed and as the Bears' rookie shortstop, Bill Jones, fumbled a double play attempt, allowing Stan Johnson to cross the plate from third.

Two big runs in the 3rd frame moved Delaware State out front 3-1, on a triple by Johnson with two men on base. Shaw came back to tie it all up at 3-all in the seventh inning with Mayo Weaver, the Bears' top hitter, dashing across the plate with the tying run on Fred Long's hit to right center.

Against Fayetteville State, the Bruins squeezed in the winning tally in the bottom of the 10th inning as Jimmy Howard dashed home all the way from second base on a sharp liner up the middle by Ira Mitchell.

Howard walked to open the 10th frame, was sacrificed to second by Willie French and with Mitchell's single, Howard dashed in with the run that gave the Bears their fifth win in six games this season.

Behind the brilliant relief stint of freshman Ray Gadsden of Charleston, S. C., the Bears pushed across six runs in the 6th frame to tie the score at 8-all before their 10th inning game-winning heroics.

Gadsden came on in relief of Ruddy Bazemore and Bill Love, who were on in the fourth inning and limited the Broncos to just four hits and 1 run for the remaining 6 1/3 innings. In going the route, he struck out nine batters, retiring the side on strikes with just 10 pitches in the sixth inning.

In the running-producing sixth, Nat Walton, the catcher, was safe on an error. The junior from Elizabeth City, then stole both second and third and came home on a wild pitch. Bill Barnes, the Broncos' hurler, then walked three straight Shaw batters.

Mitchell hit a liner to deep short scoring Howard, followed by Jim Wilson's hit to center which pushed over three runs to tie up the game at 8-all.

Wilson, the Bears' big first sacker, was the batting star with three hits and five rbi's for the day.

CIAA TRACK MEET SET FOR ROGERS FIELD, VA. STATE

Petersburg, Va.—Record-smashing runners and jumpers will be spotlighted in the 44th Annual CIAA Track and Field Championships at Virginia State's Rogers Stadium, Friday and Saturday, May 7-8.

Qualifying heats will be run Friday beginning at 10:00 a. m. with the finals scheduled for the following day at 1 p. m. for the 18-team conference.

North Carolina College has top individual performers in sprinter Ed Roberts and versatile Norm Tate, both league record-holders, as the Eagles attempt to defend their league championship.

NCC and Maryland State both scored impressive victories in championship events at the Penn Relays. The Carolinians set a new standard in the 880-yard Relay in 1:24.4 as Bob Johnson and Terrell Amos joined Tate and Roberts as the victorious quartet.

Maryland won both the 440-yard and mile relays spurred by anchorman Earl Rogers who ran a 46.7 quarter mile event.

Howard, Delaware State, Morgan State's freshmen, and Norfolk State all won important relay series in the Philadelphia carnival.

Roberts holds the CIAA 100-yard dash record of :09.3 and is heavily favored in the dashes. Tate is without peer in the broad jump, and both complement NCC relay teams.

Leon Coleman, W.S., ran a 14.5 in the 120 high hurdles, and looms as the premier hurdler for the meet.

Other colleges participating in championships are Virginia Union, St. Paul's Elizabeth City, Fayetteville, Hampton, A. and T. Smith, Livingstone, Shaw, St. Augustine's, and host Virginia State.

Rosa Temple High School of Vicksburg, at Temple, he is serving as Athletic Director, Head of the Physical Education, Head of the Head Football Coach, Track Coach, and a Health and Physical Education Teacher.

He has taken advanced work at Indiana University. Mr. Adams is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

TOP AWARD—Edwin Roberts (right), North Carolina College trackster and 1964 Olympian received the 1965 Marine Corps Schools Relays Outstanding Athlete award from Lieutenant General F. L. Wieseman, Commandant, of Marine Corps Schools, May 1. Roberts anchored the NCC 880-yard relay team to a meet record of 1:24.8 and ran lead-off for the record setting 440-yard relay squad.

Mrs. V. Strode Gets Post With Urban League

RALEIGH—Mrs. Velma McEwen Strode, an alumna of Saint Augustine's College, Raleigh, and one of the first three women to hold an executive position with the National Urban League, has been appointed State and Municipal Liaison Officer of the Community Relations Service by Director Leroy Collins.

The Community Relations Service (CRS) was created under the Title X of the 1964 Civil Rights Act. It is designed to help communities resolve racial disputes, and to create a climate for peaceful acceptance of the Civil Rights Law throughout the Nation.

Mrs. Strode will help communities establish Community Relations Commissions and help those commissions already in existence improve their programs.

Before joining CRS, she was director of the "A Future for Jimmy" project sponsored jointly by the Washington Urban League and the D. C. Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Mrs. Strode is a member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers and a charter member of the National Association of Social Workers.

Her previous positions include: executive director of the Cosmopolitan Center of Utica, New York and the Urban League of Fort Worth, Texas; industrial relations secretary of the Baltimore, Maryland Urban League and employer relations counselor for the U.S. Government.

While in Fort Worth, Mrs. Strode was hostess of her own "Velma McEwen" radio show on station KNOK.

A native of Jackson, Mississippi, Mrs. Strode grew up in Washington, D. C. and attended the city's public schools. She is a graduate of Saint Augustine's College, Raleigh, and did graduate work at American University, Washington, D. C.

Her work with the "A Future for Jimmy" project brought her the College Alumnae Club citation of the National Association of

A. AND T. BASEBALL AGGIES EDGE MARYLAND STATE NINE BY SCORE 3-1

GREENSBORO—The A. and T. College Aggies, behind the four-hit pitching of Tony Conti, last week whipped the Maryland State College Hawks, 3-1, in a CIAA baseball game played here at Memorial Stadium.

One of the hits served up by Conti was a home run clout by Eddie Brooks in the seventh inning.

The Aggies got five hits, bunching three of them in the fifth inning for a two-run rally. They scored first in the second inning with Clifton Matthews racing in from second.

The win evened the Aggies for the season with a 4-4 record.
