

Holy Temple Church Activities

Reporter Miss McKinley

The Holy Temple Church will run a building fund campaign from May through October. It has been suggested by the pastor that all men pay $200, all women pay $100, and all young people pay $25. The goal set for the campaign is $1,500. It was decided that programs be rendered to raise money for the young people. If anyone as a donation to give on this campaign, we would appreciate it very much.

We are expecting to begin building within 12 months. The church is to be located on Burlington Avenue. The assistant pastor stated that if all of us unite in harmony, he is sure that we will accomplish our goal.

MORNING SERMON

Our assistant pastor preached a great sermon Sunday, May 16. The subject was "Pressing On." He aroused the church many times throughout the sermon with spiritual strength. In his conclusion, he stated that we must continue to press on and have faith in Jesus.

PROGRAM

A program is scheduled for the fourth Sunday, May 23 in behalf of Sister Richardson. The program is to help her raise money for the building fund. If you are not doing anything Sunday evening, come out and help support this program. The Shiloh Temple Church will be with us and many others. The program is set for 2 p.m.

Y. P. H. A.

The Y. P. H. A. discussed the pronunciation of words, the introduction of people, and had a Bible quiz. We had an enjoyable time. We were dismissed by a prayer from Miss Wilder.

Mount Gilead In Women's Day Observance Sunday, May 23

The Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, located at 400 Dowd Street, will hold its Annual Women's Day observance Sunday, May 23 with the women of the church taking full charge of all services for the entire day.

The theme for the observance will be "Christian Responsibilities In Our Times," and the overall program is slated to be featured during three special activities: Sunday School, Morning Worship, and a special concert in the evening.

Sunday School is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. with Miss Mary Morrison presiding as Superintendent. Mrs. Josephine Brower and Mrs. Drucilla Young are slated to assist with the Sunday School activities.

The Morning Worship service will feature a guest speaker as Mrs. M. B. Lucas, Instructor of Education at North Carolina College and Speech Therapist at NCC is scheduled to speak on the theme of the Women's Day observance.

Mrs. Lucas is a graduate of the Agricultural and Technical College at Greensboro, and received a Master of Arts degree from the University of New York. She has also pursued further studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mrs. M. Jeanne Lucas and Mrs. Mudy Stone, co-chairmen for the observance will be in complete charge of the worship service.

The North Carolina College Girls Choir, directed by Mrs. C. stance Allen, will furnish music for the 11:00 a.m. services.

Others slated to take part during the Sunday morning program include Miss Clara Allen, Litany; Miss Nellie Samuel, prayer; Mrs. Helen Daniels, scripture; and Mrs. Grayce Scott, Mrs. Ellen Cannady and Mrs. Mary Morrison offertory.

At 6:30 p.m., a special musical concert, featuring Mrs. Ruth Reeves will be presented in the main sanctuary. Mrs. Gloria Timberlake and Mrs. Mudy Stone are in charge of the concert.

Following the concert, a fellowship hour will be held in the Sunday School auditorium.

The public is invited to attend the Women's Day Observance.

NCC Student to Tour New England With Theatre Group

A North Carolina College senior dramatic art major, Bruce M. Smith, has been chosen to participate in a "Caravan Theatre" which will tour New England this summer presenting plays and readings related to peace, race, and other current social problems.

After each performance, audience and cast will discuss questions which may encourage constructive action on these issues. Dates for the theatre, which is sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC), are June 26—August 23.

Smith, of Oxford, is president of the NCC Theatricals Club and has played major roles in such productions of the group as "Medea," "King Lear," "Witness for the Prosecution," and "The Lark." He is a graduate of Mary Potter High School, Oxford, and hopes to become a director.

The Caravan Theatre is one of three civil rights projects of the AFSC U. S. Projects Program for summer work and study. The program, in general, seeks "to build peace through small international groups, working, living, and learning together."

Governor Signs Proclamation for Soil Week

RALEIGH—Governor Dan K. Moore has proclaimed May 23-30 as "Soil Stewardship Week in N. Carolina."

Sponsored in North Carolina by the State Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts, this observance proposes to urge rural and urban people alike to recognize the source and richness of our God-given soil, water and related natural resources. People throughout the state and nation will attend religious services and give thanks for the rewards of good soil stewardship.

"Challenge of Growth" is the theme for this year. Governor Moore has declared.
