

Farmer Hails New Policy of La. Mayor

BOGALUSA, La. — On May 23, Mayor Jesse Cutner, Jr., in a radio address, announced a new policy on community desegregation and CORE National Director James Farmer, speaking an hour later to an overflow rally at Ebenezer Baptist Church, said: "You are on the threshold of the greatest breakthrough in any southern city in the past five years."

"The mayor had fine words and we must applaud them. But now we must see to it that the deed follows the words. The fight is not ended—the most difficult part is ahead. You must hold your movement together."

Shortly after midnight on the previous day, two whites were arrested for attempting to set afire the church where Farmer spoke. The mayor's new policy was an outcome of a negotiation session May 16 with representatives of the Bogalusa Civic and Voters League and CORE. It has the full support of the community affairs committee, which includes 24 business, labor and professional leaders.

In his radio talk, the mayor promised that all city ordinances requiring segregation would be repealed, that Negro policemen would be hired and that the city council will act on Negro demands for sewage and water mains in their area. He also pledged that "anyone, white or Negro, who attempts to violate the rights of another or cause bodily harm will be promptly arrested, charged and prosecuted." He asserted: "Everyone must recognize the fact that federal laws supersede city and state laws in the field of civil rights for all citizens."

NCC Law Prof Contributes to New Book

LeMarquis DeJarmon, Associate Professor, Law School, North Carolina College at Durham, is the author of the chapter on Voting in his new book, Legal Aspects of the Civil Rights Movement. This newest book on the civil rights movement was published recently in the United States by the Wayne State University Press and published simultaneously in Canada by the Ambassador Books, Inc., Toronto, Canada.

The book, designed to commemorate the Emancipation, examines the legal struggle—in education, in the franchise, in occupation, in public accommodations, in representation and in residence—during the past century since emancipation.

Some fifteen essays by prominent Civil Rights leaders, attorneys and legal scholars, explore new legal opinions, hypotheses and theories demonstrating the gradual evolution of legal thought in the century-old quest for equality.

CAPEL

Negro Named Mayor Pro Tem in So. Pines

A native of Richmond County, Felton J. Capel, was elected to the Town Council in Southern Pines, N. C., to serve his fourth consecutive term during the May election. After the election, he was elected by the four other white members of the Town Council to serve as Mayor Pro Tem. Capel was second high man on the ticket in total votes received to the Mayor, Norris L. Hodgkins Jr., out of ten candidates running for five council seats.

During the last term Capel was City Treasurer, signing all checks for all town expenditures. He was also a member of the city library board of trustees. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Acie Capel of Ellerbe. He attended Mineral Springs High School in Ellerbe and Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va. He is a world war II veteran with overseas service in Europe. Capel is a member of the First Missionary Baptist Church in Southern Pines where he serves on the Board of Trustees and Usher Board. He is married to the former Miss Jean Walden of West End, who is employed in the Medical Records Dept. at Saint Joseph's Hospital and they have three sons, Jeffrey, Mitchell and Kenneth.

Capel is employed as Sales Director for Century Metalcraft Corp., and owner of a recreation center in Pinebluff.

Miss. Church To Be Scene of Mass Rally

NATCHEZ, Mississippi — Voter registration will be the subject discussed at a mass rally in the Macedonia Baptist Church on Minor Street, here in Natchez.

Permission to use the church is a small victory in itself. John Lewis, Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and John Milenberg from the Phillipine Islands will be the principal speakers. Rev. Ruben Logan is pastor.

An earlier rally had to be held outside. Because of intimidation and threats on their lives, the deacons refused to open the doors of the church. Over two hundred people were present at this rally in front of the church.

The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) went into Natchez in July 1964 to work on voter registration, but the going was rough right from the beginning.

The people have been harassed and intimidated to the extent that the ministers were afraid to let SNCC workers have a church in which to hold mass meetings.

This will be the second rally to be held in this city since Miss Dorie Ladner, SNCC Field Secretary first went into Natchez to work.

them personally. We hope you will take time to join us at the Jack Tar for a most interesting visit and brief program.

WILLIAM McKIVER ("Shorty" Allen) ALLEN who after seventeen years of experience in a pawn shop, is associated with Sam Margolis at Sam's Pawn Shop, 122 East Main Street, in Durham, as assistant manager. Allen was born in Durham and attended Hillside High School from which he graduated in 1947. During the year 1948 he married the former Miss Sadie Baker; also during this year he became an employee of Providence Loan Office under the direction of Louis Steins. In 1950 he was employed with Sam Margolis at Providence Loan Office. Allen wishes to serve his customers at the new location.

The Prudent Man

Can you walk down the street with the relaxed assurance of a man whose affairs are all in order? Are you being unfair to your family by putting off the drawing up of your will? Unfortunately, we are in a profession where we are the unhappy witnesses to the result of procrastination and indecision. Be thoughtful of those you love the most, protect their future.
