'Operation Breakthrough' Holds Annual Meet; Elects Officers

The Board of Directors of Operation Breakthrough, Durham's anti-poverty organization, held their first annual meeting Tuesday night and elected a new slate of officers and endorsed a variety of new anti-poverty projects for the Durham community.

The Rev. Julius Corpening, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, was named to succeed Everett Hopkins, vice president of institutional planning at Duke University, as president of Operation Breakthrough.

Other new officers include Dr. Howard Pitts, vice president; Kenneth Royall, Jr., secretary; and Carl Sessoms, treasurer. Dr. Pitts is a faculty member of North Carolina College. Royall, a local furniture dealer, is chairman of the Durham County Board of Education. Sessoms is an executive of the Hospital Care Association.

Named to the Executive Committee were retiring President Hopkins, Mrs. Odessa Parker of the Lakeview community (3311 Draper St.), Dr. James Semans of the Duke Medical Center, Mrs. Hugh Thompson of 304 Pekoe Ave., Dr. Charles Watts, local surgeon, and Mayor R. W. Grabarek (in an ex-officio capacity).

Three new members of the Board of Directors also were appointed. They are Mrs. Christine Strudwick, of 704 Elizabeth St., representing the East End Neighborhood Council; Mrs. E. H. Couch of 6-A Few Gardens, representing the Few Gardens Neighborhood Council; and Dr. A. H. London, Jr., representing the Durham County Board of Health.

W. END SECTION FORMS NAACP YOUTH CHAPTER

The West End Community of Durham organized a Youth Chapter of the NAACP. The organization grew out of the desire of its junior members for more participation in city wide social, political and civic developments. The officers elected were: President, Miss Joyce Thomas; Vice President, Miss Mary Grafton; Secretary, Christopher Robinson II; Assistant Secretary, Miss Lucy Webb; Treasurer, Theodore Smith; Assistant Treasurer, Lorenzo Cozart and Reporter, J. W. Robinson III.

The newly formed group has had two official meetings at which time they had as their guest J. W. Hill, NAACP State Youth Advisor and Reverend, L. H. McDonald of the North Carolina Fund.

Colonial Stores Gets Governor's Retail Award 2nd Year in Row

RALEIGH—Colonial Stores, for the second straight year, has been presented the Governor's Retail Food Industry Award given annually to the food chain doing the most to promote North Carolina products.

The award was presented by Governor Dan Moore at a dinner in Raleigh (Tuesday Night) sponsored by the North Carolina Merchants Association. In an address preceding the award, Governor Moore said, "Food production and food processing offer a real future. Our farmers are finding in food production new sources of income to replace the loss by acreage reduction of other crops."

Governor Moore also pointed out that in the past 25 years the value of food processing in North Carolina has increased from 69 million to 650 million dollars per year providing one thousand new jobs for North Carolina citizens.

"We have a wide open field ahead of us," the governor said. "I believe our state can become the leading supplier of foods to the big market places of the eastern seaboard. I believe we can reach markets abroad."

C. M. Tuttle, Colonial Stores Division Vice President, in commenting on the award said, "We are extremely happy to be honored for the second straight year for the part that Colonial has played in promoting the North Carolina economy. Our company was founded by a North Carolinian and because of this, the fact that we have more than 3500 employees in the state and that a third of our individual stockholders live in North Carolina, we always are anxious to do everything possible to promote new job opportunities for the people of the Tarheel State."

LA. SHERIFF LIMITS DEPUTIES TO COL. GRADS

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Sheriff C. E. Hester of Madison Parish (county), La., announced that in the future all deputy sheriffs must be college graduates. Hester made the announcement on November 23 to a group of 600 Negroes who had marched, without incident, to the courthouse demanding the hiring of a Negro deputy sheriff. The silent, one mile march was sponsored by the Madison Parish Voters League and CORE. Tallulah is located across the Mississippi River from Vicksburg, Miss., about 90 miles west of Jackson.

Zelma C. Wyche, President of the Voters League, announced at the courthouse that Tallulah Negroes would show their displeasure with the sheriff's statement at the polls when they vote for the next sheriff. Tallulah's population of 9,400 is 70% Negro. It is almost certain that more Negroes than whites will be registered to vote by the time of the next election. Wyche also said that the Voters League is planning a selective buying campaign against downtown merchants who refuse to practice fair hiring. After Wyche's speech, the group sang freedom songs and marched back to their starting point.

SHOULD I PRINT IT? — Nick Galifianakis, Durham state representative, jokes with two unidentified students while signing autographs during the 18th Annual Resource-Use Education Conference at North Carolina College recently. Nearly 2,000 persons were in attendance at the state-wide meeting which directed attention to the theme: "Building the Great Society Through Conservation of Human and Natural Resources." Dr. Theodore Spigner, chairman of the NCC Department of Geography, was presiding officer.
