

MAKE-UP IN THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT

It's easy to create an impression of gay and sparkling glamour that will seem completely uncontrived. Your complexion should appear clear and radiant with the slight flush of excitement, your lips definitely hued and taste-treated with holiday party flavor, and your eyes wide-awake and lively.

To achieve this dazzling effect with cosmetics, complexion and lips will require brighter shades in sunny-warm peach and beige tones to spotlight them with touches of brilliance.

First, brighten your complexion in holiday color with the Peach shade of Brush-Alive!—a new sheer-textured blend of brush-on powder by Angel Face. To apply, simply pick up the powder with its own compact-shaped brush, and fluff it over your face. Now you've added the amount of coloring desired for a complete, glowing look. Still on the bright side, wear deliciously new lipstick with plenty of "Paris Punch" flavor from Cutex. For added shimmer and shine, wear two-tasty shades instead of one—Cinnamon Swizzle—a barely bronze shade, topped with Fagnon Grog—a saucy vanilla cream.

Use a light touch in your eye make-up. Select eye liner, shadow and mascara from a palette of gray, brown and taupe shades for a wide-open effect. As an "eyebrow-raising" plus, apply a dash of white eye shadow just under the brows.

Complete your holiday look by putting your warmest personality forward—and you're ready to shine!

Sheer Extravagance

Sheer inspiration for holiday occasions—and glamor gifts—is this imaginative new design in a velvety Dacron applique by Hanes which give an elegant new dimension of flattery to shapely ankles, suggests Mrs. Kathleen Bremont Hanes, director of styling, Maricold, a new floral pattern in Hanes Sheer Extravagance, a gossamer sheer, demi-toe seamless stocking, is the focal point of fashion interest. Another exciting gift idea is Hanes Op Sock with matching cap, inspired by Optical art designs.

SURE TO THRILL all junior transportation enthusiasts is Pow-R-R-R that exactly reproduces the sound of a giant motor without the use of batteries for the first time, developed by Structo Division of King-Seely Thermos Company, for heavy gauge steel toy trucks.

This is an important breakthrough in toy truck realism, said W. A. Wenner, Structo vice president.

The Weekender is another exciting new toy truck design of heavy gauge steel by Structo, that reproduces in miniature a combination station wagon-tent. The station wagon has convertible bed-sofas.

Husband Replacer?

Men who have learned to obey the wifely command: "Hook up my dress" are now being relieved of that obligation. What may be the greatest of all inventions (for husbands!) is the new E-Z Bonnie Clasp, that enables women to fasten their own garments in back.

Made from 100 per cent nylon, the clasp is (a) large enough to get hold of, and (b) works on a simple principle: OPEN and then CLICK. A sliding closure keeps it firmly secured. The new clasp comes in white and black, and in three sizes and can be found in major variety chains, department stores and fabric shops. Closures can be dyed to match the garment being worn.

Units of Operation Breadbasket are presently in operation in every major urban center in Georgia with units in Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Florida and Virginia. Alabama is the next target state.

The idea of Operation Breadbasket was conceived in Philadelphia, Pa. several years ago when the city's Negro ministers, led by Rev. Leon Sullivan, organized their congregations to work for improved economic conditions. The concept proved successful and soon caught fire in Atlanta spreading rapidly throughout Georgia and neighboring states.
