FSC Awarded $83,830 by U.S. Office of Education for Institute

FAYETTEVILLE — Fayetteville State College has been awarded approximately $83,830 by the United States Office of Education to conduct a Summer Institute for Advanced Study in English for Elementary teachers, it was announced by President Rudolph Jones.

Supported under the National Defense Education Act, Title XI, the Institute will offer courses in Grammar and Composition, Children's Literature and the Teaching of Reading for a period of seven weeks from June 13 to July 29. Optional credit of six semester hours will be given to those participants who request it upon successful completion of the courses of instruction.

The Institute will be limited to sixty participants selected by a screening committee. Participants will be drawn largely from North and South Carolina and Virginia, though a small number of participants from other areas may be accepted. Each participant will receive a stipend of $75 per week for the period of attendance, and each individual with one or more dependents will receive an additional stipend at the rate of $15 per week for each dependent. Fayetteville State College will waive tuition and course fees but participants are expected to purchase copies of required textbooks and to pay their own travel expenses. Institute members will be selected from teachers who:

- (1) are currently teaching the language arts in grades 1-6 of public or non-public elementary or union schools;
- (2) have at least five years of teaching experience and who anticipate at least ten years of teaching service before retirement;
- (3) hold the B.A. or B.S. degree from an accredited college or university and
- (4) who have not previously attended an NDEA Institute.

MT. PLEASANT CHURCH HONORS STUDENTS HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

College students at home for the holidays were honored by the Brotherhood of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church Belmont last week at an impressive service with all Belmont students listed above participating. The speakers included Miss Rebecca Murray teacher in Newbold High School of Lincolnton; Miss Barbara Reeves, teacher in the N. C. Deaf and Dumb and Blind School of Raleigh; Miss Eleanor Smith, teacher of Alexander Street School of Charlotte. Miss Barbara Reeves and Mrs. Eleanor Smith furnished music. All were Belmont citizens.

Members of the church who were honored were Carol Stowe, Doris Grier, Brenda Pettis, Maurice and Miriam Reid, Edward Reeves, Larry Reeves, Elmer Briggs, Juan Logan and Allen Stowe. The Rev. D. L. Epting, pastor of the church brought greetings and complimented the students on their achievement. Refreshments were served and gifts were presented to the honored teenagers home from colleges.
