SWING TIME ON CAMPUS—A group of coeds take time to admire the piano artistry of Patricia Thomson, one of North Carolina College's two exchange students from the University of Wisconsin. Standing, from left, are Loretta Newell, Hilda Durham, Jane Liljestrand, the other exchange student; Gracie Bass, and Annie Wilson. The Wisconsinites spent the entire first semester at NCC and followed the regular campus routine.

Mrs. Josephine Clement Speaks At HHS Friday

Mrs. Josephine Clement, wife of William Clement, vice president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, was the guest speaker at the installation service of the Hillside Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, January 14.

Mrs. Clement spoke on the subject "Building Blocks for the Future." In her speech, she expressed the importance of the future for the students of today and tomorrow. She made clear to us, that the future is ours and it is up to us to make the best of it. She specified that our attitude, behavior, character and ability determines our success in the future.

Mrs. Clement encouraged all of the students to continue in vention was "Sharing the Light" of tomorrow. In closing, she read an excerpt from Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's poem, "A Psalm of Life" which contained rich information that was inspiring to all.

J. H. Lucas, principal, installed the officers of the Hillside Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America who are: president, Constance Lowe; vice president, Annette Prince; secretary, Bessie Morris; asst. secretary, Jacquelyn Mangum; treasurer, Francis Allen; parliamentarian, Gloria Toomer; historian, Jenifer Durham and song leader, Charlene Duncan.

Music was furnished by John H. Gattis, Misses Peggy King and Patricia Reaves. J. R. Woodward gave us a very inspiring invocation.

Members of the Future Homemakers are: Misses Arnetta Bullock, Lavanda Bullock, Lanette Carrington, Thomas Council, Margaret Does, Lettie Elliot, Elaine Ennis, Brenda Greene, Martha Hannah, Regina Hayes, Irene Hedgpeh, Peggy King, Larette Leslie, Sharon Lyons, Brenda McCormick, La Mona McKoy, Eva McKoy, Helene McQueen, Gloria Newkirk, Alveria Prince, Lila Richmond, Barbara Rogers, Yvonne Royster, Joyce Samuels, Jacquelyn Smith, Shirley Tilley, Gloria Taylor, Alma Watson, Manuel Williams, Patricia Witherspoon and Linda Young.

Poet's Corner

THE ANVIL—GOD'S WORD
Last eve I passed beside a blacksmith's door,
And heard the anvil ring the vesper chime;
Then, looking in, I saw upon the floor
Old hammers, worn with beating years of time.

"How many anvils have you had," said I,
"To wear and batter all these hammers so?"
"Just one," said he, and then, with twinkling eye,
"The anvil wears the ham-out, you know."

And so, though I, the anvil of God's Word,
For ages skeptics blows have beat upon;
Yet, though the noise of falling blows was heard,
The anvil is unharmed—the hammers gone.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Norwood

Les Fleur Garden Club met with Mrs. Lucy Norwood, January 17. Mrs. Mozell McLaughlin led the devotions.

Mrs. Van Sombeek was the guest. For the evening, she showed slides on beautiful flower gardens in foreign countries and America. Mrs. Van Sombeek every now and then brought up the beautiful meaning of brotherly love. The secret of so great a station is intimacy with God through His messenger, an intimacy in which pure and selfless love is born. True love for God generates love for Humanity. She also brought out that flowers are like human beings and that God is above all.

Mrs. Norwood served chicken salad and Russian tea. Members present were: Mesdames Hattie Crews, Lottie Mason, Gladys McKenny, Minnie Gilmer, Nellie Toole, A. T. Tucker, Naomie W. Thorpe, Emma Cox, Lyda Wray, Estell Freeland, L. E. Cannady, Eleanor Lloyd, Ruby Philyaw, Geneva Gillard, Gladys Rhodes, Mozell McLaughlin and C. P. Perkins, president.

SAINT MARK TRUSTEES IN ANNUAL EVENT

The Trustee Board of St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church celebrates its Anniversary Sunday, January 23, at 7:30 P.M. This is the first in a series of Anniversary celebrations to be held by the various church clubs and auxiliaries.

Highlights of the Sunday program will be the music by St. Mark's Choirs, the Choirs of other churches, and an address by Councilman J. S. Stewart. Stewart, a well known politician and civic leader, is an outstanding speaker. His address on this occasion promises to be a timely one in terms of our present situation and obligations as citizens.
