

Hillside Sets Record, Tigers Thump Beavers

N. Carolina College Host To Winston-Salem Saturday

The Carolina Times

SPORTS

AND

THEATRICAL SECTION

Sports Video
By EARL MASON
Times Sports Editor

BASKETBALL SEASON TO OPEN SECOND HALF

The second half of the basketball season will get underway this weekend and Durham is still among the elite in the high school and college divisions. If the first half of the campaign can be used as any type of yardstick to measure the final records for our local teams, then Durham can rest assured it will have its best season in the case sport.

Duke remained the number one team in the Atlantic Coast Conference and in the national basketball ratings. With a 14-1 record, the Blue Devils will have their work cut out for them in the second portion of the season with four games at home and four on the road. Duke will swing back into action Saturday in a regional televised game with N. C. State. All but one of the eight games remaining for the Blue Devils are in the conference.

North Carolina College went into the examination break with an 8-3 record, good for fifth place in the CIAA. The schedule favors the Eagles since six of the nine games left will be in the Eagles' nest. After meeting Winston-Salem State College here Saturday, Coach Floyd Brown's cagers will roll out the welcome mats for Morgan State Monday. The game Saturday will bring together two of the top scorers in the loop in the persons of Earl Monroe and Ted Manning.

Hillside goes into the examination period this week with a 9-1 slate. A weekend double header this week will add two conference foes will affect the Hornets' test before they go back into conference action.

Merrick-Moore won a pair of games last week including one over Little River to move its overall record to 8-2. The Boss Beavers age 11-4 for the year

Durham High won its unlucky 13th straight with a close win over Goldsboro Saturday, 52-49. Undeclared thus far, the Bulldogs are looking to go one step farther than last year when they went to the finals of the 4-A state tournament before losing to Fayetteville.

Northern and Southern have not made the headlines with their win and loss record but both teams are pointing toward the second half of the season.

TOURNAMENT TIME MOST IMPORTANT
The second half of the season will get more attention from the players and the coaches because they know the tournament is involved in this portion. In the tournaments, teams are aware of the fact that a loss means no tomorrow. A win over a team which has won two regular season games in the tournament will mean more to a team than anything else.

--Professor
Continued from page 1B
scientific research.
Dr. Cooke is a native of Petersburg, Va., where he graduated from Virginia State College. He was awarded the Master of Science Degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1939 and the Doctor of Philosophy Degree from the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1962.
A dedicated researcher, Dr. Cooke spends out-of-class hours in the College science labora-

Whitted and Shepard Jr. Post Victories

Two local junior high schools, Whitted and Shepard, won basketball games last week. The Vikings defeated Washington Drive of Fayetteville, 76-61 last Wednesday in the Whitted Gymnasium and the Panthers downed Carnegie Junior High 67-52 in Raleigh last Friday night.

The Vikings placed four men in double figures in avenging their only loss of the year. Connie Hickson and John Smith scored 19 points apiece and Freddie Clay 18 to lead Whitted to its fifth win. Washington Drive defeated Whitted 60-53 earlier in the campaign.

The Panthers broke open a close game in the second half in the Capitol City Friday. After a 31-31 tie at the intermission, Shepard stormed back to completely outclass the homestanders. Paul Stroud hit the hoops for 21 points in leading the Panthers to their third win in six outings.

In preliminaries, Whitted defeated Wilmington Road juniors, 35-18 while the Shepard junior varsity defeated Carnegie 31-21.

Whitted and Shepard will be at home Friday. The Vikings will play host to J. W. Parker of Rocky Mount and the Vikings will entertain Carnegie.

Even from a distance, a woman gives evidence of her youth, or lack of it, from the "give" she displays in the movement of her body.

"Whenever you have eliminated the impossible whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth."
ory, where he has done considerable study on mutations in rats which resulted in the production of the "bob-tail rat" after several generations. He has also done research in the local streams and the lake areas of Wisconsin.

M-M BACKCOURT PAIR—Cliffon Holloway, left, and Al Pollard right will be in the starting backcourt Friday night when the Tigers meet the Hillside Hornets in the North Carolina College's R. L. McDougald Gymnasium. Game time is set for 8 o'clock or immediately following a 6:30 preliminary between the jayvee teams of the two schools. Pollard is the leading scorer for Coach Harry Edmonds' quintet with a 14.8 average. Holloway and Pollard are considered a clever pair of ball handlers for the locals.

Hornets Romp to 139-63 Win; M-M Downs Little River, 65-53

The Hillside Hornets romped to a 139-63 win over P. W. Moore of Elizabeth City and the Merrick-Moore Tigers defeated Little River 65-53 last Friday night.

The Hornets outburst set a new school scoring record in the Hillside Gymnasium. The old record of 138 points was held by this same aggregation against Little River in the seasonal opener.

Coach Harry Edmonds got a fine defensive performance from his defending state 3-A cagers as the Tigers defeated their "county cousins" in the Little River Gymnasium. Merrick-Moore limited Little River's Charles Bell, the leading scorer in the city, to 13 points.

Hillside completely outclassed the visitors in running their seasonal record to 9-1. The Hornets moved out to a 27-14 lead at the end of the first quarter and there was no stopping of the high scoring lads. By the halftime, Hillside led 64-29. A 31-point third stanza upped the advantage to 95-47. Hillside went over the century mark for the sixth time in 10 outings when Alphonso Regal tapped in a shot with seven minutes remaining in the Eastern District One 4-A scrap. Jimmy Mercer hit a lay up with five seconds left in the game to climax a 44-point last quarter for Hillside.

John Bullock led the Hillside attack with 29 points. George Outlaw contributed 24 points to the record breaking performance.

Tom Hamilton and Allen Reddish scored 17 points apiece to lead Merrick-Moore to its eighth win of the campaign against a pair of losses, both to Jordan-Sellers.

Coach Willie Bradshaw's Baby Hornets won their 38th consecutive game over a three year period with a 49-41 win over the John Avery Boys' Club.

LUIS GLASS AND BONNIE LOGAN HEAD ATA TENNIS RATINGS

In national tennis rankings recently announced by the American Tennis Association, Luis Glass and Bonnie Logan received No. 1 ranking in the men's and women's single division, respectively. Glass, of Jackson Heights, N. Y., 18 years old, is now a student at UCLA and generally conceded to be the ATA prospect most likely to follow in Arthur Ashe's footsteps. Bonnie, 16 years old, is a Durham, high school student who also possesses a high potential.

The new rankings show Bessie Stockard, of Washington, D. C., moving up to the No. 2 spot behind Bonnie Logan. Edgar Lee, also of Washington, continued his dominance as the No. 1 player in the men's senior singles division.

Following is a list of the top 10 ranking players in the divisions as announced by the ATA.

MEN'S SINGLES
1. Luis Glass, Jackson Heights, N. Y.

in the preliminary Friday. LeConte Stover and Paul Mayfield hit for 14 and 12 points respectively to lead the jayvees win.

Earlier in the week, Hillside, Merrick-Moore and Little River had posted wins. Hillside shelved Eppes of Greenville, 115-56 Tuesday while Merrick-Moore was taking a 70-66 win over Johnston Central in Smithfield and Little River defeated B. F. Person, 88-81 in Franklinton. William Harris led the Hillside attack with 22 points in the win Tuesday. Al Pollard tallied 20 points in the Merrick-Moore win and Bell scored 26 points for the Beavers.

ON ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE—Cal Irvin, head basketball coach for the A. and T. College Aggies, was last week named to the 22-member Fifth Anniversary Peace Corps Coaches Committee.

The Committee, named by Sargent Shriver of the Peace Corps, will recruit senior varsity athletes and physical education majors for Peace Corps Volunteer programs overseas and advise in their training.

Irvin is one of five basketball coaches from throughout the nation to be named to the committee.

- Joseph Williams, Durham, N. C.
- Ronald Charity, Richmond, Va.
- Wilbert Davis, New York City, N. Y.
- Lenward Simpson, Wilmington, N. C.
- George Stewart, Washington, D. C.
- Vernon Morgan, New York City, N. Y.
- Arthur Carrington, Elizabeth, N. J.
- Christopher Scott, Chicago, Ill.
- Gerald Alleyne, Brooklyn, N. Y.

- WOMEN'S SINGLES
- Bonnie Logan, Durham, N. C.
 - Bessie Stockard, Washington, D. C.
 - Sylvia Hooks, Detroit, Michigan
 - Jean Richardson, Los Angeles, Calif.
 - Claudine Malone, Washington, D. C.
 - Dorothy Kornegay, Philadelphia, Pa.

Ted and Earl Duel Set for Sat. at NCC

The North Carolina College Eagles will return to the hardwood after a two week lay off for examinations Saturday night to meet the Winston-Salem State College Rams in a CIAA contest in the R. L. McDougald Gymnasium. Tapoff time for the conference tilt is set for 8 o'clock.

The Eagles ended the first half of the campaign with an 8-3 record, all in the conference. This mark is good enough for fifth place in the latest Ratings. Coach Floyd Brown's cagers last played and lost to A&T College in Greensboro, 71-63 two weeks ago.

The high scoring Rams out of the Twin City is currently number two in the conference with a 7-1 loop mark and a 9-2 worksheet overall. Winston-Salem, skippered by Clarence (Big House) Gaines, is leading the league in scoring a 104.7 average after the first 11 games.

This, the second meeting between these two schools, should be an interesting battle since NCC is second in team defense, yielding 72.2 points per game. The Rams won the first game between these two clubs in Winston-Salem, 109-92 just before the Christmas break.

This game will also bring together two of the three top scorers in the loop in the persons of the Rams' Earl Monroe and NCC's Ted Manning. Monroe, who has been scoring at a 40 point plus average in his last four games, is leading the league with a 28.4 average. Manning, the leading scorer in North Carolina College history, ranks third in the loop with a 27.5 clip.

The starting line-up for Winston will include Monroe, Howard Rideell, James Reid, Joe Cunningham and Eugene Smiley. The Eagles will counter with Manning, Lee Davis, Al Connor, Daniel McClain and Curtis Watkins.

Tri. Theatre to Conduct Tele. Marathon Fri.

The Triangle Repertory Theatre of Durham will conduct a telephone marathon on Friday, January 28. The announcement was made by William J. Griffith of Duke University, Chairman of the Citizen's Committee to assist the Theatre.

The purpose of the campaign, according to Griffith, "is to indicate to four foundations interested in giving grants to the Triangle Theatre that this area will continue its support of the theatre."

The Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation and the Mary Duke Biddle Foundation have both pledged grants to the project and two other State Foundations have expressed interest in developing the professional theatre program as begun by the Triangle Theatre.

According to theatre director, Wesley Van Tassel, the grants are available in February if "substantial area support is expressed before allotment time. The volunteer Citizen's Committee was formed to obtain the general public response while the theatre is conducting private solicitation."

Griffith, in his announcement, emphasized that "no pledge is too small. Everyone who enjoys the theatre productions is urged to make the effort to call one of the listed numbers and make a pledge. If a cash contribution is not possible, call anyway and express your desire to see the theatre continue," he explained.

If the campaign is successful, Van Tassel announced that the theatre would produce a seven to nine month season in

- Continued on page 3B
- Christine Wallace, Detroit, Mich.
 - Barbara Aaron, Detroit, Mich.
 - Sarah Allen, Washington, D. C.
 - Helen Mays, Chicago, Illinois

CLASPED HANDS—Robert Saunders, left, star playmaker with the A. and T. College Aggies, and Paris Lenon (44), forward with the North Carolina College Eagles, appear to have hands clasped in action when the two teams played recently in Greensboro. Saunders made the shot, despite the close contact, to help the Aggies win, 71-63. Awaiting the rebound is Roy Killens (30) of the Eagles.

ZOILO VERSALLES, Twin shortstop, and the plaque awarded him as the American League's Most Valuable Player in '65.

"MR. DYNAMITE" IN HOLLYWOOD!—On a recent trip here to discuss a movie of his fabulous career, super-entertainer James Brown guested on numerous national TV shows singing his latest million-seller, "I Got You." He also played to a packed L.A. Sports Arena where he previewed his next recording, "Ain't That A Groove."

WILLIE MAYS, the majors' home-run king of '65, wears the Sultan of Swat crown, presented at the Baltimore Tops in Sports dinner, while Johnny Mize, former homer king, sports the retroactive tiara. Mize led the N. L. in homers in 1939 and '40, and tied in '47-48.