Year 'Round Garden Club Holds Meeting

The Year Round Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Gazella Lipscomb on Macklin Street, April 18. Mrs. Emma Randolph opened the Garden Gate. Due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Madge Harveys, vice-president, presided over the business session. There were reports of various committees.

The meeting then took the form of a workshop on Horticulture. J. C. Hubbard, speaker for the evening, led the discussion. He explained the three parts of the seed. He said we can see that God is not dead as we see the beauty of His handy work and also that we plant our gardens to beautify God's earth. He also explained how and when to prune. Flowering shrubbery should be pruned right after they finish blooming. We were well informed on how to care for our gardens.

Mrs. Lipscomb assisted by her sister, Mrs. Jannie McLean, served a delicious repast. Members present were Mesdames Flossie Torain, Mary Green, Cora Jackson, Emma Randolph, Plassie Harris, Alice Collins, Annie Mayo, Roxie Rowland, Gertrude Long, Lena Gates, Jannie McLean, Eugenia Simmons, Miss Edna Mason and guest, J. C. Hubbard.
