CAMP BETTY HASTINGS TAKING APPLICATIONS FOR CAMP SESSION

WINSTON-SALEM — YWCA Camp Betty Hastings, operated by the Glade Street YWCA in

Winston-Salem, is now receiving applications for its 30th camping season. Campers are girls between eight and fifteen, and the first of three two-week sessions begins Sunday, June 19. Swimming and boating, archery, woodcraft, handicrafts, nature lore, landsports, tennis, dramatics, music, and rhythms are among the varied camp activities. Much of the planning is done by the campers themselves, with the guidance of college-age counselors chosen for special skills and mature character. Girls live in cabins by age groups, doing many things by cabins and joining with the whole camp community for special activities such as campfires, camp festivals, and worship services. The cost of YWCA camping is moderate, but some partial and full campership funds are available. Campers from all over the Southeast United States attend Camp Betty Hastings, as girls do not have to be members of any club or troop to register for camp. Girls may attend one, two, or three sessions. For the first time this year, girls will be accepted for one-week periods, beginning either June 19 or June 26. The third session, July 17-30, will feature a special Woodcraft program. In addition to the regular sports and waterfront activities, girls will have more intensive experience in outdoor living, nature lore, and exploring.

Camp Betty Hastings, the only camp owned by a North Carolinian YWCA, includes 75 acres of cool wooded hills about fifteen miles north of Winston-Salem. It is an accredited member of the American Camping Association.

N. C. MUTUAL RETIREMENT CLUB MEETS

The North Carolina Mutual Retirement Club celebrated its First Anniversary April 21, at the YWCA Building. The meeting was called to order by its President, C. M. Palmer.

The new theme song, arranged by Mrs. Consuelo Foreman in the tune of Auld Lang Syne, was heartily received and sung by the members, after which prayer was offered by John L. Holloway.

The luncheon consisting of tossed salad, T-bone steak, new Irish Idaho potatoes, green beans, hot rolls, coffee and delicious strawberry short cake with ice cream was well enjoyed during the table discussion of current events while several stereo phonographic records were played.

Congratulations came from President Asa T. Spaulding, Mrs. Viola G. Turner, ex-treasurer, Mrs. Mary Sanders and Leroy Frazier, Agency Director, who also gave the members an invitation to go to the President's Convention, at the Seville Hotel, Miami, Florida during the month of June in honor of the company's leading representatives who won the trip during the 1965 contest.

Those present accepting the invitation were C. C. Smith, Wendell White, John L. Holloway, James Strickland and C. M. Palmer. Other members present were Mesdames Nola M. Cox, Charity Rivera, Fannie McLean, Bessie Doby, Merma Dunnigan and Celeste Smith. The next meeting will be sponsored by C. C. Smith, May 19, at the YWCA Building at 1 p.m.

HOW TO TRAVEL IN FINE FASHION

For millions of Americans who are pondering the question "Where shall we spend our vacation this year?", one of the best answers is right under their very noses — in the U. S. A!

Traveling through the U. S. has become so "in" this year that one sportswear manufacturer, Evan Picone, has designed a whole travel wardrobe for women who wish to enjoy more of America. These fashions, made in fabrics with Eastman Kodak polyester, are designed to give the maximum performance with a minimum of care.

Because the blouses are coordinated with a variety of skirts, slacks and suits, you are assured of having a choice of fashions for every sight-seeing occasion.

A trip to New York offers world-famous museums, theaters, concerts, the United Nations and historic landmarks such as the Statue of Liberty.

In Washington, D. C., the sight-seeing possibilities are endless. You may wish to see Congress in action, tour the National Gallery of Art or the Smithsonian Institute, or take a side trip to Mount Vernon via Washington's famed Potomac River.

Westward Ho, to the breathtaking Grand Canyon — a justly famous sight. For a little glamour, you might finish off your trip with a visit to Los Angeles, where you can tour the studios where both movies and some of your favorite TV films are produced.

Whatever your itinerary, with handsomely tailored versatile spectator and active sportswear fashions made with easy-care Kodak polyester, you're sure to look impeccably groomed at all times.
