Court Frees Father Of Four In Death Of Deputy Sheriff

LOS ANGELES—Philip Bentley Brooks, Negro father of four, was freed Wednesday April 26, after a jury declared him innocent in the shooting death of a white deputy sheriff during the Watts uprising of last August. Deputy Ronald Ludlow was killed during the disorders when the shotgun of his partner Deputy William Leuer discharged, striking him in the stomach. Brooks, Joseph Lavine, Jr., and Harold Potts, were driving in Watts when approached by the armed deputies. After one deputy shot the other, the three Negroes were dragged from their car, beaten, carted off to the jail section of the county hospital and charged with murder, although none had a weapon nor had touched the trigger that fired the fatal shot. Potts and Lavine were held without bail for four months and then released following a court decision on appeal. Brooks, held for nearly seven months, was finally brought to

HIGH POINT—In a regular session of the Ministers Fellowship of High Point and vicinity on Monday, April 25, the Committee on Social Concerns was authorized to release a statement concerning the recent controversy involving the City Council of High Point and the Ministers Fellowship. The controversy was caused over a list of ten grievances submitted by the fellowship in April of 1965. The statement is also directed to the writer of the Good Morning column of the High Point Enterprise, Sunday, Apr. 24, 1966. In this article, clergyman B. Elton Cox, in the fellowship's opinion, was unnecessarily and maliciously attacked and accused of masquerading under a cloak of self righteousness. Scott To Attend UNC With Full Scholarship Agreement LAURINBURG—Charlie Scott of Laurinburg Institute ended much speculation Tuesday when he signed a full scholarship agreement with the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. According to Scott, Dean Smith, the head basketball coach at Carolina, visited him Tuesday and signed him. A 6-5 New York native, Scott's services had been requested by more than 93 colleges and universities. After much consideration, Scott cut the list to three schools—Davidson, Duke and UNC. Word had been circulated that Scott was all but "in" at Davidson because he had signed a "letter of intent." To clarify this statement, Scott stated that he only signed an "early letter of decision." Scott is the first of his race to receive an athletic grant-in-aid at UNC. However, Willie chest four times with one of the bullets striking near the heart. Officers said five bullets had been fired from Wilder's pistol and that one of the bullets might possibly have caused Wilder's wrist wound.

Arrest And Jailing Of Highly Respected Woman Shocking

The arrest and jailing of a highly ill and highly respected Negro woman by local police here last week-end, after she was wrongfully accused of being drunk on a city bus fairly rocked Durham and the surrounding vicinity this week. Investigation of the unfortunate incident disclosed that Mrs. Minnie Lee Council, 516 Mason Street, suffered a cerebral hemorrhage while enroute home on the bus. She was later arrested and jailed by police officer, T. T. Blalock, at Five Points, after he had been summoned to the scene when she failed to leave the bus after being ordered to do so by the driver. According to police records, Mrs. Council was placed in jail at 6:30 p.m. When it was discovered around three hours later that she was seriously ill, instead of being drunk, she was rushed to Lincoln Hospital where it has been reported she was suffering great pain in the head. She was treated at Lincoln where she succumbed to the cerebral hemorrhage about 9:45 p.m. Further investigation of Mrs. Council's arrest and jailing discloses that she was never known to drink and according to Rev. E. T. Browne, minister of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church of which Mrs. Council was a member, she was one of the best members of the church and to his knowledge, over 19 years, had proved true to the tenets of the Christian religion.
