Pearsontown Club Holds Anniversary

Pearsontown Community Club celebrated its 18th Anniversary Monday night, March 9, at Mt. Zion Baptist Church with Norfley Whitted as Master of Ceremony.

The speaker for the occasion was Dr. William H. Fuller who spoke on the subject, "The Small Become Large." He emphasized the fact that in God's sight and under His law there is no insignificant life and unimportant deed. In God's great order and in His good time the small may become vastly great. Not infrequently, the doors of destiny swing open on exceedingly small hinges.

The Firemen of Station 4, located on Fayetteville Street, were guests of honor with their wives. The 12 of them were presented beautiful citations by Mrs. Evelyn Thorpe. Mrs. Thorpe commended the firemen for their diligence and interest in city and community. Captain Thomas presented a group of younger men trainees under his auspices in other phases of the work.

Special music was by Misses Ida Rose Page and Diana Hill, with a solo by Mrs. Lola White.

A very large number of persons were present despite the weather. All promised to vote for Attorney Thompson for Judge.

TO WED—Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Page announce the engagement of their daughter, Irma Jean, to Rogers Davis, son of Mr and Mrs. William Davis of Warrenton.

Miss Page is a graduate of North Carolina College and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Davis is a senior in the North Carolina College School of Law and President of the Student Bar Association. The wedding will take place in June.

Mrs. L. Van Sombeek At Baha'i Meet

Mrs. Ludmila VanSombeek has returned to Durham after attending the National Baha'i convention in Wilmette, Ill. which convened at the Universal House of Worship.

Over 1600 people, representing all nations, races and classes, from many religious backgrounds participated. The purpose was for the election of the National Spiritual Assembly of the U.S.A. in order to continue with additional plans and efforts to bring about a peaceful society with justice and unity with all peoples and equal opportunity by intellectual and spiritual education and training to put into practice this important principal from the Baha'i literature: "Let your vision be world-embracing rather than confined to your own selves" . . . "That one indeed is a man who, today, dedicateth himself to the service of the entire human race"

After that Mrs. Van Sombeek visited her daughter and family who lives in Stony Brook, New York. They are also members of the Baha'i Faith so Mrs. VanSombeek was taken by her family to other members and communities working for these principles sharing experiences.
