Units Speed NAACP Drive For Members

NEW YORK—No effort is being spared to make the NAACP's Crash Membership drive a resounding success. In addition to appointing special staff members to assist in the effort, individual mailings are going out to fraternal and church groups, taped messages urging membership have been sent to several state conference meets from the National Office, and in some localities local radio time has been secured for spot membership announcements.

The organization has set a goal of 200,000 new or renewed memberships between now and December 1 to make the organization's total enrollment exceed that of 1965.

"We've really got this thing rolling now," says Glover B. Current, director of branches and field administration. He recently met with leaders in Atlanta, Ga., to spur that city's drive towards a 3,000 quota. The campaign there is being directed by Rev. Sam Williams and Rev. Joseph Boone.

In Jackson, Miss., Rev. R. M. Richmond will direct the branch's drive toward a total of 1,500 members. Maryland State Conference president Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell has four area directors working with her. They are Sam Hamilton, Walter Black, Rev. R. R. Hicks and Rev. John Ringgold.

The Texas drive in Dallas is being conducted by Mrs. Lydia Roberson with a goal of 2,000 members. And Mrs. Willa Baxter reporting for the Metropolitan council of branches says she has been successful in lining up radio time for spot membership announcements.

Representatives Intensify Hunt For Instructors

NEW YORK CITY—A team of teacher recruiters will be in Cleveland next Monday and Tuesday, October 24 and 25, to outline teaching opportunities in New York City to neophytes as well as experienced teachers in the Cleveland area.

Royce Phillips and Richard Rosenblum of the New York City school system's Bureau of Recruitment will hold an open house at a suite in Cleveland's Hotel Statler Hilton on Monday and Tuesday evening for those interested in teaching in New York City. They will show a teacher recruitment film, and will answer questions about teaching in New York City schools.

In the daytime, the recruiters are expected to visit colleges and universities, including Western Reserve, the Ohio State University at Lakewood and St. John of Cleveland, to discuss teaching in New York City with college students.

New York City recruiters have heretofore visited cities in the South and in New England. They have also established teacher examination centers in Washington, D. C., Boston, Mass., and Nashville, Tenn.

New York City pays beginning teachers who have a bachelor's degree $5,400 a year. Those with advanced study can qualify for as much as $7,400 a year to start. The maximum is $11,950 after 13 years' experience, plus advanced study.

TEAR GAS STOPS SHOW

JACKSON, Miss.—Tear gas sent white and Negro spectators scrambling from a tent at the Mississippi State Fair Friday night. Seven persons were treated for inhalation of the gas.

Police said the incident occurred at the "Harlem Review," a show featuring Negro performers.

Officers said the gas came from a canister found in the tent.

JACKSON, Miss.—Lawrence T. Guyot Jr., Chairman of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, announced this week that the U. S. Supreme Court had refused to review a decision of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, as requested by State of Mississippi and Sunflower County officials. The lower court had invalidated Sunflower County municipal elections on the grounds that Negroes had been excluded from the electoral process. The 3-judge panel ordered new elections to take place. The State, coming to the aid of Sunflower County, appealed the decision of the lower court. They did not state the basis of their objections to the precedent-setting ruling. By refusing to review the case or to hear supporting arguments, the Supreme Court has upheld the findings of the lower court in favor of the MFDP-sponsored suit.

"Although I would like to hail this as a great victory for the MFDP," Chairman Guyot stated, "I must point out that election dates have not been set. We are prepared and are waiting further action of the Court." Guyot said that MFDP candidates will run for elective offices in this Delta County—home Sen. James O. Eastland, (D-Miss.)—where Negroes comprise 60.8% of the voting age population. In one town, Sunflower City, Negroes already hold a registered voting majority. In other towns of the

State NAACP Calls For "Rainbow Power" At Meet

RALEIGH—The Ministers Division of the North Carolina NAACP Conference was key-noted here Thursday with an address by the Rev. J. T. McMillan, Winston-Salem, with a call for "Rainbow Power" — black and white all races, religions and creeds working together for the common good of all Americans. The slogan was adopted by the convention.

However, at the closing business session Saturday night some objections were raised by a few delegates who felt

NAACP had sufficient credo in its open policy to serve all races.

Some 60 ministers attended the power packed program arranged for them by Kelly Alexander, Sr., President North Carolina NAACP; Rev. W. Banks, and Charles A. McLean, field secretary for the 107 branches, college and youth chapters of the state.

A delegation of ministers called on the Governor's office, but came away not too encouraged regarding their protesting the State's renting of booth space to the Ku Klux Klan.

McMillan and Alexander denounced the philosophy of "black power" as it has been generally interpreted to mean the isolation of Negroes from whites.

Citing the extreme poverty of most Negroes, up to 22 per cent unemployed, up to 40 per cent school dropouts and income scales (rural) from $1,213 to $1,500 average as compared with the $4,000 average for rural whites.
