

MAN RUNS BERSERK—(Chicago)—Lane Odum shouts and fights with policemen as he is dragged to a paddy wagon here from the Curtis Candy Company plant where he ran berserk and killed one of his fellow employees and wounded two more with gunshots. Police said that Odum had been fired shortly before he went berserk. (UPI Telephoto)

Alexander Protests Moore's Putting NAACP in Klan Category

CHARLOTTE—Kelly M. Alexander, President of the North Carolina National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said this week that the North Carolina Conference of NAACP Branches sent a special telegram to Governor Dan K. Moore protesting the reference of the NAACP in the same category with the Ku Klux Klan.

It was reported that Governor Moore said in a press conference in Raleigh, on Tuesday, October 25, 1966, "I don't feel that any of these political actions groups have any part in a State Fair," and he classified these groups and named the NAACP and the Ku Klux Klan in the same category.

The telegram sent to Governor Moore by the NAACP stated: "We, the officers and members of the North Carolina State Conference of Branches, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People protest vigorously the unjust and unfair sensitive reference and classification of the NAACP in the same category as the Ku Klux Klan because we are very sensitive as to such a classification."

NAACP is an American organization with a 57 year record of effective achievements, unmatched by the efforts of any Civil Rights organization anywhere in the world. NAACP is non-partisan. NAACP has always worked within the framework of the U. S. Constitution and it has never utilized or advocated violence to achieve its goals. NAACP has never requested space at the annual State Fair and has no desire to do so.

The State Convention of the NAACP met in Raleigh, the same time the fair was in progress but the NAACP did not disgrace North Carolina with inflammatory remarks about any ethnic group. NAACP displayed the essence of fairness and justice to all.

In the future we hope that the NAACP will not be referred to by the Governor of our State in the same category as the Ku Klux Klan."

The telegram was signed by Kelly M. Alexander, President of the North Carolina State Conference of NAACP Branches and Rev. J. T. McMillan, Chairman, NAACP State Conference Church Committee.

KING AND SHRIVER IN CONFERENCE—(Atlanta)—Sargent Shriver (R), director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, huddles with Dr. Martin Luther King in a reported attempt to solve a dispute arising out of Mississippi's Poverty Program. King was an unannounced and apparently unexpected attendant at the conference, which came about after the OEO cut off funds to the Child Development Group of Mississippi. (UPI Telephoto)

Geography and the Committee on Visiting Lecturers, she will talk with small groups, visit classes, and deliver a public address.

Lady Carter, a native North Carolinian and a former Wilkesboro third grade teacher holds the B.A. degree from Bennett College. She has had wide experience in the fields of fashion and radio. As a fashion model, she has appeared on more than 26 covers. She has also had eight years experience in broadcasting, the last four as conductor of a daily interview-type radio program in Guyana. The program, called "Sara Salon," lasted for 1 1/2 hours. She has conducted two children's programs called "Something for the Children" and "Welcome on Earth."

Lady Carter is scheduled to give the banquet address for the twentieth annual meeting of the North Carolina Resource-Use Education Conference at 6 p.m., Thursday, November 10, at the Blair House. She will be introduced to the convention at the third general session at 2 p.m. in B. N. Duke Auditorium, said Dr. Speigner, state chairman of the conference.

Church-goers do not necessarily lead model lives, but on the average, they are our best citizens.

ADVANCE USE QUINIDINE PROVES GREAT AID TO HEART SUFFERERS

NEW YORK—A drug long used to subdue dangerous heart beat irregularities may also be used effectively in preventing them in the first place, thereby helping more patients recover from heart attacks.

The drug, quinidine, a chemical relative of malaria-fighting quinine, is currently used to treat heartbeat irregularities after they appear. Animal experiments reported today at the Scientific Sessions of the a research team from Duke University, point to the possibility that it might be prescribed in advance—perhaps at the onset of a "coronary"—as a means of heading off rhythm disturbances.

Arrhythmias are a major cause of death in the first hours and days after a heart attack strikes.

To explore the possible value of quinidine in preventing arrhythmias, the Duke researchers worked with pigs in which they induced heart attacks comparable to those which occur in man. The pig was chosen as the experimental animal because its coronary circulation is similar to man's.

Dr. Victor W. Hurst, spokesman for the Duke team, said that of 17 pigs treated with quinidine, seven (35%) survived total shut down of the main coronary artery, compared with three of 20 pigs (15%) not given quinidine. The drug also increased survival time among the animals that did not recover. In this group, animals treated with quinidine lived an average of 31.3 hours compared with 19.7 hours for non-treated.

Associated with Dr. Hurst in the study were Drs. James J. Morris, Jr., Donald B. Hackel and Henry D. McIntosh.

Ambassador's Wife to Visit NCC Campus

Lady Sara Lou Carter, the wife of Sir John Carter, ambassador of the new Republic of Guyana to the United States, will be the visiting lecturer for the North Carolina College Department of Geography on Friday, November 11, according to Dr. Theodore R. Speigner, chairman of the department.

During the visit, sponsored by the college's Department of

Homecoming at Livingstone Set For Nov. 11-13

SALISBURY — Homecoming will be observed at Livingstone College Nov. 11-13, with a big weekend crammed full of thrills and gala events which promise to make this the most memorable Homecoming in the 86-year history of the college. Highlight of the festive occasion will be the dedication of the Alumni Stadium on the campus constructed at a cost approximating $75,000 with funds contributed by the General Alumni Association. Dedication ceremonies are scheduled for 1 p.m. immediately preceding the game on Saturday.

Other activities planned for the 'ole grads will include an

All-College Assembly at 10 a.m. on Friday, an "Old Timers Football Game" at 4:30 p.m. featuring stars of by-gone years, social affairs and an Athletes Dinner in the Aggrey Union, Homecoming Parade at 11 A.M. Saturday and a big half-time show during the football game.

Livingstone, currently one of the leaders in the powerful CIAA, will host the Pirates of Elizabeth City State College for the game. Alumni and Bearrooters will have the opportunity of watching Alfred Tyler, leading passer in the CIAA and Livingstone's greatest ever, perform on the gridiron. The half-time show will feature mass band demonstrations, including the Livingstone College band in its premiere performance, the crowning of Miss Livingstone and Miss Alumni and the introduction of alumni dignitaries.

The football game will be followed by the annual Alumni Dance at which time a 1967 Ford Mustang will be awarded in the Alumni Fund-Raising campaign. Homecoming at Livingstone is always a colorful and exciting event to watch and this year it will have added colored due to the calibre of the football team, the new marching band and dedication of the Alumni Stadium. W. M. Gilliam, Durham, executive with N. C. Mutual, is alumni president.

Advertising is the art of persuading a buyer that what you have to sell is worth more to him than his money.

The younger generation, God bless them, doesn't understand what the word "work" means in most cases.

Clara Ward to Take Singers To Viet Nam

PHILADELPHIA — Gospel singer Clara Ward will take her troupe to Viet Nam for a month's tour of the battle front to entertain the soldiers, she announced this week.

Perturbed over the fact that few Negro performers have made the journey to the Far East nation here American and GIs of other nations are fighting on the battlefields, Miss Ward canceled out five weeks of engagements to take up the offer of the United States State Department and the United Service Organization. She will leave from Los Angeles on Nov. 9 and begin the tour of Army, Navy and Air Force installations on Nov. 14.

"Until a few weeks ago I never realized how desperately performers were needed over there to boost the morale of our fighting men," she said. "I feel that the Ward Singers can help give the men a touch of home as our music is religious and our special treatment of their favorite hymns and gospel songs will help uplift their spirits."

Starting at the age of 5, Clara Ward first lifted her voice in song at Philadelphia's Ebenezer Baptist Church under the guidance of her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Ward. Since then, first with her mother heading the aggregation and headlining the Ward Singers herself, Miss Ward has traveled throughout the world. The warmth and the style of the group has been happily received from such diverse audiences in Israel, the Newport Jazz Festival and wild-eyed crap shooters in Las Vegas gambling dens.

NEW! TRY US!

Santitone Model LAUNDRY-CLEANERS

BOURBON DE LUXE $2.50 PINT

$4.00 4/5 QUART

THE BOURBON DE LUXE DISTILLERY COMPANY, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, 86 PROOF. CONTAINS 49% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS.

SEE THE ALL NEW Quality 1967 Ford Line and Before you move check The Fabulous Mustang SALE AT Alexander FORD

- ★ CHECK THE STYLE
- ★ CHECK THE QUALITY
- ★ CHECK THE SALE PRICE

Check The "Original" Mustang at

Visit the Lot With the A-1 Sign for the Finest Used Car

Alexander FORD 330 E. Main Ph. 688-2311 Durham, N. C.

YOUR HOMETOWN VOLUME FORD DEALER

Support Durham's UNITED FUND

N. C. Dealer No. 1659