The Bulls led in the rebound department, 50-35. The inability to hit from the free throw line by the Eagles was again a determining factor in the contest. The Eagles were able to find the range on only 16 of 31 free throws while the Bulls were true on 22 of 34 charity tosses.

Four players scored in double figures for Smith which now has an over-all record of 3-1. King hit seven of 11 from the field and four of six charity shots for his 18 points while Randolph converted eight of 16 from the floor and two of four free throws for his 18-point total.

Randolph, a 6-3 jumping jack, led all rebounders with 18 retreats.

Lee Davis, the Eagles 6-8 pivotman, was the top scorer and rebounder for NCC. He tallied

Eagles Divide First Two Cage Tilts of Season

North Carolina College divided a pair of basketball games last week as the Eagles opened their 1966-67 season with two CIAA games at home. NCC defeated Fayetteville State College, 87-65 last Thursday in the initial game of the season for both clubs, but Virginia State College came from behind in the closing minutes to nip the Eagles, 66-65 last Saturday.

Coach Floyd Brown's quintet broke open a close game in the second half with a second half shooting exhibition which netted 49 points. Leading 38-28 after the first 20 minutes NCC roared back in the second half to put the game out of reach in the first 10 minutes.

NCC broke out of a cold spell in the initial half against Va. State to build up a comfortable 15-point advantage only to see the lead narrowed to nine at halftime. The Eagles enjoyed a 38-13 lead with 3:10 left in the first half before three hook shots by Eugene Nelson closed the gap to 32-23 at the intermission.

The Trojans finally caught up with NCC with two minutes and ten seconds left in the Going down the stretch, to the point that only 6:51 remained in the half, Shaw had taken a commanding 30-12 lead. Livingstone closed the 30-12 to 32-21. Again Moore and Joyner came to the aid of their team, collecting eleven points in about a minute and a half. The Bears closed the first half with a 40-29 margin.

The second half saw the Raleigh quint make the game a no-contest as they rallied to move to a twenty-nine point lead, at 72-43 at the 10:03 advantage point. Shaw received great help from little Sanders, who played the back court opposite Norman Joyner. Saunders dropped in thirteen points and contributed numerous assistance.

game. Va. State took the lead, 64-63, on two free throws by Alonza Bumbry. Clutch free throw shooting by the 5-8 backcourt artist, who drew fouls from the taller NCC cagers the rest of the way, paved the way for the win for the visitors.

NCC shot 52 percent from the field against Fayetteville as compared with 28 percent for the Broncos. Fayetteville converted 19 of 32 from the charity line while the Eagles were able to hit only 11 of 31.

Balanced scoring was the key for NCC in its first two games. Four players scored in double figures for the Eagles against the Broncos, and three hit the two-figure mark in the loss to Va. State. Byron Kirkley tallied 18 points in the opener to lead the NCC scoring, while Lee Davis and Willie Sinclair scored 14 points apiece in the Va. State game. Oscar Phillips was high man for the Broncos with 16 markers. James Howell scored 22 points and Nelson, 20 for the visitors.
