Cong. Urges Negroes To Register and Vote

Lauds Sacrifce Being Made in Southern Cities

CHICAGO, Illinois Americans must register and ote effectively and vote in every election," today declared Congressman John Conyers, Jr. (Dem.-Michigan). "Only if we use our political rights fully will we gain economic and social freedom. While our brothors in the South risk their lives for the right to vote, surely we in the North can bestir our selves to register and vote when we don't have to face those dangers. Though obstacles are surely placed in our way, we cannot claim we have Sheriff Jim Clarks or mobs to Conyers particularly stressed the importance of Negroes vot ing in local elections since "city government directly handles those programs which have special and immediate effect on Negro Americans. We cannot possibly get from our elected officials the kinds of program leading to better education, housing and welfare programs f we don't show up on elec tion day and vote for those who support those programs To get our civil rights we must fulfill our civil responsibilities," declared Conyers in a speech prepared for delivery at the kick-off voter registration rally at the Liberty Baptist Church sponsored by the See CONYERS 2A
