Q. I need some advice about my figure, quick. My stomach just isn't flat. In fact, it's very non-flat. Mom says exercise will help, but I don't know any good ones. Can you tell me at least one to get started?

A. You've probably heard bout sit-ups a zillion times ---duty sit-ups, which go even further, work even better! Lie flat on your back, arms your head, legs straight in front of you, the bottoms of your feet touching a box of Kleenex tissues. Swing your arms up and forward until they pull you into a sitting position. Then, instead of lying down again, reach forward until your fingertips are over your toes. Grab a tissue with both hands, then s-l-o-w-l-v curl your back until you in starting position again. Reeat, keeping your feet on the oor. Eat moderately, too, and you can be in shape by sum-

If they approve, be sure she arrives before they leave, so they can meet. Chances are, you can work something out.

work something out. Q, I'd like to keep pictures of Mom. and Dad, grandparents, brothers and ststers, and cous-ins where I can see them, but if I put them all on my desk, I wouldd't have room to study. Have any ideas for displaying all the pictures together?

A. Why not keep your pho tographs on a family tree? Grow it on a closet or cabinet door or the wall above your bed Marvalon adhesive covering is perfect for the trunk and leaves. A bark-colored cocoa brown trunk — or a fantasy candy pink or cherry red one out of Marvalon provides the basic tree. Add as many leaves as you have photographs, and glue a picture on each one.
