

during the day for tours of the city.

Saturday, the concluding day of the convention, opens with a panel at 9:00 A.M. "Horizons of Opportunity," Dr. Emery Rann, local physician, presiding. Discussions on Industry and Business, Medicine and Law, Services, Education and Religion will take place.

Highlighting the convention will be a banquet featuring an address by Dr. George W. Hunter, Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences at South Carolina State College. Culminating the three-day affair will be The Alpha Dance at 9 P.M., featuring the fabulous music of Johnny Holloway and The Hi Tones in Convention Hall.

Dr. Lionel Newsome, associated with Ford Foundation, and General President of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, will conduct the State Meetings.

Two Honored At Sr. Citizens March Party

The March Birthday Party of the Senior Citizens at St. Titus' honored Mrs. Wilma Milum and Mrs. Janie Moore. Each sat at one end of the table with a cake in front of her burning a single large candle to signify one added year. After "Happy Birthday to You" and "How Old Are You?" came the answer "as old as she feels." That really seemed youthful at the moment.

The lace-covered table had a centerpiece of red camellias flanked by red candles. Other candles glowed festively.

Among the candles and the flowers were served an abundance of delicious ham biscuits, a prettily molded jellied fruit salad on lettuce, ice cream, cake, coffee, and brightly colored candy Easter eggs. The cakes and the ham biscuits had been furnished by the two honorees. One cake was baked by Mrs. Addie Williams; the other, with the ham biscuits, by Mrs. Milum. The salad was a contribution by Mrs. Mary Newby.

The gift table, also decorated with camellias was piled with birthday remembrances. Mrs. Addie Williams read, most appropriately, a poem "Not

GETS EAGLE SCOUT AWARD

In a ceremony held recently at Fire Station No. 4, the Eagle Scout Award is being presented to Andrew D. Malloy. Mrs. Lida Malloy, mother of Andrew is shown pinning the Eagle Badge on her son. The Eagle Badge, is the highest award a boy can receive.
